DRAFT PROSECUTION.

HENEY WANTED RUEF TO CONVICT CALHOUN.

Ex-Boss, in Sensational Affidavit, Says He Was Asked to Swear to Lies.

Declares Graft Prosecution Insisted He Give False Testimony Against Head of United Railways as Well as Against Herrin, Harriman and Gov. Gillett—Immunity Contract Abrogated, He Says.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock Abraham Ruef will, through his attorneys, Henry Ach, Frank J. Murphy and M. C. Chapman, present to Judge Dunne a motion to allow him to withdraw his plea of guilty entered on May 15, and substitute a plea of not guilty in the case brought on indictment No. 305, one of the French restaurant extortion cases. To support his motion, Ruef will file affidavits of a sensational nature, the substance of which was given out tonight.

In filing the motion, Ruef states that the plea of guilty was improperly and inadvisedly tendered and that the defendant is not guilty of the offense charged, and that he was induced to enter the plea of guilty by virtue of an agreement and understanding with the District Attorney, William H. Langdon, Assistant District Attorney Heney, special agent of the District Attorney, Burns, and the financial backer of the District Attorney in this prosecution, Rudolph Spreckels, and because of the agreement and understanding of the judge presiding in this department of the Superior Court, Judge Dunne, that the plea of guilty should subsequently be withdrawn and the plea of not guilty substituted, and the cause dismissed against the defendant.

The motion also will state that the District Attorney has heretofore consented to the withdrawal of the plea of guilty, and that this plea was obtained from the defendant by fraud, coercion, duress and false pretenses.

The motion will be presented to the court on March 12.

Ruef states that his reason for filing the motion at this time is that he may not seem to be taking advantage of the technical victory he gained by the decision of the Appellate Court, and in order that the stigma of the plea may be removed in a manner which will leave no doubt of his innocence. In the affidavits to be presented in connection with the motion he states that he received nothing from the French restaurant-keepers, except some legal fees.

INSISTED ON TELLING TRUTH.

The affidavit repeatedly accuses Burns, Heney and Langdon of subornation of perjury in their attempts to make Ruef swear falsely in the case against Patrick Calhoun for bribing Supervisors.

His whole plea for the granting of the motion is based on the statement that the immunity contract was abrogated by the prosecution when they found that he would tell the truth on the witness stand, and when he refused to sign false affidavits and swear falsely in court.

Coming down to the case brought by William J. Teyis against R. A. Crothers and Fremont Older, owner and editor of the Bulletin respectively, for criminal libel, Ruef states that special agent Burns attempted to force him to sign affidavits that were false, and in the attempt told him that Judge Dunne and Older were friends, and that Older and the Bulletin had stood by him and therefore he should stand by the Bulletin and its editor and proprietor and make the false affidavits.

In various places in the affidavit, Ruef states that Langdon, Heney and Burns repeatedly said to him that what they wanted was testimony that would convict Patrick Calhoun, and that they were willing to give him full immunity if he would give such testimony.

In the Schmitz case, the affidavit states, the prosecution urged him to give false testimony, and attempted to get him to testify that he had a previous arrangement in regard to what testimony he should give.

HENEY AFTER CALHOUN.

After the Ford case had been tried, the affidavit asserts, Heney sent word to Ruef that he could help them in the prosecution and that what they wanted of him was testimony that would convict Calhoun.

In his affidavit Ruef says that Burns attempted on behalf of the prosecution to secure from him statements in regard to political matters which related to William F. Herrin and E. H. Harriman, of the Southern Pacific company, to the effect that they had entered into a corrupt bargain with him regarding money to be paid to him for and concerning the nomination of James N. Gillett as a candidate for Governor of California by the Republican State Convention at Santa Cruz in 1906.

Ruef states that the prosecution claimed that Herrin, Harriman and Gillett had committed crimes against the laws of the State, for which they could be indicted, and that Burns stated to him that they had positive information and knowledge that Herrin had paid him (Ruef) a large sum of money to purchase the votes of the delegates representing the city and county of San Francisco in that convention.

Burns stated to Ruef, according to the affidavit, that the prosecution was particularly anxious to incriminate Herrin, Harriman and Gillett, and that Heney had the support of President Roosevelt in this connection and that the prosecution desired the overthrow of Herrin and Harriman in California. Ruef says in his affidavit that he stated to Burns that he could not truthfully say anything concerning Herrin, Harriman or Gillett that would incriminate them, and that not a dollar had been paid to him for his work at the Santa Cruz convention.

The affidavit says that, on his information and belief, the grand jury which indicted him was at all times under the complete control and domination of the prosecution.

POLICE CHIEF BIGGY IGNORES SUBPOENA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chief of Police William J. Biggy refused this morning to appear before Notary Public Gus Hartman in Henry Ach's law offices to give his deposition in the suit instituted by Abraham Ruef to recover $4659.95, alleged to have been unjustly extracted from him by the graft prosecution for the maintenance of his Fillmore-street prison-house.

Following the advice of his counsel, J. J. Webb, the Chief of Police, who is one of the six defendants in the suit in question, ignored the subpoena, which was served on him this week on Judge Buck's order.

Proceedings will begin tomorrow in Judge Buck's court to compel Chief Biggy to show cause why he disregarded the summons.

COPPER WAR RUMORED.

Calumet and Hecla and Amalgamated to Engage in Big Conflict Is Reported in Wall Street.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rumors of an impending conflict between the Amalgamated Copper Company, controlled by the Standard Oil, and the Calumet and Hecla Company were heard in Wall street today. The fight may be precipitated by the policy of the Calumet and Hecla Company underselling the copper trust here and abroad.

The stagnation in the copper trade, resulting in the accumulation of a surplus of 200,000,000 pounds caused the Amalgamated to close nearly all its Butte mines and reduced the price to a fraction above 12 cents a pound. Copper companies have been attempting to work off their surplus and last week it was reported this had been accomplished.

John D. Ryan, president of the company, arrived in Butte about a week ago and began preparations to reopen the Amalgamated mines and reemploy about 5000 men who have been laid off while the mines were closed down. This announcement caused a rise in copper stocks here and led to reports that revival in the industry was to be expected. It is asserted, however, that the Calumet and Hecla Company is balking

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LEXINGTON (Neb.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Th Thomas car, in the New York-to-Paris race, which stopped here for the night, made the most satisfactory day's run today that it made in two weeks. It covered 140 miles. If road conditions continue to improve, Roberts will try to reach Cheyenne tomorrow night by a 13-mile sprint.

The car was on the road today from 7 o'clock in the morning until after 7 tonight. It passed Silver Creek before 9 o'clock, running well over the sandy roads, arrived at Grand Island shortly after noon, covering sixty-three miles in five hours. It remained at Grand Island until 2 o'clock, then started away again. It passed Gibbon at 4 o'clock, making twenty-nine miles in two hours, then covered the distance to Elm Creek, twenty-eight miles, in another hour, finishing the day with the final spurt to Lexington, arriving here at 7:15 o'clock. In every town there was an enthusiastic crowd to welcome the crew.

MOTHERS WILL MEET.

Intimation That California Woman May Be Elected President of International Congress.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Plans for the International Congress of Mothers, which will convene here next Tuesday, are fast maturing.

The meetings will be held in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, known in history as the church where Presidents Grant and McKinley attended services. There will be distinguished delegates from all over the world and this convention will be the most important ever held by the "mothers." The Governor of each State was requested to personally appoint a delegate and the greater number of them have done so. Mrs. Cleveland, wife of former President Cleveland, who is one of the most interesting of all White House brides, was appointed by Gov. Fort of New Jersey. Miss Mary Ledyard of Los Angeles is the appointee of Gov. Gillett.

There is an intimation that when the time for election of officers arrives, a California woman will be in the lead for the presidency. Just who this woman is, has not been divulged.

Minnesota Governor Is Running.

Secures Indorsement of His Own State Committee After Fight.

Bryan Men Force Two Tests Before They Are Finally Whipped.

Give Notice They Will not Be Bound by Action of Yesterday.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) March 6.—The Democratic State Committee of Minnesota today, after a bitter fight, adopted a resolution indorsing Gov. Johnson of Minnesota for the Presidential nomination, and recommending that he be nominated at the national convention at Denver.

As the meeting of the committee was presided over by Frank A. Day, private secretary of the Governor, and who voted for the Johnson resolution on every test and on the final ballot, the action of the committee this afternoon is held by political leaders as placing the Governor formally in the race of the Democratic Presidential nomination.

The Johnson resolution was carried by a vote of 65 to 22, after the Bryan adherents had forced two test votes, on both of which they were defeated.

The Bryan men insisted on a roll call on every vote, and gave notice in their speeches on the original resolution that they would not be bound by the action of the State Committee, but would make a fight throughout the State for a delegation from Minnesota to the national convention instructed to support the nomination of Mr. Bryan.

The State convention will be held at St. Paul on May 14.

Two hundred Bryan men assembled at the Ryan Hotel after the committee adjourned and organized the "Bryan Volunteers of Minnesota," which proposes to carry the contest against Johnson into every district in the State.

The meeting was called to order by T. T. Hudson of Duluth, Democratic national committeeman from Minnesota, who thus lined up with the Bryan men for the fight for the control of the State. Herbert Sessler of Duluth was elected president of the Bryan organization.

An executive committee composed of one member from each congressional district in the State was appointed.

CONSTERNATION IN RANKS OF BRYANITES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. John A. Johnson of Minnesota was entered in the Presidential race today to the consternation and surprise of the followers of W. J. Bryan. The action of the Democratic State Central Committee in indorsing the Governor as a candidate for the Presidency, it is believed, will precipitate a bitter fight, not only in half a dozen Western States, but in the national convention at Denver.

Up to today, Bryan's hold upon the Democratic party has not been challenged. The Democrats of the Eastern States, particularly in New York and New Jersey, have been eager to find a candidate with whom they could beat Bryan. They picked Gov. Johnson as the man most likely to become an anti-Bryan leader within the party. But the Governor gave the eastern democrats no encouragement.

Today, however, with his own State behind him, with promises of support from North and South Dakota, with a strong following in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa, the Minnesota Governor becomes a formidable factor in the contest.

Martin O'Brien of Crookston voiced the sentiments of the Johnson party when he declared that Gov. Johnson can carry every State that Bryan could carry and in addition can carry Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and several other States which Bryan cannot hope to carry. In addition Johnson, he declared, would have a fighting chance of carrying New York, which Bryan could hardly hope to win.

That the Bryan men are alarmed is shown by their immediate organization of a seceding committee. It has been Bryan's plea that, while not desirous of a nomination, he would accept if drafted. And yet his followers in Minnesota are ready to split the party unless it insists on "drafting" the Nebraskan.

The Johnson adherents hope to challenge Bryan's hold in the party in several of the western States, and to go into the national convention with a following strong enough to prevent Bryan's nomination on the first ballot. The rule of the Democratic National Convention requires a two-thirds vote to nominate. With the delegations of Minnesota and a few western States added to the votes of New York and New Jersey, Bryan would have to fight to get a two-thirds majority.

NAVAL ERA FOR GERMANY.

First of Empire's Dreadnoughts Will Be Launched Today at Wilhelmshaven.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first of Germany's Dreadnoughts, the 18,000-ton battleship laid down in Wilhelmshaven navy yard in 1906, will be formally launched tomorrow in the presence, according to present plans, of the Kaiser, Prince Henry and officers of the admiralty.

Naval and military men throughout the empire are awaiting the event with intense interest, as the launching of the first fighting ship of this size marks the opening of the new naval developments.

The vessel, your correspondent learns, probably will be christened the Oranien or the Nassau. Although the details of the launching are withheld, the ship is believed to exemplify an entirely new type of naval construction, especially formidable in efficiency of armament, and the way the guns are disposed. The total cost of the ship is now expected to reach 26,000,000 marks ($9,000,000.) The Kaiser left for Wilhelmshaven

Paris Paper Declares Boni's Ex-Wife and de Sagan Are Married With Kaiser's Favor.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Cri de Paris, which is generally well informed, says that Mme. Anna Gould has been married to Prince Helie de Sagan in a quiet German town. The match, according to the journal, has been favored by the Kaiser, because Prince Sagan has also German titles higher than those he is possessed of in France.

If the Prince decides to become a naturalized German citizen, of which there is a strong likelihood, according to the Paris newspaper, the Kaiser will advance him materially.

Mme. Gould is contemplating a trip to America, says the Cri, in order to appeal to a council of her family to accept the Prince as a brother-in-law and to continue her allowance.

FAMILY IN IGNORANCE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the Fifth-avenue home of Miss Helen Gould tonight it was said that no word of the cabled intention of Mme. Anna Gould to visit America had been received. Neither had any announcement of a wedding been received.

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Aboard the White Star liner Celtic, which sailed yesterday for Liverpool, were 1000 Hungarians returning to their native land. Nine hundred of them bought their tickets from one agent and it appeared that they belonged to one community.

More than 100 who were questioned said that the majority of the party were returning to Hungary, not because of the hard times, but to bring back wives.

een of Assassins Declares Shippy Killed Unarmed Man at Home.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secrets of a new anarchist propaganda in this country the extent of the campaign carn on by the anarchists during the two months, as well as their fu- plans, were brought to light to- in connection with the presence Emma Goldman, so-called Queen of "Reds," who is in Chicago and lects to remain here until March 19. t was discovered that anarchists m all parts of the country have ne to take part in discussions which to be held here and that the visit Emma Goldman was arranged so t she could be here and personally ect the work of the convention.

ncidentally, during the forenoon' ma Goldman gave an interview, in ich she alleged that the real facts the tragedy at the Shippy home had n distorted, and made a number charges which were pooh-poohed on hands by police officials later.

DISCUSSES ANARCHY.

Among the men who have come here take part in the discussion and to d in carrying on the propaganda is lfred Schneider, who was an active ember of the Free Society at the me of the assassination of President cKinley. Schneider has been living New York, but arrived in Chicago day. When seen by a reporter, he nounced that he did not know just w long he would remain. He was rested with Emma Goldman, Abram Isaak, H. Havel and other anrchists at the time of the assassinaon of President McKinley.

Although declining to tell much bout the doings of anarchists to reorters, Emma Goldman, when in the ircle of her allies, whom she calls comrades," discussed the anarchist ituation in different parts of the world.

In conferring with her "comrades" s to her future plans today, Emma oldman declared that her propaganda works in the beginning of the year ad been most successful and that she was getting splendid results with little interference.

REPORT ON CONGRESS.

"My tour in the State of New York, s I have said in my communications to my anarchist friends, was more successful than I expected at the present time, when so many persons are without work," she said.

"The meetings at Syracuse were especially well attended, although the weather was very bad there. A group meeting was decided upon after my second lecture, and all anarchists and their sympathizers were invited to attend. Some thirty-five persons came to the group gathering, which was held in the home of a comrade.

"One of the principal messages which I have for the comrades in Chicago is to give them a complete report orally of the Amsterdam congress of anarchists, and I will make that report to the various groups of anarchists in spite of the police.

BLAMES CHIEF SHIPPY.

"As far as the present agitation against the anarchists is concerned, the anarchists will call upon Chief Shippy to explain it in detail when the excitement subsides. We have been carrying on an investigation of our own, which proved to us that the Averbuch boy was not an assassin. He went to Chief Shippy's home unarmed, and meant no violence or harm. The Shippy home contained other weapons as well as those which did violence upon the poor boy. It will be shown when we get through that Chief Shippy started out frightened, and then tried to pose as a hero by suppressing the real facts of the occurrence. Averbuch was no anarchist, so far as we know, and his death is deliberate murder.

"Why, the police of Chicago, by arresting the sister of their victim and subjecting her to horrible indignities, while she was grief stricken, have done more to strengthen the cause of anarchism than I could hope to do in half a dozen lectures. When the truth comes to light about the death of that boy, the Chief of Police will be condemned severely."

The sign is to be kept secret and known only to the international police. It is asserted that by this system the police would be enabled to watch the anarchists and thus prevent attacks similar to that made upon Chief Shippy in Chicago.

The idea is favored here, although the police refuse to discuss it until it has been approved by the powers.

ANARCHISTS PLAN DEFENSIVE CAMPAIGN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Plans to send 5000 copies of a letter denying that Lazarus Averbuch, the attempted slayer of Chief Shippy, was an anarchist, and setting forth the principles of that cult, were laid tonight at a secret meeting of anarchistic leaders, headed by Emma Goldman, at the home of William Daitch, No. 970 North Winchester avenue, where the "Queen of the Anarchists" is staying while in Chicago. The meeting lasted until after midnight.

Miss Goldman, despite the police ban on her oratory, announced today that she would defy them to keep her from speaking and that she would deliver a speech in Chicago if she had to stay here all summer to do it, and that she does not fear deportation.

GALE WRECKS CHIMNEYS.

Highest March Wind in Thirty Years Hits Chicago and Causes Extensive Damage.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—The highest March wind which had struck Chicago in thirty years, commenced early today from the southwest and wrought much havoc in the downtown districts.

The gale, which, at times reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour, blew down chimneys and smashed in several store fronts in the business section.

In the suburb of Gage Park which is flooded with water, the result of the rapid thaw of the last few days, the wind drove the water into waves which rolled into the first floors of residences, driving the tenants to second stories.

A funeral at West Fifty-sixth street and Campbell avenue was interrupted by the apparent impossibility of carrying the casket from the house to the hearse.

The heavy iron smokestack of the Grand Pacific Hotel was blown over, the heavy plates crashing down into an alley between that building and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank. One man was seriously injured.

Mining Magnate Luce Caught With Sample of Ore and Is Nabbed for High-Grading.

RAWHIDE, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ben D. Luce, who is a prominent mining man of Utah and Nevada, now residing in Los Angeles, had gained permission from the management of the Mossler lease on the Microbe Fraction to inspect a big strike just made on the ground and to take samples.

When he emerged from the shaft he was confronted by a new shift boss one of whose duties is the guarding of picture ore sacking for shipment. The boss did not know Luce, who, in rough clothes, and covered with grime, had none of the appearance of a magnate. Luce was searched and upon him were found pieces of the Microbe ore worth $1 to $5 a pound.

Daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan Heads List of Members of Prominent Families Who Will Try to Break Down Barriers to Benefit Less Fortunate Sisters.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In order to break down the barriers between "society" and the working people, and in order to insure to those who toil better labor conditions, a number of women of social prominence, including Miss Anna Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, met this morning at the headquarters of the National Civic Federation, preliminary to a conference at the Colony Club this afternoon, to form an organization of those willing to go into factories and eat and work with the working girls. The object is to enable these women to offer favorable suggestions for reform in factory legislation and supervision.

A number of the women interested have already visited manufacturing towns, examining the workrooms in search of defective ventilating, heating and lighting. They have sat with the girls in their lunchrooms and on doorsteps, eating the same food and winning their confidence by force of earnestness in a worthy cause. Moreover, they obtained valuable criticisms and suggestions from the girls themselves.

Miss Anna Morgan has gone through the dangerous glass factories and has spent considerable time making herself conversant with the home conditions of the employés.

Mrs. Joseph Medill McCormick of Chicago, who has come on to New York to make suggestions for the organization, has given up a number of nights during the social season to show women are forced to work after nightfall.

"We are not duplicating the work of the factory inspectors," said Mrs. Harriman. "We intend to do our work largely by personal influence with the owners of factories where evil conditions of labor prevail. We will not, however, make any suggestions that do not come from thorough familiarity with the factories we criticise. This will involve making close friends of the girls working in them and experiencing the same abuses that they experience. For only in that way and by these methods can we come to understand what really should be done in the line of betterment."

Besides Miss Morgan, Mrs. Harriman and Mrs. McCormick, the leaders of the movement include Mrs. Walter Maynard, Mrs. Everit Macy, Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick, and Mrs. W. H. Crocker of California.

FIRE that started at 3:30 o'clock this morning in the Rowan apartments at No. 123 South Bunker Hill avenue drove thirty or more occupants from the building in their night clothing and caused damage amounting to several thousand dollars.

The building is a two-story frame structure, and was occupied by a dozen or more families.

A loud explosion awakened the sleepers. It was followed quickly by flames that swept up through the first and second floors, casting a bright reflection on the sky and making it apparent that the building was doomed.

Several engine companies responded quickly to three alarms that were sent in, and in a short time the danger of a spread of the flames was past, although the building was badly damaged and some of the occupants lost many of their belongings.

Head of Syracuse University Must Answer for Attacking President Roosevelt and Thus Transgressing Rule Which Prohibits "Speaking Evil of Magistrates."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. Dr. James R. Day, chancellor of Syracuse University, is formally charged with violation of the rules of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he is an ordained clergyman.

According to the church law, the penalty for a third violation of this or any other rule of the church is expulsion. It is not believed the case against Dr. Day will be carried as far as that.

The charges are made by Rev. George A. Cooke of Brandon, Vt., a member of the Troy conference of the Methodist church, and they are now before Rev. Dr. P. M. Watters of Yonkers, the presiding elder of the New York district of the New York conference, the judicial authority provided by the law of the church in such cases, Dr. Day, although serving as chancellor of Syracuse University, being a member of the New York conference and subject to its discipline.

rets of New Propaganda nd Extent of Campaign Brought to Light.

ma Goldman to Direct the Work of Delegates from Entire Country.

IT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secrets of a new anarchist propaganda in this country the extent of the campaign carried on by the anarchists during the two months, as well as their future plans, were brought to light today in connection with the presence of Emma Goldman, so-called Queen of "Reds," who is in Chicago and ects to remain here until March 19. t was discovered that anarchists m all parts of the country have ne to take part in discussions which to be held here and that the visit Emma Goldman was arranged so t she could be here and personally ect the work of the convention.

ncidentally, during the forenoon nma Goldman gave an interview, in ich she alleged that the real facts the tragedy at the Shippy home had en distorted, and made a number charges which were pooh-poohed on hands by police officials later.

DISCUSSES ANARCHY.

Among the men who have come here take part in the discussion and to d in carrying on the propaganda is ilfred Schneider, who was an active ember of the Free Society at the me of the assassination of President cKinley. Schneider has been living New York, but arrived in Chicago oday. When seen by a reporter, he nnounced that he did not know just ow long he would remain. He was rrested with Emma Goldman, Abraam Isaak, H. Havel and other anrchists at the time of the assassinaon of President McKinley.

Although declining to tell much bout the doings of anarchists to reorters, Emma Goldman, when in the ircle of her allies, whom she calls 'comrades," discussed the anarchist ituation in different parts of the orld.

In conferring with her "comrades" s to her future plans today, Emma oldman declared that her propaganda works in the beginning of the year ad been most successful and that she was getting splendid results with little interference.

REPORT ON CONGRESS.

"My tour in the State of New York, as I have said in my communications to my anarchist friends, was more successful than I expected at the present time, when so many persons are without work," she said.

"The meetings at Syracuse were especially well attended, although the weather was very bad there. A group meeting was decided upon after my second lecture, and all anarchists and their sympathizers were invited to attend. Some thirty-five persons came to the group gathering, which was held in the home of a comrade.

"One of the principal messages which I have for the comrades in Chicago is to give them a complete report orally of the Amsterdam congress of anarchists, and I will make that report to the various groups of anarchists in spite of the police.

BLAMES CHIEF SHIPPY.

"As far as the present agitation against the anarchists is concerned, the anarchists will call upon Chief Shippy to explain it in detail when the excitement subsides. We have been carrying on an investigation of our own, which proved to us that the Averbuch boy was not an assassin. He went to Chief Shippy's home unarmed, and meant no violence or harm. The Shippy home contained other weapons as well as those which did violence upon the poor boy. It will be shown when we get through that Chief Shippy started out frightened, and then tried to pose as a hero by suppressing the real facts of the occurrence. Averbuch was no anarchist, so far as we know, and his death is deliberate murder.

"Why, the police of Chicago, by arresting the sister of their victim and subjecting her to horrible indignities, while she was grief stricken, have done more to strengthen the cause of anarchism than I could hope to do in half a dozen lectures. When the truth comes to light about the death of that boy, the Chief of Police will be condemned severely."

CLOSE WATCH ON ALIENS.

Over Three Hundred Foreigners Arriving at New York Subjected to Exacting Examination.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—In accordance with the recent order issued by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, with regard to a closer scrutiny of aliens arriving in this country, the 330 foreigners who landed here today from the British steamer Merion were subjected to the closest possible inspection. Fifty steerage passengers were detained pending further investigation. Nine passengers who could not pass the physical requirements will be deported.

The sign is to be kept secret and known only to the international police. It is asserted that by this system the police would be enabled to watch the anarchists and thus prevent attacks similar to that made upon Chief Shippy in Chicago.

The idea is favored here, although the police refuse to discuss it until it has been approved by the powers.

ANARCHISTS PLAN DEFENSIVE CAMPAIGN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Plans to send 5000 copies of a letter denying that Lazarus Averbuch, the attempted slayer of Chief Shippy, was an anarchist, and setting forth the principles of that cult, were laid tonight at a secret meeting of anarchistic leaders, headed by Emma Goldman, at the home of William Daltich, No. 970 North Winchester avenue, where the "Queen of the Anarchists" is staying while in Chicago. The meeting lasted until after midnight.

Miss Goldman, despite the police ban on her oratory, announced today that she would defy them to keep her from speaking and that she would deliver a speech in Chicago if she had to stay here all summer to do it, and that she does not fear deportation.

GALE WRECKS CHIMNEYS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—The highest March wind which had struck Chicago in thirty years, commenced early today from the southwest and wrought much havoc in the downtown districts.

The gale, which, at times reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour, blew down chimneys and smashed in several store fronts in the business section.

In the suburb of Gage Park which is flooded with water, the result of the rapid thaw of the last few days, the wind drove the water into waves which rolled into the first floors of residences, driving the tenants to second stories.

A funeral at West Fifty-sixth street and Campbell avenue was interrupted by the apparent impossibility of carrying the casket from the house to the hearse.

The heavy iron smokestack of the Grand Pacific Hotel was blown over, the heavy plates crashing down into an alley between that building and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank. One man was seriously injured.

Mining Magnate Luce Caught With Sample of Ore and Is Nabbed for High-Grading.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RAWHIDE, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ben D. Luce, secretary and treasurer of the Rawhide Combination Gold Mines Company, was arrested early this morning and narrowly escaped incarceration for alleged high-grading on one of his own company's properties, the Microbe Fraction, adjoining the Last Chance and Red Top Fraction just north of town.

Luce, who is a prominent mining man of Utah and Nevada, now residing in Los Angeles, had gained permission from the management of the Mossler lease on the Microbe Fraction to inspect a big strike just made on the ground and to take samples.

When he emerged from the shaft he was confronted by a new shift boss one of whose duties is the guarding of picture ore sacking for shipment. The boss did not know Luce, who, in rough clothes, and covered with grime, had none of the appearance of a magnate. Luce was searched and upon him were found pieces of the Microbe ore worth $1 to $5 a pound.

The watchman marched his captive downtown and gave him over to a deputy sheriff, another stranger to ALTON (Ill.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Propper up in bed, Joseph Hufker has played cards with relays of friends almost continuously for two weeks to ward off the last sleep so that he may see his son, Louis, once again before he dies. Louis was summoned from Austria by news of his father's illness, and is thought to be on his way from New York. The old man's physician fears that should he cease the pastime that occupies his mind and keeps him awake, he would sink into a stupor from which it would be impossible to arouse him.

CHANCELLOR DAY ON DEFENSIVE.

CHARGES FILED WITH PRESIDING ELDER OF CHURCH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. Dr. James R. Day, chancellor of Syracuse University, is formally charged with violation of the rules of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he is an ordained clergyman.

The specification is that in attacking President Roosevelt, Dr. Day has transgressed that rule of the church which prohibits "speaking evil of magistrates."

According to the church law, the penalty for a third violation of this or any other rule of the church is expulsion. It is not believed the case against Dr. Day will be carried as far as that.

The charges are made by Rev. George A. Cooke of Brandon, Vt., a member of the Troy conference of the Methodist church, and they are now before Rev. Dr. P. M. Watters of Yonkers, the presiding elder of the New York district of the New York conference, the judicial authority provided by the law of the church in such cases, Dr. Day, although serving as chancellor of Syracuse University, being a member of the New York conference and subject to its discipline.

to the payment of $400 for the publication of the water committee's report as an advertisement, the money therefor having been received by his circulation manager, Supervisor Jennings J. Phillips, from Abraham Ruef on October 22.

"Oh, he was only the agent," remarked Sullivan.

This brought Asst. Dist.-Atty. William Hoff Cook to his feet protesting indignantly to such remarks before the jury by counsel for the defense.

"It's time that this farce end and that the court put a stop to the practice of counsel in making such remarks," declared Cook. "I have been charged with standing in with the defense, and I want to say that it is untrue."

Hiram Johnson replied that no one who had watched Cook's conduct in the case could accuse him of collusion with the defense.

The court sustained the objection of the prosecution to the putting in evidence of the item of $400 paid by Ruef to Phillips for the Evening Post.

CHANGE OF HEART.

John E. Bennett, attorney for the Bay Cities Company, was the next witness. He admitted that he filed with the Supervisors the petitions of protest from residents in the Turlock irrigation district to the Hetch-Hetchy project, which he had received from the attorney representing that district, in which he personally was a large land owner. He said the petition represented the protests of 1300 land owners, declared that the using of the Hetch-Hetchy waters for a municipal water supply meant the ruination of the district, and estimated that it would depreciate land values two-thirds.

Sullivan's interrogations brought out the fact that Bennett at one time advocated the Hetch-Hetchy scheme for San Francisco, but he declared that was before the engineers had examined the project and ascertained that there was not enough water for both the city and the farmers. Sullivan endeavored to elicit if Bennett's change of views was not coincident with his employment by the Bay Cities as attorney. This the witness denied, stating that he changed his opinion a year before that time.

Bennett also admitted making a speech in November, 1906, bitterly denouncing the men associated in the prosecution of the bribery-graft cases, accusing Francis J. Heney with being in the employ of the Spring Valley Water Company, and holding up Ruef and the Supervisors as models of political virtue. He also admitted having "considerably modified" his opinions since then, but declared that he still had "decided views" against the graft prosecution.

CONSULTED RUEF.

That he had gone to Ruef and told him the substance of the speech for which he had rented a special hall, and that the expenses of the hall and the publication of several thousand copies of his speech were paid by the Bay Cities Water Company, were among the admissions made by the witness.

General Manager Beale was recalled and asked to point out the items in the books of the payments mentioned by Bennett. He was unable to do so and being closely pressed by Sullivan, he declared that he personally paid for the expenses and had during the time he was general manager paid out between $10,000 and $12,000 in publicity work, in the advocacy of the Bay Cities project, which he had never charged up to the company.

Sullivan then brought out that the books produced by Beale did not show the cost of the water rights of the company. It developed from his testimony that the company did not own outright the water rights in the Sierras which it had offered to sell to the city, but only had options from the various owners.

Sullivan endeavored to elicit what the total cost of these water rights would be, but witness declared that he had never totaled the amounts.

"Can't you guess?" asked Sullivan.

"I am a business man and as such am not accustomed to making guesses," replied Beale.

"Can't you guess within a million or two of what your obligations are?" persisted Sullivan.

"I refuse to guess."

"Can't you make a wild guess?"

"No, nor will I make a tame one."

COURT ADJOURNS.

Witness finally stated that he might be able to look the matter up within ten days.

"We will be acquitted by that time," replied Sullivan.

"Mr. Sullivan has another guess coming," interjected the Assistant District Attorney.

The court finally requested Beale to give some outside figure to the total cost of the water rights of the company next Monday afternoon.

Out of a total of 100,000 shares, Beale showed by the books that Tevis owned but 22,193 shares. Witness also testified that Tevis was not responsible for Bennett's speech denouncing the prosecution in the graft cases and took the company's attorney and Beale severely to task for it.

ESMERALDA WINS RAWHIDE.

Engineer Officially Locates Mining Camp in Churchill County and Contest Is Ended.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After making a complete survey of the Churchill-Esmeralda boundary line, Engineer T. K. Stewart, who was employed by the Churchill County Commissioners to survey the line and determine which county Rawhide is in, has submitted a report to the County Commissioners of Churchill county showing that Rawhide is in Esmeralda county.

In his report Engineer Stewart says that he has surveyed the boundary line and finds that by the line established in 1881, Rawhide is several miles south of the boundary line and in Esmeralda county.

In making his survey Mr. Stewart was accompanied by Thomas Wheeler of Reno, who located the old Mason House and other points for him. The Mason House, which was built in 1861, was the point of beginning for the official survey made in 1881.

There will now be no legal fight over the ownership of Rawhide by the counties of Esmeralda and Churchill and Esmeralda will contine to receive the revenue obtained by taxes from that new camp of Rawhide.

SHAKESPEARE READER FREE.

FIGHTS TACOMA WARRANT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Geo. B. Williams, a Shakesperean reader, who cut a wide swath in Tacoma society before coming to this city, was released from the City Prison last night.

Yesterday Attorney W. S. Barnes appeared before Judge Cook and opposed the effort of two Tacoma detectives to take the prisoner back for trial. The warrant which was offered was found to be technically defective, and by consent of both sides Williams's case was continued until next Wednesday. Bail was fixed at $2000, and he was given his freedom.

Williams is billed to appear here tomorrow evening before a select audience in a Shakespearean recital.

GROSS INSULT.

CLUB WOMEN IN WRANGLE.

Elaborate Clubhouse Scheme Causes Dissension.

President of Institution Quits Office in Huff.

Fresno Society in Throes of Bitter Strife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dissensions and strife are lacerating the innermost feelings of some of Fresno's fashionable women. The trouble arose in the Parlor Lecture Club, the city's most fashionable and exclusive organization of women, and all came over the discussion of a proposed new clubhouse.

The bomb exploded yesterday at the regular monthly meeting, when Mrs. J. S. Jones, former club president and instigator of the clubhouse scheme, tendered her resignation. According to the statement of this lady's friends, she had been rudely insulted by the board of directors of the present administration.

There was a battle of words for which the fair wielders of two-edged-sword tongues may well blush in saner moments. The directors claimed that Mrs. Jones had no right to vote the club stock in the clubhouse association meeting. Mrs. Jones was appointed trustee of this stock by the club and claimed the right to vote it.

A secret meeting was held and Mrs. Jones was not included. This she thought an insult and for this she resigned from the club.

Mrs. George Babcock, the present president, is of the conservatives who do not approve of the costly building which Mrs. Jones and her radical supporters planned during her regime. Mrs. Jones's resignation was not accepted and peace may still reign.

IS "CLEARINGHOUSE EXAMINER."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a meeting of the San Francisco Clearinghouse Association yesterday afternoon an innovation was introduced in banking methods in this city by the appointment of a "clearinghouse examiner" whose duty it will be to inspect all banks that are members of the association, or clear through its members, and whose authority will be upheld by the Clearinghouse Committee in the regulation of the banks of this city that come under his jurisdiction.

Archibald C. Kains, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was unanimously elected to this office. Any bank that desires the advantages of the clearinghouse must submit its books to this officer. His power is absolute.

BANK DEFIES EXAMINER.

SENSATION IN NEVADA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CARSON (Nev.) March 6.—The most sensational developments in the affairs of the State Bank and Trust Company today was the issuing of a statement by the State Bank Commission that hereafter the trading of accounts, which had been prohibited by Bank Examiner Miller, could be continued.

The statement was issued in the face of the second report of Miller, which showed the bank to be insolvent to the amount of $451,069.27. Miller insisted that his statement is correct and that the system of trading accounts is wrong, is pernicious and is robbing the assets of the bank.

ACT IS LEGAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—In a lengthy opinion rendered to State Comptroller Nye today, Atty.-Gen. Webb advises the former that the action of the extraordinary Legislature in providing for an investigation of all banks in California and appointing a joint committee from the Senate and Assembly to probe into banking conditions in this State, was legal.

Webb further advises the Comptroller to draw his warrant on demand for any expenses incurred by the committee, provided the same do not exceed the $5000 appropriation for the purpose.

HELENA, March 6.—Because counsel for F. Augustus Heinze had received no reply from President Roosevelt regarding a pardon in connection with a fine of $25,000 imposed upon Mr. Heinze for contempt during his copper war with the Amalgamated Copper Company, Federal Judge Hunt has granted ten more days in which to deposit the fine money. Counsel asked for an extension of sixty days.

LOSES CITY SQUARES.

WOMAN FAILS TO GET TITLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the matter of Teresa Casserly's claim to Washington and Franklin Squares in Oakland, awarding the full title to the property in question to the county of Alameda. The claim was originally made by right of inheritance of Eugene Casserly, a devisee of Luis Peralta, owner of the land through a Spanish grant, under the title of the Rancho San Antonio.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Accused Bankers Lose Point.

PORTLAND (Or.) March 6.—Another legal battle was won by the prosecution when Judges Gantenbein, O'Day and Bronaugh overruled the demurrer to the information charging that J. Thorburn Ross, T. T. Burkhart, John E. Aitchison and George H. Hill received deposits in the Title Guarantee and Trust Company when they knew it was insolvent. That Ross, Burkhart, Aitchison and Hill would be placed before a jury in the Circuit Court within two weeks was asserted by Deputy Dist.-Atty. Bert E. Haney in discussing the cases.

To Dredge Creek to Bay.

SAN RAFAEL, March 6.—It is now definitely settled that the San Rafael Creek will be dredged from this city to the bay. The State has allowed $10,000 for the work, and subscriptions by local business men of a like amount assure the work. When dredged the creek will be deep enough to accommodate freight steamers.

Boys Desert Dead Mother.

Russell Hart, aged 15 and 12 years, respectively, left home last night, while the body of their mother was lying in the house at No. 743 Palm street, the funeral having been set for today. The father can give no reason for their departure, nor has he any idea where they have gone.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The gas bribery cases in Judge Lawlor's court in which Ruef, Schmitz, Drum, Martin and De Sabla are the defendants, were today continued two weeks, when the trial will be set. In Judge Dunne's court Judge Cooling called the calendar and continued all the pending graft cases.

POINTS LESSON OF CRUISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—Official Washington was filled with grave apprehension that the American fleet, on its way to the Orient, would be made helpless at the Straits of Magellan, according to the statement of James T. McCleary, second assistant postmaster-general, in a speech at the dinner of the New York State Postmasters' Association, last night.

Mr. McCleary is in charge of the transportation of the United States mails by sea, and he had adduced this argument in favor of a subsidy for the restoration of the American merchant marine. He especially deplored that all but one of the auxiliary fleet concerned in the carrying of coal and supplies for the fleet of Rear-Admiral Evans should have been foreign.

"It is a matter of duty, of high, imperial duty," said he earnestly, "to change all this. A fleet without proper auxiliary vessels, without coal and supplies, is like a fleet without guns. There is a nation which has the reputation of striking first and declaring war afterward. It did it with China, and it did it with Russia. Supposing that splendid fleet of ours to be approaching the Straits of Magellan, and suppose that the Japanese fleet anticipated them.

"Suppose, if you will, that that fleet had met our colliers and carried them out to sea, taken what coal they wanted and sunk them, and our fleet had then arrived. Then what? What could that $200,000,000 fleet have done then? We must have an auxiliary fleet of our own."

JEALOUS LOVER GUILTY.

PIQUA (O.) March 6.—The jury in the case of Danato Di Julio, accused of murdering Miss Forrest Foryd, by shooting her in Covington, O., today returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Mercy was recommended. Di Julio was overcome when the verdict was announced. Di Julio was a lover of the girl, who, with her sister, went to Covington to have their pictures taken. Di Julio followed them through jealousy and shot her while on the street. The jury is supposed to have recommended mercy on the theory that there is a prejudice in Miami county against capital punishment.

POLICE RECOVER LOOT.

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) March 6.—Victor Adams, arrested in Vancouver, B. C., last night, charged with being the leader of a gang of youthful burglars in this city, refuses to return and will resist extradition.

Four members of the gang are under arrest here. They have confessed to twenty-four burglaries, and box car robberies, extending over a period of ten months. A search of their homes brought to light loot valued at more than $2000, including electric supplies, electric motors, copper wire, tools, clothing and boots.

The ages of the burglars range from 16 to 19 years. Adams, the leader, is only 17 years old.

A violent gale swept the coasts of the British Isles yesterday. There have been numerous wrecks of small craft. Most of them were on the east coast of Ireland. Altogether about twenty lives have been lost.

The United States troops which were ordered to Goldfield to suppress mining riots, three months ago, will break camp tomorrow and return to their quarters at the Presidio and Monterey, Cal. Nothing is known officially at the War Department in Washington of the preparedness of the State to take over the responsibility of preserving order.

Justice O'Gorman of New York yesterday gave his consent to a plan to liquidate the affairs of the Oriental Bank, by which the Metropolitan Trust Company will loan $4,000,000 to the bank, enabling it to pay off all its depositors. The trust company will take over the bank's assets as collateral for the loan.

A special call was sent into New York fire headquarters from the public school on One Hundred and Ninth street, between Amsterdam avenue and Broadway, yesterday. The children were marched from the school without panic or disorder. They were assembled in the yard and sent home. Parents who rushed to the building were prevented by the police from closing in the exits and sent away. The fire was on the top story of the building, which is five stories high.

A telegram was received at the Treasury Department in Washington yesterday from Capt. Henderson of the revenue cutter Thetis, now on the Alaskan coast, stating that on the third instant he rescued eleven of the starving survivors of the Japanese schooner Satsuma, which was wrecked on that coast. The men were picked up in Yakutat Bay.

archists Meet in Chicago.

rets of New Propaganda nd Extent of Campaign Brought to Light.

ma Goldman to Direct the ork of Delegates from Entire Country.

een of Assassins Declares hippy Killed Unarmed Man at Home.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secrets of a new anarchist propaganda in this country the extent of the campaign carn on by the anarchists during the two months, as well as their fuplans, were brought to light toin connection with the presence Emma Goldman, so-called Queen of "Reds," who is in Chicago and ects to remain here until March 19. t was discovered that anarchists m all parts of the country have ne to take part in discussions which to be held here and that the visit Emma Goldman was arranged so if she could be here and personally ect the work of the convention. ncidentally, during the forenoon nma Goldman gave an interview, in ich she alleged that the real facts the tragedy at the Shippy home had en distorted, and made a number charges which were pooh-poohed on hands by police officials later.

DISCUSSES ANARCHY.

Among the men who have come here take part in the discussion and to d in carrying on the propaganda is ifred Schneider, who was an active mber of the Free Society at the me of the assassination of President cKinley. Schneider has been living New York, but arrived in Chicago day. When seen by a reporter, he nounced that he did not know just ow long he would remain. He was rrested with Emma Goldman, Abram Isaak, H. Havel and other anrchists at the time of the assassinaon of President McKinley.

Although declining to tell much bout the doings of anarchists to reorters, Emma Goldman, when in the ircle of her allies, whom she calls "comrades," discussed the anarchist ituation in different parts of the orld.

In conferring with her "comrades" s to her future plans today, Emma oldman declared that her propaganda works in the beginning of the year ad been most successful and that she was getting splendid results with little interference.

REPORT ON CONGRESS.

"My tour in the State of New York, as I have said in my communications to my anarchist friends, was more successful than I expected at the present time, when so many persons are without work," she said.

"The meetings at Syracuse were especially well attended, although the weather was very bad there. A group meeting was decided upon after my second lecture, and all anarchists and their sympathizers were invited to attend. Some thirty-five persons came to the group gathering, which was held in the home of a comrade.

"One of the principal messages which I have for the comrades in Chicago is to give them a complete report orally of the Amsterdam congress of anarchists, and I will make that report to the various groups of anarchists in spite of the police.

BLAMES CHIEF SHIPPY.

"As far as the present agitation against the anarchists is concerned, the anarchists will call upon Chief Shippy to explain it in detail when the excitement subsides. We have been carrying on an investigation of our own, which proved to us that the Averbuch boy was not an assassin. He went to Chief Shippy's home unarmed, and meant no violence or harm. The Shippy home contained other weapons as well as those which did violence upon the poor boy. It will be shown when we get through that Chief Shippy started out frightened, and then tried to pose as a hero by suppressing the real facts of the occurrence. Averbuch was no anarchist, so far as we know, and his death is deliberate murder.

"Why, the police of Chicago, by arresting the sister of their victim and subjecting her to horrible indignities, while she was grief stricken, have done more to strengthen the cause of anarchism than I could hope to do in half a dozen lectures. When the truth comes to light about the death of that boy, the Chief of Police will be condemned severely."

CLOSE WATCH ON ALIENS.

Over Three Hundred Foreigners Arriving at New York Subjected to Exacting Examination.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—In accordance with the recent order issued by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, with regard to a closer scrutiny of aliens arriving in this country, the 330 foreigners who landed here today from the British steamer Merion were subjected to the closest possible inspection. Fifty steerage passengers were detained pending further investigation. Nine passengers who could not pass the physical requirements will be deported.

on a visible part of the body with a small indelible sign, varying in color in the different countries and in shape according to the dangerous propensities of the individual marked.

The sign is to be kept secret and known only to the international police. It is asserted that by this system the police would be enabled to watch the anarchists and thus prevent attacks similar to that made upon Chief Shippy in Chicago.

The idea is favored here, although the police refuse to discuss it until it has been approved by the powers.

ANARCHISTS PLAN DEFENSIVE CAMPAIGN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Plans to send 5000 copies of a letter denying that Lazarus Averbuch, the attempted slayer of Chief Shippy, was an anarchist, and setting forth the principles of that cult, were laid tonight at a secret meeting of anarchistic leaders, headed by Emma Goldman, at the home of William Daltich, No. 970 North Winchester avenue, where the "Queen of the Anarchists" is staying while in Chicago. The meeting lasted until after midnight.

Miss Goldman, despite the police ban on her oratory, announced today that she would defy them to keep her from speaking and that she would deliver a speech in Chicago if she had to stay here all summer to do it, and that she does not fear deportation.

GALE WRECKS CHIMNEYS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—The highest March wind which had struck Chicago in thirty years, commenced early today from the southwest and wrought much havoc in the downtown districts.

The gale, which, at times reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour, blew down chimneys and smashed in several store fronts in the business section.

In the suburb of Gage Park which is flooded with water, the result of the rapid thaw of the last few days, the wind drove the water into waves which rolled into the first floors of residences, driving the tenants to second stories.

A funeral at West Fifty-sixth street and Campbell avenue was interrupted by the apparent impossibility of carrying the casket from the house to the hearse.

The heavy iron smokestack of the Grand Pacific Hotel was blown over, the heavy plates crashing down into an alley between that building and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank. One man was seriously injured.

Mining Magnate Luce Caught With Sample of Ore and Is Nabbed for High-Grading.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RAWHIDE, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ben D. Luce, secretary and treasurer of the Rawhide Combination Gold Mines Company, was arrested early this morning and narrowly escaped incarceration for alleged high-grading on one of his own company's properties, the Microbe Fraction, adjoining the Last Chance and Red Top Fraction just north of town.

Luce, who is a prominent mining man of Utah and Nevada, now residing in Los Angeles, had gained permission from the management of the Mossler lease on the Microbe Fraction to inspect a big strike just made on the ground and to take samples.

When he emerged from the shaft he was confronted by a new shift boss one of whose duties is the guarding of picture ore sacking for shipment. The boss did not know Luce, who, in rough clothes, and covered with grime, had none of the appearance of a magnate. Luce was searched and upon him were found pieces of the Microbe ore worth $1 to $5 a pound.

SOCIETY'S LATEST.

RICH WOMEN TO WORK IN MILLS.

SOCIAL LEADERS TO LEARN FACTORY GIRLS' NEEDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In order to break down the barriers between "society" and the working people, and in order to insure to those who toil better labor conditions, a number of women of social prominence, including Miss Anna Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, met this morning at the headquarters of the National Civic Federation, preliminary to a conference at the Colony Club this afternoon, to form an organization of those, willing to go into factories and eat and work with the working girls. The object is to enable these women to offer favorable suggestions for reform in factory legislation and supervision.

A number of the women interested have already visited manufacturing towns, examining the workrooms in search of defective ventilating, heating and lighting. They have sat with the girls in their lunchrooms and on doorsteps, eating the same food and winning their confidence by force of earnestness in a worthy cause. Moreover, they obtained valuable criticisms and suggestions from the girls themselves.

Miss Anna Morgan has gone through the dangerous glass factories and has spent considerable time making herself conversant with the home conditions of the employés.

Mrs. Joseph Medill McCormick of Chicago, who has come on to New York to make suggestions for the organization, has given up a number of nights during the social season to show women are forced to work after nightfall.

"We are not duplicating the work of the factory inspectors," said Mrs. Harriman. "We intend to do our work largely by personal influence with the owners of factories where evil conditions of labor prevail. We will not, however, make any suggestions that do not come from thorough familiarity with the factories we criticise. This will involve making close friends of the girls working in them and experiencing the same abuses that they experience. For only in that way and by these methods can we come to understand what really should be done in the line of betterment."

Besides Miss Morgan, Mrs. Harriman and Mrs. McCormick, the leaders of the movement include Mrs. Walter Maynard, Mrs. Everit Macy, Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick, and Mrs. W. H. Crocker of California.

AFFECTS MAYORALTY CONTEST.

By Order of Court Decision Ballot Boxes in New York City Election May Be Opened.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 6.—The Court of Appeals this morning handed down a decision reversing the order of appellate division of the first department and sustaining that of Justice Vernon M. David, who decided that Atty.-Gen. Jackson had filed a bill of particulars in connection with his supplemental complaint that illegal votes were cast for McClellan in the Mayoralty campaign in New York City in 1905.

Under the decision, the ballot boxes may be opened and the ballots examined in the quo warranto proceedings brought to test McClellan's title to the office of Mayor in the interest of W. R. Hearst.

BLAZE.

EARLY FIRE DRIVES MANY TENANTS OUT.

FIRE that started at 2:30 o'clock this morning in the Rowan apartments at No. 123 South Bunker Hill avenue drove thirty or more occupants from the building in their night clothing and caused damage amounting to several thousand dollars.

The building is a two-story frame structure, and was occupied by a dozen or more families.

A loud explosion awakened the sleepers. It was followed quickly by flames that swept up through the first and second floors, casting a bright reflection on the sky and making it apparent that the building was doomed.

Several engine companies responded quickly to three alarms that were sent in, and in a short time the danger of a spread of the flames was past, although the building was badly damaged and some of the occupants lost many of their belongings.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "big wind" arrived in Chicago today, blew through the streets with reckless abandon at a fifty-four-mile-an-hour gait, exhausted its list of freakish pranks and then disappeared in a cloud of dust. During its stay the storm managed to frighten the Chicago River so that it turned about and started to flow toward the lake instead of toward the south, injured eight persons, blew down buildings, chimneys, signs and everything in its path that was not securely nailed down. Today's maximum temperature was 60 deg., and the minimum 34 deg., above zero. Middle West temperatures:

TWO STANDARDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] American motherhood was measured with the rule of factory regulations by Prof. Edward A. Ross of the University of Wisconsin, before the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs in Hull House tonight. He told his hearers that the flat-footed, broad-backed, straight-chested, short-necked peasant woman of the European countries was an illustration of the survival of the fittest when mentality was left out of the calculations. "If this country is to find its mothers among the hardy immigrants that find their way to our land, then we must forfeit our finer development to the commercial product and be content with the plodding offsprings that such a race produces."

SCHOOL CHILDREN RESCUED.

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Surrounded by water to such an extent that young pupils were unable to reach their homes, assistance was called for today by Principal Walter H. Hatfield of the Shields school, West Forty-third and Rockwell streets, from the police of the new city Police Station. The water was almost three feet deep. Patrol wagons took thirty pupils to their homes.

INJUNCTION ASKED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An injunction to prevent the building of a $1,000,000 temple on the lake front is asked of the Superior Court by John W. Elliott and Robert Dooley in a bill filed yesterday. According to the bill, the complainants, who are stockholders of the Federal Mines Company of Arizona, object to the use of stock for building the temple. Iowans, members of the "Good Will" colony, contemplated building the temple in Chicago, it is said, and wished to sell the mining stock to defray expenses.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALTON (Ill.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Propped up in bed, Joseph Hufker has played cards with relays of friends almost continuously for two weeks to ward off the last sleep so that he may see his son, Louis, once again before he dies. Louis was summoned from Austria by news of his father's illness, and is thought to be on his way from New York. The old man's physician fears that should he cease the pastime that occupies his mind and keeps him awake, he would sink into a stupor from which it would be impossible to arouse him.

CHARGES FILED WITH PRESIDING ELDER OF CHURCH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. Dr. James R. Day, chancellor of Syracuse University, is formally charged with violation of the rules of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he is an ordained clergyman.

The specification is that in attacking President Roosevelt, Dr. Day has transgressed that rule of the church which prohibits "speaking evil of magistrates."

According to the church law, the penalty for a third violation of this or any other rule of the church is expulsion. It is not believed the case against Dr. Day will be carried as far as that.

The charges are made by Rev. George A. Cooke of Brandon, Vt., a member of the Troy conference of the Methodist church, and they are now before Rev. Dr. P. M. Watters of Yonkers, the presiding elder of the New York district of the New York conference, the judicial authority provided by the law of the church in such cases, Dr. Day, although serving as chancellor of Syracuse University, being a member of the New York conference and subject to its discipline.

TERS CLASH LIBEL SUIT.

Production of Water Company's Books.

Witnesses Tell of Ruef's Domination.

Bay Cities Proves Hostile Witness.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—A verbal battle between Assistant District Attorney Bert Cook and Matthew A. Beale, counsel for the defendants in the prosecution of the books of the Bay Cities Water Company this morning marked the continuation of the libel trial of R. A. Crothers against Fremont Older.

Attorney Carroll N. Beale, counsel for the Bay Cities Water Company, was excused from attendance in court by the defense and his counsel opposed the compromise proposed by the defense for the books of the water company to be used by the defense. Cook contended that the books could be used with the same and unrestricted freedom with the privilege of the company "to those who desire to know something about the water company's affairs."

"The books belong after the reputation of the corporation established throughout the country," said Assistant District Attorney Cook, should place a premium in the way of disclosing the private affairs of any corporation. There has been no crime, no question of fraud committed in connection with the books, nothing to justify the refusal of the Bay Cities Water Company to produce its books for the inspection of the people."

Attorney Beale, representing the Bay Cities Water Company, replied between him and the defense just what the books would produce.

"Mr. Cook, Assistant District Attorney, assisted by other members of the Bay Cities Water Company, have had free access to the books for cross-examination and information had finished the examination of Mr. Beale. Another member of the board of supervisors, who is not a stockholder in the Bay Cities Water Company, has been allowed to examine the books. He told Beale that he had been satisfied by the accuracy of that examination and in a general way that the other members of the board had been satisfied to the same extent. The board of supervisors has passed resolutions requesting Tevis at this time to allow the prosecution in order to settle the political issue what had been framed."

Cook then said there was a general impression that the Supervisors and the Bay Cities Water Company had come to some agreement whereby the books of the latter would be produced before the Supervisors, protesting the counsel of the Hetch-Hetchy water supply project, but also admitted that Congressman Kent had been interested in the Hetch-Hetchy project and sent a communication to the board. General Manager of the Water Company, was called by him, counsel ought to ascertain the interests of William S. Tevis in the corporation, and the secretary. Beale said that Tevis was president and the last meeting of the Water was dated in answer to the Cook denied that Tevis was a director of the corporation, and that the company was originally owned by Tevis.

Cook then asked for the books of the corporation, to which Beale replied that the matter was not within the jurisdiction of the court, but he "had the assurance of any examination of the books by the private counsel between himself and the defense just what the books would produce.

Assistant District Attorney, assisted by other members of the Bay Cities Water Company, have had free access to the books for cross-examination had finished the examination of Mr. Beale. Another member of the board of supervisors, who is not a stockholder in the Bay Cities Water Company, has been allowed to examine the books. He told Beale that he had been satisfied by the accuracy of that examination and in a general way that the other members of the board had been satisfied to the same extent. The board of supervisors has passed resolutions requesting Tevis at this time to allow the prosecution in order to settle the political issue what had been framed."

Beale was a general manager of the Bay Cities Water Company, was the next witness. He admitted that he filed with the Supervisors the petitions of protest from residents in the Turlock irrigation district to the Hetch-Hetchy project, which he had received from the attorney representing that district, in which he personally was a large land owner. He said the petition represented the protests of 1300 land owners, declared that the using of the Hetch-Hetchy waters for a municipal water supply meant the ruination of the district, and estimated that it would depreciate land values two-thirds.

Sullivan's interrogations brought out the fact that Bennett at one time advocated the Hetch-Hetchy scheme for San Francisco, but he declared that was before the engineers had examined the project and ascertained that there was not enough water for both the city and the farmers. Sullivan endeavored to elicit if Bennett's change of views was not coincident with his employment by the Bay Cities as attorney. This the witness denied, stating that he changed his opinion a year before that time.

Bennett also admitted making a speech in November, 1906, bitterly denouncing the men associated in the prosecution of the bribery-graft cases, accusing Francis J. Heney with being in the employ of the Spring Valley Water Company, and holding up Ruef and the Supervisors as models of political virtue. He also admitted having "considerably modified" his opinions since then, but declared that he still had "decided views" against the graft prosecution.

CONSULTED RUEF.

That he had gone to Ruef and told him the substance of the speech for which he had rented a special hall, and that the expenses of the hall and the publication of several thousand copies of his speech were paid by the Bay Cities Water Company, were among the admissions made by the witness.

General Manager Beale was recalled and asked to point out the items in the books of the payments mentioned by Bennett. He was unable to do so and being closely pressed by Sullivan, he declared that he personally paid for the expenses and had during the time he was general manager paid out between $10,000 and $12,000 in publicity work, in the advocacy of the Bay Cities project, which he had never charged up to the company.

Sullivan then brought out that the books produced by Beale did not show the cost of the water rights of the company. It developed from his testimony that the company did not own outright the water rights in the Sierras which it had offered to sell to the city, but only had options from the various owners.

Sullivan endeavored to elicit what the total cost of these water rights would be, but witness declared that he had never totaled the amounts.

"Can't you guess?" asked Sullivan.

"I am a business man and as such am not accustomed to making guesses," replied Beale.

"Can't you guess within a million or two of what your obligations are?" persisted Sullivan.

"I refuse to guess."

"Can't you make a wild guess?"

COURT ADJOURNS.

Witness finally stated that he might be able to look the matter up within ten days.

"We will be acquitted by that time," replied Sullivan.

"Mr. Sullivan has another guess coming," interjected the Assistant District Attorney.

The court finally requested Beale to give some outside figure to the total cost of the water rights of the company next Monday afternoon.

Out of a total of 160,000 shares, Beale showed by the books that Tevis owned but 22,183 shares. Witness also testified that Tevis was not responsible for Bennett's speech denouncing the prosecution in the graft cases and took the company's attorney and Beale severely to task for it.

Engineer Officially Locates Mining Camp in Churchill County and Contest Is Ended.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After making a complete survey of the Churchill-Esmeralda boundary line, Engineer T. K. Stewart, who was employed by the Churchill County Commissioners to survey the line and determine which county Rawhide is in, has submitted a report to the County Commissioners of Churchill county showing that Rawhide is in Esmeralda county.

In his report Engineer Stewart says that he has surveyed the boundary line and finds that by the line established in 1881, Rawhide is several miles south of the boundary line and in Esmeralda county.

In making his survey Mr. Stewart was accompanied by Thomas Wheeler of Reno, who located the old Mason House and other points for him. The Mason House, which was built in 1861, was the point of beginning for the official survey made in 1881.

There will now be no legal fight over the ownership of Rawhide by the counties of Esmeralda and Churchill and Esmeralda will contine to receive the revenue obtained by taxes from that new camp of Rawhide.

SHAKESPEARE READER FREE.

FIGHTS TACOMA WARRANT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Geo. B. Williams, a Shakesperean reader, who cut a wide swath in Tacoma society before coming to this city, was released from the City Prison last night.

Yesterday Attorney W. S. Barnes appeared before Judge Cook and opposed the effort of two Tacoma detectives to take the prisoner back for trial. The warrant which was offered was found to be technically defective, and by consent of both sides Williams's case was continued until next Wednesday. Bail was fixed at $2000, and he was given his freedom.

Williams is billed to appear here tomorrow evening before a select audience in a Shakespearean recital.

GROSS INSULT.

Elaborate Clubhouse Scheme Causes Dissension.

President of Institution Quits Office in Huff.

Fresno Society in Throes of Bitter Strife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dissensions and strife are lacerating the innermost feelings of some of Fresno's fashionable women. The trouble arose in the Parlor Lecture Club, the city's most fashionable and exclusive organization of women, and all came over the discussion of a proposed new clubhouse.

The bomb exploded yesterday at the regular monthly meeting, when Mrs. J. S. Jones, former club president and instigator of the clubhouse scheme, tendered her resignation. According to the statement of this lady's friends, she had been rudely insulted by the board of directors of the present administration.

There was a battle of words for which the fair wielders of two-edged-sword tongues may well blush in saner moments. The directors claimed that Mrs. Jones had no right to vote the club stock in the clubhouse association meeting. Mrs. Jones was appointed trustee of this stock by the club and claimed the right to vote it.

A secret meeting was held and Mrs. Jones was not included. This she thought an insult and for this she resigned from the club.

Mrs. George Babcock, the present president, is of the conservatives who do not approve of the costly building which Mrs. Jones and her radical supporters planned during her regime. Mrs. Jones's resignation was not accepted and peace may still reign.

IS "CLEARINGHOUSE EXAMINER."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a meeting of the San Francisco Clearinghouse Association yesterday afternoon an innovation was introduced in banking methods in this city by the appointment of a "clearinghouse examiner" whose duty it will be to inspect all banks that are members of the association, or clear through its members, and whose authority will be upheld by the Clearinghouse Committee in the regulation of the banks of this city that come under his jurisdiction.

Archibald C. Kains, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was unanimously elected to this office. Any bank that desires the advantages of the clearinghouse must submit its books to this officer. His power is absolute.

BANK DEFIES EXAMINER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CARSON (Nev.) March 6.—The most sensational developments in the affairs of the State Bank and Trust Company today was the issuing of a statement by the State Bank Commission that hereafter the trading of accounts, which had been prohibited by Bank Examiner Miller, could be continued.

The statement was issued in the face of the second report of Miller, which showed the bank to be insolvent to the amount of $451,069.27. Miller insisted that his statement is correct and that the system of trading accounts is wrong, is pernicious and is robbing the assets of the bank.

ACT IS LEGAL.

SACRAMENTO, March 6.—In a lengthy opinion rendered to State Comptroller Nye today, Atty.-Gen. Webb advises the former that the action of the extraordinary Legislature in providing for an investigation of all banks in California and appointing a joint committee from the Senate and Assembly to probe into banking conditions in this State, was legal.

Webb further advises the Comptroller to draw his warrant on demand for any expenses incurred by the committee, provided the same do not exceed the $2000 appropriation for the purpose.

HELENA, March 6.—Because counsel for F. Augustus Heinze had received no reply from President Roosevelt regarding a pardon in connection with a fine of $20,000 imposed upon Mr. Heinze for contempt during his copper war with the Amalgamated Copper Company, Federal Judge Hunt has granted ten more days in which to deposit the fine money. Counsel asked for an extension of sixty days.

LOSES CITY SQUARES.

WOMAN FAILS TO GET TITLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the matter of Teresa Casserly's claim to Washington and rFanklin Squares in Oakland, awarding the full title to the property in question to the county of Alameda. The claim was originally made by right of inheritance of Eugene Casserly, a devisee of Luis Peralta, owner of the land through a Spanish grant, under the title of the Rancho San Antonio.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Accused Bankers Lose Point.

PORTLAND (Or.) March 6.—Another legal battle was won by the prosecution when Judges Gantenbein, O'Day and Bronaugh overruled the demurrer to the information charging that J. Thorburn Ross, T. T. Burkhart, John E. Aitchison and George H. Hill received desposits in the Title Guarantee and Trust Company when they knew it was insolvent. That Ross, Burkhart, Aitchison and Hill would be placed before a jury in the Circuit Court within two weeks was asserted by Deputy Dist.-Atty. Bert E. Haney in discussing the cases.

To Dredge Creek to Bay.

SAN RAFAEL, March 6.—It is now definitely settled that the San Rafael Creek will be dredged from this city to the bay. The State has allowed $10,000 for the work, and subscriptions by local business men of a like amount assure the work. When dredged the creek will be deep enough to accommodate freight steamers.

Boys Desert Dead Mother.

Russell Hart, aged 15 and 12 years, respectively, left home last night, while the body of their mother was lying in the house at No. 743 Palm street, the funeral having been set for today. The father can give no reason for their departure, nor has he any idea where they have gone.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The gas bribery cases in Judge Lawlor's court in which Ruef, Schmitz, Drum, Martin and De Sabla are the defendants, were today continued two weeks, when the trial will be set. In Judge Dunne's court Judge Cooling called the calendar and continued all the pending graft cases.

POINTS LESSON OF CRUISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—Official Washington was filled with grave apprehension that the American fleet, on its way to the Orient, would be made helpless at the Straits of Magellan, according to the statement of James T. McCleary, second assistant postmaster-general, in a speech at the dinner of the New York State Postmasters' Association, last night.

Mr. McCleary is in charge of the transportation of the United States mails by sea, and he had adduced this argument in favor of a subsidy for the restoration of the American merchant marine. He especially deplored that all but one of the auxiliary fleet concerned in the carrying of coal and supplies for the fleet of Rear-Admiral Evans should have been foreign.

"It is a matter of duty, of high, imperial duty," said he earnestly, "to change all this. A fleet without proper auxiliary vessels, without coal and supplies, is like a fleet without guns. There is a nation which has the reputation of striking first and declaring war afterward. It did it with China, and it did it with Russia. Supposing that splendid fleet of ours to be approaching the Straits of Magellan, and suppose that the Japanese fleet anticipated them.

"Suppose, if you will, that that fleet had met our colliers and carried them out to sea, taken what coal they wanted and sunk them, and our fleet had then arrived. Then what? What could that $200,000,000 fleet have done then? We must have an auxiliary fleet of our own."

JEALOUS LOVER GUILTY.

PIQUA (O.) March 6.—The jury in the case of Danato Di Julio, accused of murdering Miss Forrest Foryd, by shooting her in Covington, O., today returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Mercy was recommended. Di Julio was overcome when the verdict was announced. Di Julio was a lover of the girl, who, with her sister, went to Covington to have their pictures taken. Di Julio followed them through jealousy and shot her while on the street. The jury is supposed to have recommended mercy on the theory that there is a prejudice in Miami county against capital punishment.

POLICE RECOVER LOOT.

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) March 6.—Victor Adams, arrested in Vancouver, B. C., last night, charged with being the leader of a gang of youthful burglars in this city, refuses to return and will resist extradition.

Four members of the gang are under arrest here. They have confessed to twenty-four burglaries, and box car robberies, extending over a period of ten months. A search of their homes brought to light loot valued at more than $2000, including electric supplies, electric motors, copper wire, tools, clothing and boots.

The ages of the burglars range from 16 to 19 years. Adams, the leader, is only 17 years old.

Parents who rushed to the building were prevented by the police from closing in the exits and sent away. The fire was on the top story of the building, which is five stories high.

ASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclu- Dispatch.] Andrea Sparboro of Francisco, representing the Calinia Winegrowers' Association, and L. Vance of New York, secretary the American Winegrowers' Assotion, appeared before the House iciary Committee today to protest inst the proposed Littlefield "origl package" law.

They told the committee that its sage would mean ruin to industies in California and elsewhere, lued at millions of dollars; would ow hundreds of thousands of peoout of employment, and would use great animosity among the peo.

Mr. Vanca opposed the bill on contutional grounds. He claimed that proposed regulation by the naal government, if carried to its gical conclusion, would ultimately stroy commerce. He stated that ere were over 300,000 acres of vintage the United States—220,000 in Californ, 60,000 in New York, 15,000 in Ohio d 10,000 in Michigan and Missouri—th $100,000,000 invested in wineries, ildings and stocks, giving employent to 200,000 men.

He claimed that if the bill became law, it would practically destroy e wine industry of the United States d be a heavy blow to American agculture.

Mr. Sparboro discussed the temperince and commercial sides of the vinticultural industry of the United States, rguing that light wines and beers are the best means of promoting temperance. He quoted from Surgeon Reilly of the army to show that ince the abolishment of the canteen, he number of soldiers treated in hositals for alcoholism averaged 30 to 000, while in countries where soldiers re allowed to have light wines and eers, the average is one-eighth of one per thousand.

FOR SOCIAL PLEASURE.

Nearly Fifty Daughters of Senators and Representatives Form a Society in Washington.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nearly fifty girls met at the Metropolitan Hotel today and formed a society of daughters of Congressmen.

The organization includes the daughters of Senators as well as representatives. The girls say that they come to Washington winter after winter, only to meet at afternoon teas and receptions; that they never succeed in finding each other at home, and that the only way to get together is to form a society and engage clubrooms.

The idea originated with Miss Bessie Lamb, daughter of Representative Lamb of Virginia, and Miss Julia Williams, daughter of John Sharp Williams. They found the idea popular with the other girls, and the result was the meeting this morning. They adopted a constitution, elected officers and arranged for another meeting next Friday when they will adopt a name and engage permanent quarters.

The officers elected were: Honorary president, Miss Helen Cannon, daughter of the Speaker; president, Miss Bessie Lamb; first vice-president, Miss Julia Williams; second vice-president, Miss Tillman, daughter of the Senator; third vice-president, Miss Mabel Madden, daughter of the Chicago Representative; treasurer, Miss Stevens of Texas; recording secretary, Miss Chapman of Illinois; corresponding secretary, Miss Wilson of Pennsylvania.

Committee Appointed to Investigate Alleged Corrupt Influence by Electric Boat Company.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Without discussion or division the House today adopted a resolution brought in by the Committee on Rules providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate the charges made by Congressman Lilley to the effect that the Electric Boat Company of New Jersey had engaged in an effort to corruptly influence members of the House.

The Speaker appointed on the committee Messrs. Boutell of Illinois, Stevens of Minnesota, Olmstead of Pennsylvania and Broussard of Louisiana. The committee is directed to report its recommendations as soon as possible.

The resolution is sweeping in its character, and gives the committee authority to call for the Electric Boat Company's check books and all papers in their possession which may have any bearing upon the investigation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—In the Senate today Senator Depew advocated the Aldrich bill, and incidentally declared that there was as little stock gambling in New Y rw as in any other city. Ill-considered and hasty State legislation, he said, had had much to do with the panic. He personally favored a general recasting of our financial system, but, realizing that that could not be done at present, was willing to accept as a temporary relief the Aldrich bill, makeshift though it was.

Representative Smith Asks Secretary of State About Possible Purchase.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Smith today addressed to the Secretary of State a letter asking an opinion regarding the advisability of the purchase by the United States of part or all of Lower California, Mexico, so that control of the Colorado River, along the portions where it breaks out could be undertaken by the United States government.

Mr. Smith also asked whether negotiations could not be conducted looking towards an agreement between the United States and Mexico, whereby both countries would coöperate in controlling the Colorado.

Mr. Smith, however, favors the first project, urging besides the matter of the Colorado, that the United States already conducts extensive operations at Magdalena Bay in Lower California.

to invest their savings and that the price of farm products will be increased to the consumers if present methods are changed.

A protest from the Executive Committee of the Association of Commerce of Chicago was received by the Senate today. It was sent to Senator Hopkins, who presented it. So great are the interests involved that it has been decided that the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and the Agricultural Committee of the Senate will investigate the subject thoroughly before anything is done.

RISE IN SIGHT.

ARMY PAY BILL PASSES SENATE.

PROVIDES FOR GRADED INCREASE IN ALL BRANCHES.

Amendment Adopted Allows Families Six Months Salary Upon Death of Soldier—House Committee Reports Favorably the Naval Measure Effualizing Stipends.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The Army Pay Bill was passed by the Senate today. The bill provides for army officers a graded increase of pay ranging from 5 per cent. for lieutenant-generals to 20 per cent. for junior officers. It also provides that "the average pay of enlisted men of the army as now established be increased 40 per cent."

This amendment, suggested by Mr. Culberson of Texas, takes away the discretion of the President in fixing the pay of soldiers.

Senator Scott read a letter from a banker who stated that army officers pay 3 per cent. interest per month to have their salaries discounted because their incomes are so small.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Bacon and adopted, giving six months' pay to families of officers and enlisted men upon their death.

The Navy Pay Bill, equalizing the pay of officers of the navy and marine corps with the pay of officers of the army was ordered favorably reported to the House today by the Committee on Naval Affairs.

That committee also agreed to report favorably the bill extending the rear-admirals who were retired by the passage of the naval personnel act in 1899 the benefit of that act whereby the rate of their retired pay will be increased.

Agreement was reached by the committee to report favorably the Naval Militia Bill introduced by Chairman Foss which gives the Navy Department control over the naval militia.

JUROR GETS GARTER BUCKLE.

As a Result Walsh Verdict May Be Set Aside and Wives May Learn Something.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The antics of a "farmer" jury and the giddy doings of a gay soubrette, who bestowed upon one of the jurors a silver buckled garter, may be made a part of the record of the John R. Walsh case.

The story of the chorus girl, described as a "beautiful blonde," became public today, following the presentation of affidavits by the Walsh attorneys in support of their motion for a new trial.

Just which juror is wearing the silver garter may be passed on to the august judges of the Supreme Court for final adjudication.

Meanwhile certain members of the "farmer" panel may be kept busy "explaining" to their respective wives how they were caught in the gay whirl of city life.

The scene, according to information in possession of the defense, had its setting ina a State-street burlesque house. The show had been advertised in a manner to arouse the interest of the most unsophisticated farmer.

The "thriller" of the show was a dizzy blonde of marvelous figure, who, after some high kicking that made the jurors gasp and mop their brows, unstrapped a garter and offered it to the man who could take it from her. Eluding two bailiffs, one of the jurors scrambled in on top of fifty others and secured the silver memento. What effect this had on the verdict is not just clear at this time.

MAYFLOWER AGROUND.

NORFOLK (Va.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President's yacht Mayflower, which stranded on the shoal at Thimble Lighthouse, near Old Point Comfort, early this morning, remains hard and fast aground tonight, not having budged an inch under the combined efforts of the naval colliers Nero and Brutus, and the naval tugs Wahneta and Hercules to haul her into deep water.

The vessel was proceeding from Washington to the Norfolk navy yard for repairs, preparatory to taking Mrs. Roosevelt on a cruise. It is possible that the Mayflower has been seriously injured as the result of

RECEIVERSHIP SYSTEM BAD.

Commissioner Blames Courts for Appointments.

Railroads "Give Laugh to Their Creditors."

Aroused by Charges That the Law Is Responsible.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Allegation that the Western Maryland Railroad Company, one of the Gould lines, has been forced into the hands of receivers by the provision of the Hepburn rate law, prohibiting carriers from transporting products owned and controlled by them, has roused the Interstate Commerce Commission to the point of saying some blunt things about receiverships in general.

One of the members of the commission, speaking today with reference to roads that recently have been placed in receivers' hands, declared that the railroad managers are merely seeking a way "to give the laugh to creditors."

"There would be fewer receiverships of railroads," said this official, "if courts were forbidden, as they should be, to name officials of railroads as receivers. The International and Great Northern went into the hands of a receiver the other day, not because there was any real need, but because it didn't want to make certain improvements demanded by the Texas commission. That was a Gould road, and one of its officials was made receiver. Now the Western Maryland has its president as receiver, and charges it to the operations of the coal-mine-railroad divorce provision.

"The Seaboard Air Line went into a receiver's hands, apparently because the factions thought it the best way, and the president was named as one of the receivers. So in the case of the Chicago Great Western. It's all wrong, and should be stopped by law."

Directors Decide to Hold All Meetings in Illinois Hereafter for Fear That Fish Will Attack Legality of Any Action Taken in Other States. Bond Plan Is Agreed Upon.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Illinois Central directors at their meeting here today decided to abandon the former plan of issuing equipment bonds and agreed upon a plan for permanently financing the road.

Their plan will be submitted to the stockholders at a special meeting to be held about May 15. It will provide between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000. At the January meeting it was figured that $30,000,000 would be sufficient. The immediate needs of the company exceed $32,000,000. This amount has actually been expended in acquiring new lines and building extensions and branch lines. There are several projects in view which will require the additional $20,000,000. The present plan is for a combined stock and mortgage bond issue.

It was decided to hold all meetings in Illinois hereafter. Harriman and his friends fear that Stuyvesant Fish will attack the legality of any action taken at meetings in New York.

Officers were reelected as follows. President, J. T. Harahan; vice-presidents, I. C. Rawn, A. G. Hackstaff; treasurer, E. T. H. Gibson; secretary, A. G. Hackstaff; assistant treasurer, B. R. Burbank.

SALARIES REDUCED.
D. AND R. G. ORDER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) March 6.—The Deseret News tonight says that effective March 1 the salary of every telegraph operator employed by the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad was reduced to $60 with an additional 50 cents subtracted each month for hospital fees, making the net salary $59.50.

FOR TEN-HOUR DAY.

Denver and Rio Grande Railroad Requires Mechanical Department Men to Sign New Regulations.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, March 6.—The News today says:

"All employés in the mechanical department of the Denver and Rio Grande were yesterday required to sign printed slips containing the rules under which the company expects to operate in the future.

"The new rules provide for a ten-hour day instead of nine hours as agreed upon in the former contract, and only four holidays during the year, instead of all the holidays usually observed by union men. The four days to be recognized as holidays are Christmas, Fourth of July, Labor Day and Thanksgiving.

"The company reserves the right to alter these rules at its option. Only a few of the men signed the slips, and, although it is declared that failure to sign might result in dismissal, the majority of the employés turned back the agreement.

"A few days ago notices were posted in all the Denver and Rio Grande shops stating that the regular hours would be resumed, and the regular force reemployed on March 16. The rules issued yesterday are considered by the men as an abrogation of the former rule.

"All the ballots in the machinists' strike vote have not been returned, but they are expected in before Saturday night. It is claimed the vote is in favor of striking to protect the contract, but the actual returns of the ballot will not be made public. If the vote is for a strike, one of the grand officers will be called to Denver to hold a final conference with the railroad officials before action is taken."

RECEIVERSHIP A SURPRISE.

"Insiders" Knew of Western Maryland's Financial Trouble, but End Came Unexpectedly.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BALTIMORE, March 6.—No changes

Western Maryland Railroad, which was last night placed in the hands of B. F. Bush, president of the road, as receiver.

He will continue to manage the company under the direction of the court. The force now in charge of the departments will be maintained so as to give the receiver the best effects of their experience, both in railroad operation, and in the conduct of the coal mining projects which are an important factor in the Western Maryland development.

This road included the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh properties along which are situated the coal lands it owns.

While it has been known to "insiders" that the corporation was running behind financially, the receivership came sooner than most of those familiar with the company anticipated, and occasioned great surprise generally. Besides the acknowledged inability of the road to meet the semi-annual interest on the first mortgage bonds due April 1, which was the immediate cause of the court proceedings, it was further announced that the company is indebted for materials and supplies to an amount in excess of $300,000 and that the creditors are pressing for the payment of their claims, threatening court action to enforce their demands.

BIG MEN ON COMMISSION.

Five Railroad Presidents Will Investigate Conditions and Fix Per Diem Car Rentals.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 6.—The personnel of the commission of the American Railway Association, which will conduct an exhaustive research into traffic conditions throughout the country upon which to base a permanent per diem car rental, was made known yesterday. The commission was arranged at the meeting of the association in Chicago last month, which resulted in the reduction of the per diem rates and a lowering of the rates from 50 to 25 cents until such time as an expert commission could investigate conditions and supply data for making a permanent rate.

The commission is composed of Marvin Hughitt, president of the Chicago and Northwestern; James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania; Lucius Tuttle, president of the Boston and Maine; Howard Elliott, St. Paul, president of the Northern Pacific, and W. W. Finley, president of the Southern Railway.

It is expected the commission will conduct hearings in railroad centers throughout the country, and so become familiar with all conditions entering into and governing the question of an equitable and proper per diem rate, but the members will be left free to conduct their investigations in their own way.

St. Paul Railroad Officials Report Great Progress on Work of Pushing Line to Pacific.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—President Earlin of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, was in conference yesterday with the members of the road's Executive Committee, and discussed with them, it was stated, the progress of the Pacific Coast extension.

Recently this work has been pushed under favorable conditions, particularly in the matter of wages and the cost of supplies, which have declined sharply, with the result that the St. Paul has effected important savings.

The line to Butte has made rapid progress, and is so far advanced that it can be completed in the near future. Work on the line further west also has progressed favorably.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The American Car and Foundry Company's big plant in St. Louis will be completely shut down next Tuesday, throwing out of employment indefinitely its remaining 3000 workmen.

It was officially announced that in a few weeks more all of its fifteen plants, which a year ago employed 30,000 men, will be idle.

When the St. Louis plant is closed, but three of its plants will remain in operation. Lack of orders is given as the cause of closing all the foundries.

SHOW GIRLS OPPOSE LAW.

Say Legislation Eliminating Stage Door Mashers Would Be Reflection on Their Character.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Declaring that a law prohibiting men from standing near the stage doors of theaters would reflect on their character, more than 200 show girls from the theaters along Broadway met at the Casino today and in a set of resolutions condemned the proposed legislation putting the ban on stage door mashers.

"The passing of any law barring men from the stage doors would lead the public to believe that we are a menace to morals," said Doris Cameron, chairman of the meeting. "We are not a menace to morals at all. Our work is artistic and for the betterment of mankind."

Resolutions were sent to the board of Aldermen.

WASHINGTON.

INVESTIGATION IS ORDERED.

Lilley Wins His Fight in Rules Committee.

Publicity Forces Order for Searching Inquiry.

Question of Veracity Raised With the Speaker.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Lilley won today in his fight for a committee to investigate the Electric Boat Company of New Jersey. The Committee on Rules reported through Representative Dalzell a resolution authorizing the most searching inquiry. The Speaker then appointed a special committee to conduct the investigation, composed of Representatives Boutelle of Illinois, chairman; Olmsted of Pennsylvania and Stevens of Minnesota, (Republicans,) and Howard of Georgia and Broussard of Louisiana, (Democrats.)

That this was solely the result of publicity in the newspapers was admitted by members on both sides. It was freely declared in the lobby, the cloakrooms and the corridors that publicity alone forced the issue. The members of the Naval Affairs Committee who have been fighting hard to prevent the reporting of the resolution, blamed Lilley for "trying his case in the newspapers." They frankly stated that if there had been less said the Committee on Rules would have placed the resolution in its pigeon hole de luxe and they were about the most aggrieved looking select company seen in the Capitol in many a year.

The resolution of the Committee on Rules was passed without a dissenting vote and without the delivery of a single speech. Immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Dalzell sent it to the clerk's desk to be read and announced that a pamphlet erroneously marked confidential, which contained the testimony of Mr. Lilley before the Committee on Rules, embodied all that he had to say.

This was not read but a copy was placed on the desk of each member. Under the resolution the committee has the right to hold meetings in Washington or elsewhere and to summon whomsoever it pleases to testify before it.

In fact, it has all the powers demanded and the only complaint of Mr. Lilley is that he was not named as the chairman or at least as a member of the committee. His friends failed to see why he expected to be a member when he is to be not only the prosecutor but is on the Naval Committee, every member of which is necessarily under suspicion until the result of the investigation is known.

On this point a question of veracity between the Speaker and Mr. Lilley is raised. The latter freely stated to members and to newspaper men today that he went to the Speaker's room to state his case only after being summoned by the secretary of the Committee on Rules and that, therefore, he was not a prosecutor, as was alleged.

It was stated in the Speaker's room, on the contrary, that he called on "Uncle Joe" of his own volition two days after the introduction of his resolution and, after a long talk with the Speaker, on which he was told that his resolution was too vague, requested that he be called before the Committee on Rules to give all the members a clear idea of just what he expected to prove. That was on Saturday, February 22, and on the following Monday the Speaker ordered a meeting of the Committee on Rules called for the next morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Lilley was formally notified, submitted his brief and was subjected to a fairly rigid cross-examination.

In the formal examination which is reported in detail, Lilley told the committee that he would show that the submarine people maintained a lobby at Washington for the influence of legislation and paid newspaper men for favorable work. He said that his charges affected members of the present Congress.

GOVERNMENT SECRETS SAFE.
OFFICIALS BELITTLE ARREST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Little importance is attached here to the arrest in New York yesterday of William Esser, reported to have negotiated with the German government for the sale of government secrets employed in the manufacture of high explosives.

It was stated today at the Navy Department that the Bliss firm, for which Esser had been working, possessed none of the government's secrets. This firm is manufacturing a limited number of torpedoes for the government, and also has a small contract for "common projectiles," but makes no armor-piercing shells.

The Bliss company possesses secrets of its own, and is known to be constantly experimenting for the development of others.

It is said that the treaty will follow the same lines as that negotiated with France, recently ratified by the Senate.

HAS PATENTED SILENT FIREARM.

By the device of the younger inventor, now formally announced as fully prefected, the discharge of a rifle or revolver is rendered practically noiseless. This possibility, combined with the use of smokeless powder, introduces a new factor upon the stage of warfare. The "silent firearm," so military experts assert, may lead to entire reequipment of the armies of the world.

In the hands of the sportsmen, too, the noiseless weapon offers possibilities hither unknown. On the other hand, if within reach of the criminal classes, it presents a new and difficult problem with which the authorities of the world may have to cope. Thus the name of Maxim again threatens to work another sweeping revolution in the world of firearms.

Hiram Percy Maxim, son of Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the machine gun which bears his name, who has received a patent for a "silent firearm," a weapon, which in the eyes of experts, threatens to revolutionize the world of arms.

BAILEY MEETS OPPOSITION.

Ten Thousand Texans to Fight Senator's Determination to Attend National Convention.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FORT WORTH (Tex.) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ten thousand delegates left Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, Austin, and every important city in Texas tonight for Waco, where the convention of anti-Baileyites takes place tomorrow, for the one purpose of preventing the Senator from Texas from going to the National Democratic Convention in Denver as a delegate. The delegates are wearing badges with the motto, "Honor is better than gold."

The Waco meeting is unique in the fight against Bailey, who was elected by the State Legislature, despite the popular wish. Bailey says he is determined to go to Denver, and so far has always won against his enemies here.

No general meeting of the Senator's foes has been held before, and it shows plainly the power of the Senator over the political machine and lack of power over the voters.

Its engineers also made exhaustive study of Parral, Almoloya and Naica districts, State of Chihuahua, with a view to purchase of some properties and building a smelting works at Jimenez, south of the State capital, and the junction of the Mexican Central's main line with the Parral branch, a strategic point commanding some of the best mines. Scarcely anything has been heard of it, however, for a year or so, but it may be stated on good authority that plans have not been abandoned.

The A. S. and R. Company is at present endeavoring to prevent the immediate taking effect of the raise of 10, 20 and 30 per cent. on the three classes of ore which the government commission has recommended be allowed the railroads on April 1. The carriers wanted increases ranging from 50 to 150 per cent., which would simply have closed mines all over Mexico. With no organization, the miners were helpless to make effective protest, and the fight devolved upon the smelter men. They were partly successful.

OPERATORS WISE.

The mine operators, of course, are glad of their stand, but not for one instant are they deceived as to the motive. What the railroads have left of ore values the smelters have taken. Raise the railroad rate and treatment charges must come down, or the mine quit. Hence comes the conflict between the carriers and the ore handlers. The former's charges are strictly under legal control, must be made public, based upon weight and distance, and may be altered by the authorities, just as President Roosevelt wants to have the American railroads regulated; at the ore furnaces there is no such check, rates are secret, arbitrary, and the miners maintain outrageously high, while the payment in ninety days is decidedly hard on many miners, and has driven many to Torreon, where cash is the rule.

Among mining men there is a widespread belief that the Guggenheims, who control the A. S. and R., have not passed the Wall street flurry entirely unscathed, and that Standard Oil is after their holdings in the trust, viz., the control. The miners of Mexico watch for news with only idle curiosity, as they expect nothing from either. One or two concessions of the A. S. and R. are expected to expire in the course of the next year or so, and the idea is getting abroad that they may be refused renewal on the old liberal terms. If the miners would get together, organize and lay their grievances before the authorities, it is quite likely that means of relief might be found.

LETTER DEALS WITH MISREPRESENTATIONS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Kaiser's letter to Lord Tweedmouth, first lord of the admiralty, dealt, according to the World's information, with the extraordinary campaign of misrepresentation of the German naval aims, which certain English papers, the Times prominent among them, has carried on for years. Formerly Russia was the bogey with which these papers worked on the ignorant fears of the public, but since Russia's collapse, Germany has been their sole standby.

Tweedmouth's reply is understood to have been couched in the same friendly spirit, with nothing in it about the British naval policy. The Times' publication created great commotion at first, but that is now dying out, especially as Tweedmouth is perfectly willing to publish the letters if the Kaiser consents.

It is certainly peculiar that the Kaiser should have taken the initiative in such a correspondence, but he is a law unto himself. All such matters, though they are his most innocent acts, are invested with the deadliest significance by the Germanophobe press here.

The serious aspect of the affair is that private documents of this character should have been revealed to the opposition press from the Navy Department. There has been a regular leakage from that department to newspapers, hostile to the government, and all attempts to trace the authors have failed.

EDISON AND THE CLERGYMAN.

When They Overstaid the Proper Time the Scientist Fixed Up a Genuine Surprise.

[New York Tribune:] Occasionally, when visitors are admitted to his office, they become nuisances to Mr. Edison, who is a very busy man with his scientific conceptions. Once he disposed of a party of unwelcome callers in an unusual way. In his experiments with explosives he has produced some so sensitive that a drop placed on a table would explode if any one shouted.

"You see," he said, by way of explanation, "the thing is in a state of very delicate equilibrium. It is a question depending upon surrounding conditions as to which it will do—remain a liquid or turn into gas. When this balance is about equal it takes very little to incline it toward a gaseous form, so that even the sound of the voice will produce the effect. And so would a heavy weight dropped on the floor."

While conducting his experiments in explosives he was visited one morning by a company of clergymen. The inventor treated them, as he treats every one, courteously, but as the day wore on and there was no sign of their going, he began to study how to get rid of them without offending them. He casually remarked that he was experimenting with very delicate explosives, and would be sorry if any of them were injured.

This had only the effect of increasing their interest. They got in the way and distracted him by foolish questions. He finally became nervous—and almost irritable. A method of eliminating them from the scene finally occurred to him. Taking some of the material with which he had been experimenting he put a drop or two where there was no danger of blowing a minister through the window. The clergymen watched his action with added interest, apparently feeling no uneasiness, and crowded around him. The inventor seated himself at his bench and again took up his experiments. Suddenly he jumped up shouting: "I have it!" at the same moment knocking a board from the table as if by accident. It fell to the floor with a crash. What followed was even more disastrous than Edison had intended.

No windows were broken, but several glass bottles were smashed, a piece of electrical apparatus was disabled, a table overturned and the ministers were frightened. They put their hands to their heads, fearful of something worse to follow.

"What happened?" one of them exclaimed.

"Such explosions are constantly happening," replied Edison, calmly. "I'm glad to say that they haven't killed any one since the fall. You never can tell when one will happen, but I hope you will not be treated to an

BRITONS ARE AROUSED.

has caused widespread excitement, and there are insistent demands that the matter be fully aired in Parliament.

It has been suggested that a possible explanation of the incident is that the British government attempted to secure mutual limitations in the matter of warship building by direct negotiations with Emperor William; in other words, to achieve by indirect diplomacy what The Hague peace conference failed to bring about. The critics of Lord Tweedmouth, however, point out that any such negotiations ought to have been carried on through the Foreign Office, and there is considerable anxiety to know how far the alleged irregular proceedings have gone.

COMPARES NAVAL STRENGTH.

Arthur Paxton Lee, a Conservative member of the House of Commons, who was Civil Lord of the Admiralty from 1903 to 1905, said today that the matter was too grave to be discussed without further information.

"I and my late military colleagues," Mr. Lee said, "are going to consider the best way to raise the matter officially."

According to one version, Emperor William's letter to Lord Tweedmouth gave executive details of the comparative strength of the navies of Germany and Great Britain, and, basing his own opinion on this comparison, the Emperor said he thought the German fleet could not be considered more than one-fifth as strong as that of Great Britain. This being so, he thought Great Britain had no need to fear any rivalry in naval supremacy from Germany, and that consequently there was no need of increases in the shipbuilding programme of Great Britain.

SENSATION IN BERLIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, March 6.—A considerable sensation has been caused here by allegations published in the London Times with reference to the letter sent by Emperor William in February to Lord Tweedmouth. The Foreign Office said it was quite correct that Emperor William some time ago wrote a letter to Lord Tweedmouth, but the assertion made by the London Times that His Majesty had endeavored to interfere in the naval plans of Great Britain was characterized as untrue.

His Majesty in his letter corrected certain erroneous impressions in England with regard to the development of the German fleet. In naval matters the Emperor is entitled to consideration as an expert, it was explained at the Foreign Office, and he is recognized as such in England, as well as in Germany.

As Emperor of Germany, he would reject any foreign attempt to decide the proportions of the German fleet, and on this basis would repudiate the idea that he had interfered in the naval affairs of Great Britain. The German official view is that there is no reason why the letter should not the Emperor and Lord Tweedmouth.

The newspapers of Berlin observe great caution in commenting on the episode, averring that they consider it improper to express opinions without full knowledge of what His Majesty really said. Only one newspaper, the Berliner Zeitung, ventures to express its belief that the Emperor has written with "indiscreet fullness of expression to a foreign official."

It is considered likely here that Lord Tweedmouth will make an explanation, fully protecting Emperor William from the allegation that he has attempted to influence the official acts of the British Admiralty or Cabinet.

There is no disposition in official circles to believe that this letter will create any incident similar to that which followed Emperor William's telegram to President Kruger.

DEATH SENTENCE PRONOUNCED.

It Is Believed, However, That Czar Will Commute Penalty Against Gen. Stoessel.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, March 6.—The verdict in the case of Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, who was recently sentenced to death by court-martial for the surrender of Port Arthur fortress to the Japanese, was formally pronounced today.

It is regarded as almost certain, however, that Emperor Nicholas will accept the recommendation of the court that the sentence be commuted.

The court has annulled the sentence of reprimand passed upon Lieut.-Gen. Fock because of the remoteness of his offense.

A Woman's Town.

Norway, Me., boasts that it is the most distinctive woman's town in America. Every line of commerce and finance, trade and profession, is successfully carried on by women. Women not only clothe, hat and shoe the population, but they own and run the meat markets, the three hotels, they bury the dead and marry the living.

There is a woman justice of the peace, a woman doctor, a woman cashier in the bank, a woman editor of the town paper, a woman director in the street railway and water and lighting companies, and a woman assistant in the postoffice. Miss Price, who with her sister owns the leading department store, in which only women are employed, says that for a woman to succeed in business she must know three things: "She must not run her business with a mortgaged stock she must pay her bills two or three days before they are due, so as to impress the people from whom she buys, and she must always dress well."

Demand For Good Soil In Small Sized Tracts Promptly Met By Prominent Real Estate Dealer.

Emil Firth has promptly met the demand for small farm homes and truck gardens, by platting the old and well known Bixby ranch into acre lots. This demand of the people is a very natural one, growing out of a desire to own and live upon something larger than the average city lot. Hundreds of people are able to gratify this desire now who might be forestalled by high prices in another year.

Somerset Acres, as the tract is called, is about 30 minutes' ride by street car from Sixth and Main streets. The station is Somerset on the fast Santa Ana electric line. The Pacific electric power-house is there also. It is the highest point between Los Angeles and Santa Ana, and the immediate lands are platted for a large and important suburban city. The soil, a rich sandy loam, has been tilled for years and produces everything that grows in this zone, and has free water piped to every acre in large steel mains. The sales prove the popularity of Somerset. The price ranges from $300 an acre up on four years' time. Two excursions are run daily from the office of Emil Firth, 319 West Fourth street, between Broadway and Hill.

ns Chicago White Sox With Timely Batting.

tors Shine Like Stars in Pretty Fielding.

her Hosp Makes the Big Leaguers Back up.

s Angeles 5, Chicago White Sox 2. course, you won't expect to see h in the Chicago papers this morn- about what happened. What you nd, will probably be a few indif- nt lines about the little scrub game ex-world's champions had out in bald and woolly West, with a team ushers that never were far enough to even smell the Chicago River, h less sufficiently close to be able reak through the police lines.

a matter of fact it is understood crepe has been hung along State et, the cars were stopped on Cot- Grove avenue at 4 o'clock and the sixth inning some of the h over on Canal street got to- er, killed two men and mangled ral others. On the North Side closed down the frankfurter fac- e for the remainder of the week, up mit each udder alretty and ted Wagner's Gotterdammerung kwards, out of respect to the mem- of Nicholas Esplandian Altrock.

ere are always a lot of tears that ld be kept back, when thinking of first practice game of the season the losers in any such game ld have about as much credit as winners, but you don't play that timent three ways for this game, use the visitors are supposed to e so much class. They rode across country and had but two days' tice, but one must remember that Los Angeles players had but four s' work. Los Angeles don't expect eat th· White Sox every game and one cares if they beat the locals, they are players that any fan ould be happy to watch. Unlike the w York Giants, they don't impress with the idea that they were ed on Avenue A or Canal street.

he reason yesterday was that they re attacked with that dear old dis- e, "can't-git-em-over" which has n fatal to so many teams the White X met in the past two years. They naged, however, to get over two ns in the first two innings, when ashear and Delmas commenced to y clap in and clap out with the ball, t after the fourth inning Dillon ck in Hosp to pitch and the vis- rs had about as much chance then Carter Harrison has of being ap- inted deputy coroner out at Lone- mehurst - by - the - Frog-Pond, over ng the Lake Shore and Michigan uthern.

VISITORS WILL DO.

However, as it isn't fair to drag out e family album when company mes, it might be stated that the hite Sox who performed yesterday, ill do. They are there when it comes fielding the ball and some of them ould hit it with a little coaxing. Their ork is clean and snappy and not one them seems to be a bit afraid that e ball will bounce off his head, when e tries to catch it. None of the bunch ade anything that looked like a ungle and their inability to swat the all was the only thing that lost them he game.

This was sad news for some of the aithful, who came more miles than ou can shoot a gun in a week, to watch the boys warm up, but let us ope that the visitors can win some ames. The Rooters' Association hung n the boxes yesterday and bubbled out a gushing streamlet of cute little Chi- ago witticisms for three innings, and gave each other the Donkey degree ign of the Esplandians, but after the ixth inning, when the locals made three runs off the famous Dutch rince, Altrock, the silence was pain- ful. The Rooters should not give up, for the very same thing happened to McGraw's Giants in the same old way. There was considerable enthusi- asm, but there were no fancy plays to draw out much of it.

The day was "rawther" a cold one for baseball, for a biting wind blew across the diamond. A band furnished music before the game. Notwithstand- ing the wind, over 2500 fans saw the performance, and aside from the mis- takes of Brashear and Delmas it was a fine one. It was fast and snappy, and the big league umpire, Hank O'Day, was on the job to show the fans how to judge baseball, and he knows. There were no features except the batting of Brashear and Delmas; Oakes's triple over first base and Hosp's pitching. Hosp struck out but two, but held the hits to three in five innings.

HOW THEY CAME.

In the first for Chicago, after two were out, Dougherty singled to right and went to third when Brashear muffed Davis's high fly back of sec- ond base. Donahue followed with a bounce to Delmas, and he threw wild to Brashear at second, trying to force Davis, and Dougherty scored. Dillon grabbed the ball and shot it back to Brashear at second, who touched out Donahue. In the second Tannehill grounded to Brashear, who not only booted the ball, but threw it wildly past Dillon at first, Tannehill going to third, and scoring a moment later when Jake Atz singled to center. The third and last Chicago run started with Hahn's double to left and ended with Parent's bunt along the third- base line, and Davis's fly to deep cen- ter.

For Los Angeles, Bernard walked in the first and stuck there while Oakes and Dillon went out, but scored on Brashear's double to right. Nothing more happened until the fourth, when Altrock went in to pitch. Brashear, Jud Smith and Delmas soaked him for singles and Bernard secred. In the fifth, Bernard opened up with his third pass, was sacrificed to second by Oakes and scored on Brashear's double to left.

The score was now tied, but the Chicago frankfurter shops closed down in the sixth when the locals decided to get some acquaintanceships mit dot Nick. Bush Ellis opened up with a swat to left. Delmas followed with a double there, and Ellis ran in on Happy Hogan's out at first. Gray was an easy out at first, and then Bernard scored Delmas with a poke to left. With two runs in, Oakes slammed out a terrific drive first base that brought

HITS AND ERRORS.

Shortstop Parent looks like he had been cut too short for a real man's pattern, but you should see him on the job. He actually seems to know where a grounder is to bounce before it starts, and is there to eat it. Manager Berry should sign him, if Delmas is ever injured.

That new right fielder, Oakes, seems to be all right, for aside from being able to hit the ball to the fence, he can sacrifice, and this is as much of an art. It is too early to judge him, but the fans will probably gladly take him on probation with the best of wishes.

Some of the fans believe that Bernard should be kept on second and Brashear switched into right field. The Kitten would play better ball in the outfield, and his hitting would probably be better than when he tires himself out at the strenuous second bag.

Those who might think from the game that Nick Altrock has gone back should not judge too harshly. He lobbed the most of them over yesterday, and will certainly be better when he is thawed out. A man who has to live in Chicago is entitled to a handicap of about three excuses be- fore he starts anything, and there are other days than yesterday.

Shaw had to do all the catching yesterday, for the Sox have no other one here. He is all right, and will probably have some one to help him today.

Jud Smith seems to be the same Jud as before his injury, and the only thing that snared him was Parent's short bunt down the third base line in the third inning.

The thing that showed that Umpire O'Day is a real one that is tending to his business all the time, was il- lustrated in the first of the ninth in- ning. With Owen on first, Hahn grounded to Brashear, and he tossed the ball to Delmas at second to force Owen. In running to the base, Delmas failed to step on the bag, but Owen was put out on his way to third. He was safe on second, and O'Day so called him, but a Coast League um- pire would probably not have seen Delmas miss the bag.

There were but fifteen fly balls to the outfield, which shows that the pitchers were making 'em hit it on the ground.

SAINTS SCARED.

PASADENA ALMOST WINS.

The baseball team of the Pasadena High School sprung a surprise on the St. Vincent's squad and came near putting one over on the collegians in a practice game on the Vincentians' diamond, yesterday afternoon. Hem- pel's men performed like a bunch of dead ones during the better part of the game, and it was only in the seventh inning that they appeared to become conscious of the fact that a ball game was in progress.

In the third period the Crown City lads gathered four hits, and with the assistance of three errors, sent three runners across the plate. E. Boynton, second hit by Callahan scored him. Boynton was rattled in the eighth, and allowed five safe hits, resulting in three runs. Had it not been for the poor work of the men on bases, the score would have been larger, as Gray and O'Rourke were nabbed for the first two outs.

In the last period the Saints broke into the run column for their last two tallies. Pasadena was unable to meet the ball in its half. Score:

Absence of Crawford Makes Changes Necessary.

Slower Track Gives Southern Men Better Chance.

Comparative Records Give Stanford Advantage.

Stanford's track team worked out on the U.S.C. track yesterday after- noon, with all the members of the team in good shape. Crawford, the big weight man, is not with the team, as he suffered an attack of blood pois- oning in the right foot on Thursday, the day on which the team started south. The warm afternoon induced the Cardinal athletes to do a good deal of running, as they have been ham- pered on their own track, in the last week, by rainy weather and a soft cinder path.

Good time is expected in the track events in the meet with U.S.C. today, although the Bovard Field cinder path is slower than the new Stanford track. Trainer Moulton looked his men over with a critical eye yesterday after- noon and saw to it that each one re- ceived a good rubbing after the work- out. The veteran trainer had no com- ments to make, but it was very evi- dent from his satisfied air that he was well pleased at the prospects for a good meet.

The Stanford team is on a strict diet and sat down to a meal of broth, steak, toast and potatoes at the Lankershim last night, after which the party oc- cupied two boxes at the Orpheum.

The meet is conceded to the north- ern team by a good margin. The U. S.C. performers have equaled the Stanford try-out records of this sea- son in but few instances. However, the local athletes have never been hard pressed in any of the practice meets, and have not extended them- selves to their best efforts. Further- more, differences in time on the U.S. C. and Stanford tracks may be ac- counted for by the differences in the "speed" of the two tracks.

Crawford's absence necessitated a slight change in the entry list and may cost Stanford several points. Maun- drell was withdrawn from the half, and will run in the mile and two- mile races. In the latter event he is at present Stanford's best performer, as Nash has done but little work this season and has not run the full dis- tance in any of the practice meets of the Cardinal.

The meet will begin at 2:30 o'clock. The Stanford squad will leave this evening at 7:30 for Palo Alto. Officials today will be: "Dad" Moulton, referee; Kinter Hamilton, starter; Steve Clark, U.S.C., clerk of course; John Skinner, U.S.C., announcer; Bob Thompson, Stanford, George Runyon, U.S.C., and Andrew Glarner, judges of finish; Wal- ter Hempel, President George F. Bo- vard, U.S.C., George C. Culver, and W. P. Fuller, Jr., timers.

PASADENA WINS IN GYMNASTICS.

LOS ANGELES IS SECOND AND LONG BEACH THIRD.

Crown City Lads First in All Events in Which Allen, Moody and Shutt Excelled; Mostrovitch Was Best for Los Angeles—Gold Medal for Best in State.

The Pasadena Y.M.C.A. team won the Southern California gymnastic championship last night against Los Angeles and Long Beach, by the score of 575.44 points. Los Angeles was sec- ond with 553 points, and Long Beach third with 506.47 points. The competi- tion was held in the Los Angeles Y.M. C.A. gymnasium before a large crowd of spectators.

The winning Pasadena team will meet the best Northern California Y. M.C.A. team for the championship of the State at Long Beach next Satur- day night. Pasadena's best men in the contest last night were Allen, Moody and Shutt. Mastrovitch of Los Angeles made the best individual showing.

The Pasadena team was first in all the events contested.

Five different apparatus were used, with three exercises on each. Each ap- paratus was good for ten points on a perfect performance. Those used were horse, rings, parallel bars, mats and tumbling, and high horizontal bars.

The best individual in the State championship meet will be given a gold medal, and will also receive a silver trophy offered this year for the first time.

The contestants last night were: Pasadena—Heinman, Shutt, Moody, Allen, O'Neal.

Long Beach—Foote, Talbot, Owens, Midlough, Young.

Los Angeles—Mastrovitch, Moulton, Perine, Larkin, Elkeles.

Hans W. M. Voeckeroa of Long Beach, Harry Maloney of Pasadena, and O. S. Lowsley of Los Angeles were the judges.

Mills Is Defeated.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 6.—O. J. Mills of Los Angeles, claiming to be the Pacific Coast champion pool player, was defeated by Will Hale, a local player, in an interesting contest last night, by a score of 162 to 145. The balance of 300 points, the limit of the game, will be played later. The contest attracted considerable inter- est.

Poly Gymnasts Picked.

Five Polytechnic gymnasts were se- lected for the Los Angeles school team for the April tour, in the try-out yes- terday. The qualifying scores were: Bean, 96.8; Burlee, 93.5; Adams, 88.1; Clarke, 87.8. Edwin Bly was elected as the fifth member of the team by the gymnasium club. He did not com- pete yesterday because of an injured

TELEGRAPHIC TEN-PINS.

Los Angeles and Fresno Teams to Play Match Tuesday Night—Results by Wire.

A telegraphic ten-pin match of five games, total pins to win has been ar- ranged between a team of five men on the Brunswick alleys at Fresno, and a five-man team on Morley's Broad- way alleys of this city to take place Tuesday night, March 10. The results of each game will be telegraphed as soon as it is complete.

The general average of the Fresno quintet is given at 187 and that of the local team is about as good. Bar- ring a run of bad luck at either place the match should result in a very close contest. The teams will line up as follows:

Fresno	Los Angeles
L. L. Cory	O. T. Taylor
G. P. Gregory	J. Benfer
R. Hill	F. Gilman
J. R. Egan	T. Tompkins
D. K. Gibbs	H. C. Van Norman

ALREADY WON.

CONCEDE POMONA TRACK VICTORY.

OCCIDENTAL HAS LITTLE HOPE OF WINNING POINTS.

Star Congregational Team Seems Best in History of School and the Presbyterians Dual Meet Between Conference Colleges—Championship Meet Two Weeks Hence.

Occidental and Pomona will engage in their annual dual track meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the Pres- byterian campus.

The best dope sheet that Occidental can figure out does not include enough points for a victory, and unless Po- mona's men fail to come up to their usual performance, the Claremonters should take two-thirds of the points.

The absence of Capt. Bird, who is seriously ill, means a loss of at least ten points to Occidental, and Kellogg will also be out of running on ac- count of a technicality.

The hurdle races, the 880-yard run, the shot, and the relay race will be closely contested, and new intercol- legiate records may be established in some of the events.

The entries are:

The 120-yard hurdle race: Thomson, Wieman, Occidental; Spurgeon, Mc- Kee, Merriam, Bryant, Pomona.

The 100-yard dash: Brower, Ilee, Occidental; Rogers, Spurgeon, Sloane, Baird, Pomona.

Mile run: Carver, Patterson, Spring, Occidental; Himrod F. Lorbeer, Raw, Pomona.

The 440-yard dash: Rush, Ilee, Bradbeer, Bonner, Occidental; Sloane, Hinckley, McKee Pomona.

The 220-yard dash: Brower High- street, Occidental; Rogers, Parker, Sloane, Pomona.

The 220-yard hurdle race: Thom- son, Wieman, Occidental; Spurgeon, Palmer, Valle, Parker, Pomona.

The 880-yard run: Spring, Carver, Salisbury, Occidental; McKee, Queen, Himrod, Tangeman, Pomona.

Two-mile run: Lecke, Tangeman, Jones, Pomona; Gordon, Hillery, Douglas, Occidental.

Shotput: Thomson, Wieman, Con- rad, Occidental; Davenport, Metcalf, Pomona.

Hammer throw: Marshall, Wieman, Conrad, Occidental, Metcalf, Bryant Williamson, Pomona.

Pole vault: Lowry, Gordon, Merrill, Young, Occidental; Birdsall, Merriam, Valle, Pomona.

High jump: Lowry, Gordon, Thom- son, Occidental; Munger, Merriam, Tangeman, L. Lorbeer, Pomona.

Broad jump: Thomas, W. Thomson, F. Thomson, Brower, Trash Occi- dental; Rogers, Birdsall, Baird, Ma- honey, Pomona.

Relay race, one mile: Rush, Blee, Bonner, Carver, Occidental; Rogers, Sloane, Spurgeon, Parker, McKee, Hinckley, Pomona.

CLAREMONT, March 6.—Twenty- one track men, with Coach Pierce and Manager Hartsell, will make the trip to Occidental tomorrow on a special leaving here at 12:30 o'clock, which will also bear seventy-five Blue and White rooters. Most of the men have im- proved sufficiently to enter the meet, although Merriam, Leeke and Rogers are not in the best of condition, while Joos will not make the trip at all.

Pomona dopesters have figured out 74½ points for their team. Both ham- mer and shot put have been conceded Occidental, and the half-mile, if Capt. Himrod does not enter. The Pomona captain is entered in half-mile, mile, and two-mile, but will only run two of the three races. McKee has been shifted from the quarter to the half and will try to make good against Carver.

In the 100-yard dash and high jump the Claremonters are presenting strong trios, who should clean up nine points in both events.

Sloane, Rogers and Spurgeon have all done the 100 yards in 10 2-5 seconds, and, barring accidents, have little doubts of crowding Brower out of a place.

In the high jump Munger is un-winning the broad jump. Occidental second and Chaffee's sprained ankle will be a close race between Sloane, since Sloane is a doubtful entry expected to score, looked upon as Pomona's three men tied for running mate, as neither Hinckley are in good condition necessary relay mate.

Coach Pierce, Cap- Trainer Braden are confident tory and expect their men a decisive margin.

U.S.C. and Alumni

U.S.C. girls' basketball team will play a match game with the High School team on the university court. The Alumni gregation will be the County League, defeated in two decisive games out of three rounds. The game between leaders promises to be games of the season, as shown marked improvement in week's practice game, which ful of defeating the team five. The line-up of the Alumni includes Ethel Hogan and Asher, forwards; Anna Stella Knoles, center; ley and Lora Woodbridge begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

TWO RECORDS ARE BROKEN.

Time Cut on Hundred-Mile Race and Mile for Middleweight Racers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ORMOND (Fla.) March 6.—Two records were broken today. M. G. Bernin in a sixty-horse-power Renault car covered 100 miles in 1h. 12m. 58s. The old record was 1h. 13m. 56 s., established on Ormond Beach in 1903 by Walter Clifford Earp in a Napier.

The other record to fall was that of the mile for middleweight gasoline cars. Cedrino in a sixty-horse-power Fiat car covered the distance in 33s. The old record, made by Louis Chevrolet, in 1906, was 40 3-5s. Bernin made his 100-mile record in a special match race against Cedrino's car, S. B. Stevens driving the latter.

WINNER SET BACK.

Arcadia Gamblers on Nags That Are Made Favorites Win Through Judge's Decision.

One disqualification of a winner was noted at the Arcadia race track yesterday, which is said to be the first one since the meeting began. According to many sports it is not the first one that should have been called, but this all goes with the game. Del Cruzados, winner of the baby race, was set back for charging across in front of the favorite, Inclement, and it was a lucky thing for the favorite gamblers that the result was changed by the judges, for Del Cruzados would have won if no foul had been charged against him. Counting the disqualification, three favorites won in the six races, but the many "good things" and "sure winners" that the gamblers were touted into betting n kept them from winning any money. The card was for cheap plugs, and there were no features. Results:

Five furlongs, selling: Billy Mayhem, 105 (Schilling,) 3 to 1, won; Anna May, 99 (McBride,) 5 to 1, second; La Chata, 103 (Goldstein,) 7 to 1, third; time 1:00 1-5. Creston Boy, Maenigin Louise, Royal Rogue, Slippery, Adelbert Belle and Golden Rule also ran. J. C. McC., Wisteria, McChord, Chicorka Maid, Rueben and San Nicholas scratched.

Live Oak, Coriel, Buckthorne, Fred Maier, William F. Herrin, Aks Ar Ben, Royal Stone, Silk Hose and Del Cruzados also ran. Del Cruzados won, but was disqualified for fouling.

One mile, selling: Bemay, 102 (Van Dusen,) 20 to 1, won; Pal, 1-8 (Burns,) 8 to 5, second; Laudable, 94 (Goldstein,) 13 to 5, third; time 1:41 2-5. Sun Mark, Lonia, Rustling Silk, Fisher Boy, By Play, Litholin and Costly also ran. Ampedo, Black Dress and Brawney Lad scratched.

Five furlongs, selling: Toller, 108 (Archibald,) 5 to 1, won; Bribery, 103 (Schilling,) 1 to 2, second; Instructor, 108 (Howard,) 25 to 1, third; time 1:00 2-5. DANIELS AND BRANDER.

To Fight Out Handicap Golf Match at Coronado Tournament in the Semi-Finals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CORONADO, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Champion A. R. Daniels and A. J. Brander, winner of last year's handicap tournament, will fight it out for first honors in Coronado's 1908 handicap golf tournament. In the semi-finals today Daniels defeated D. J. Wellby one up, in spite of the eighteen-stroke handicap enjoyed by Wellby. Brander was able to overcome G. S. Hendrickson's seven-stroke handicap and won easily, two up and one to play.

The contest between Wellby and Daniels brought forth the best golf yet shown in this year's handicap tournament. Wellby played a splendid game. This, with his heavy handicap, made Daniels play his strongest game. In order to win, the champion made the second round of the course in thirty-six, three better than the bogey record.

The finals tomorrow between Daniels and Brander should furnish a rattling good contest. The champion has come down through a field, enjoying the heaviest handicaps. He has met men playing with from fifteen to eighteen points in their favor. His matches have all been close. Brander, on the other hand, has encountered the better players, playing each time with a handicap against him.

While the chances tomorrow favor Daniels, Brander has an excellent show to repeat his victory of last year. Daniels, in tomorrow's contest, concedes five strokes to Brander. But insomuch as Daniels in the qualifying round did the course in better than Brander, this does not seem a difficult handicap for the champion to overcome. Brander, however, shows to more advantage in match play than in medal play.

ANOTHER GOOD SIGN.

Generous Response to Appeal for Funds for U.S.S. California's Silver Service.

Since the return of Secretary Wiggins from the East, the collection of subscriptions to the fund for the purchase of a silver service for the cruiser California, has proceeded rapidly. He reported yesterday that he had received so far $900.

"This is one indication of returning good times," said the secretary. "The citizens are waking up to the fact that a fine new war vessel bears the name of this State, and they are now respond nobly to the appeal for funds."

About $4000 has been collected throughout the State, showing that this section has contributed its share to date.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

The oration of the day.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

elief of Animals.

The Society for the Prevention of ruelty to Animals reports for the onth of February: Complaints, 120; imals examined, 255; relieved, 65; de-royed, 44; suspended from labor, 27; ansported in ambulance 10; arrests, ; convictions, 26; cases pending, 17.

usiness Barometer.

C. M. Pierce, with his Balloon Route ccursion barometer, says he has noted heavy increase in business in the st three months—a gain of at least per cent. in the number of tourists arried. They may not be spending oney as freely as last year, he says, ut it counts for more in trade than a ear ago. Pierce estimates that there re fully 200,000 tourists in Los Angeles nd the surrounding cities at the pres-nt time, and he figures that each pends an average of $5 a day.

Liberty's Spread.

At Trinity M. E. Church, South, last night, former Judge Waldo M. York lectured before the Trinity Broth-rhood on "God in Our Government," saying among other things that the hand of the Almighty is seen in every step taken in connection with the ex-pansion of the United States. In the Louisiana Purchase, the acquisition of Hawaii and the extension of our gov-rnment to the Philippines, the speaker said it clearly was shown to be the de-sign of God to spread universal liberty. His agents, said Mr. York, are found in men like Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt. An audience of good size heard the lecture.

Recruits for Mrs. Fish.

Now that the soup houses have closed, Mrs. Francis H. Fish, who has been giving free soup to all who stand in line every night, on Temple street near the Courthouse, has received many recruits. After the soup is all gone, each man being given as many tinfuls as he wishes while it lasts, Mrs. Fish calls for all who have no bed for the night, places them in squads under a lieutenant and buys beds for them. From twenty-five to fifty are given beds each night, while as many as 200 partake of the soup. Dr. Hugh K. Walker or the German American Savings Bank will receive money for her use.

Prohibition Oratory.

O. W. Blaine of Michigan, said to be one of the most eloquent Prohibition orators in the country, will ad-dress the Prohibition Union in Sym-phony Hall at 3 o'clock Sunday after-noon. C. J. Hall, the irrepressible field secretary of the Prohibitionists, has accepted a challenge to debate with W. C. Owens Sunday night in Mam-moth Hall. The question is: "Re-solved, That the prohibition of the legalized liquor traffic is an interfer-ence with personal liberty, and there-fore out of harmony with the best in-terests of American citizenship." Mr. Hall, of course, takes the negative side of the question, and a "salty" time may be anticipated.

Ostrich at School.

The novelty of a live ostrich strut-ting about the platform in the Poly-technic High School was enjoyed by the students yesterday afternoon, when an instructive address on the ostrich and its feathers was delivered by Mr. Rydall of the Cawston Ostrich Farm. The live ostrich, ostrich eggs, feathers in the crude state and after they had been made up into the most magnif-icent plumes, formed the exhibits. Mr. Rydall went into the history of the ostrich, the state of the feather trade in this country and England, the in-troduction of ostriches into California, and the future prospects of the indus-try. The exhibition was enjoyed by an audience of students that packed the auditorium.

STOREY BACK, FACES TRIAL.

"MALLET CURE" DOCTOR HOME FROM MEXICAN JAUNT.

Chiropractic Left Hurriedly After Patient Died of Hemorrhage Following Peculiarly Rough Treatment, Now Must Answer for Practicing Without License.

Dr. Thomas H. Storey, the chiro-practic who left Los Angeles last Octo-ber, a few days after the sudden death of a patient who had taken the "mal-let cure," returned yesterday. He at once appeared before Police Justice Austin, on a charge of practicing med-icine without a license. He furnished a bond of $200, and announced that he would fight the case. His attorney, Miss Philaletha Michensen, says she expects defeat in the lower courts, but will carry it to the highest tribunal.

Storey, a tiny, nervous little man, who says he has studied in every school of medicine known in the coun-try, left for Mexico immediately after the death of his patient, Dominick Premus, who lived at No. 455 Jackson street. It was asserted at first that Premus died as a result of the rough chiropractic treatment. The autopsy, however, showed that death was due to a hemorrhage caused by tubercu-losis.

Although his family and friends urged him to return from Mexico, Storey apparently did not like the prospect of facing prosecution for practicing without a license.

According to the statement of Mrs. Premus, on the day her husband died, Premus was laid, face downward, across two chairs, while the doctor placed a wooden drill between the vertebras and struck it tremendous blows with a big mallet. He then jumped on the patient's back, she said, and pushed down on the spine with all his strength. Premus nearly swooned with pain, and was restored with a copious drink of whisky punch.

He was too weak for the hanging treatment, which consists in placing a leather collar about the neck of the patient and suspending him by means of cords and pulleys until the toes just touch the floor.

Storey was arrested and tried about a year ago on a charge of practicing without a license. He escaped with a fine.

"The case is similar to that of Dr. Greenall," said Attorney Michelsen, yesterday. "We contend that the State law regarding qualifications for prac-ticing medicine is unconstitutional and class legislation. A patient should be able to choose what kind of treat-ment he wishes, and if he believes in the chiropractic methods he should be allowed to be treated accordingly. The chiropractic should be examined on studies peculiar to that branch of medical science, and not be compelled to take an examination on subjects that do not enter into his practice. These and other points will be em-braced in our defense. I have com-pleted arrangements to take the mat-ter to the United States Supreme Court, if necessary."

TALK ABOUT HOME STATE.

Two Hundred New Yorkers Attend Re-union and Arrange to Hold April Picnic.

Two hundred New Yorkers gathered in the Gray Hall, South Hill street, last night, for social intercourse. Max Popper, organizer of the New York Society in San Francisco, told of the days when New Yorkers took an emi-nent part in the defense of the Union during the Civil War, and related how the society had made memorable the passing of New York troops through San Francisco to the Philippines.

Rev. Thomas D. Bell of Buffalo, N. Y., spoke interestingly of the Civil War, in which he took part. L. B. Gerald and B. B. Titus related funny incidents of life in the home State. Musical numbers were rendered by the Misses A. Deemers and A. C. Gerard and Mmes. J. C. Smith, J. Porter and H. L. Harris.

April 18 was chosen for a picnic to be given by the society in Eastlake Park, and the date of the next gath-ering was fixed as the first Friday in April. President Francis G. Haley was in the chair.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION PERFECTS ITS PLANS.

Accomplishes Stupendous Work After Traveling Thousands of Miles to Route Boulevards Which Will Make Los Angeles Famous.

ALMOST ready to report to the Supervisors its plan to make Los Angeles county the most wonderful road section in the country, the Highway Commission is winding up its campaign for a network of highways to cost about $3,000,000.

Among the principal roads planned are great boulevards from the foothills and mountains to the sea—one from Lamanda Park through the San Gabriel Valley; one from Los Angeles to Long Beach; one from Los Angeles to Wilmington and San Pedro, and one from Pasadena through Verdugo Canyon, Glendale and Hollywood to Santa Monica.

Another great highway will be built in time from Pomona to Los Angeles, connecting with the other great highways to Long Beach, San Pedro and Redondo, while bisecting the San Gabriel Valley from east to west will run another road, the continuation of which will be the main thoroughfare through the San Fernando Valley to the north.

Still again from Pasadena will run a highway through the La Canada Valley through San Fernando and Chatsworth Park and the Santa Susanna Pass to connect with Ventura and Santa Barbara.

One item of the plans of the commission is to reduce the Newhall grade from 23 to 6 per cent. by means of a tunnel 400 feet long through a hogback ridge across the canyon.

The commissioners already have made eighty-five trips of investigation and traveled about 6500 miles.

If all the miles traversed by the members of the Highway Commission during their eighty-five investigation trips had been in a straight line the commissioners would now be in the vicinity of Vienna, Austria, granting they had traveled upon one continuous journey.

But with 6500 miles to their credit the commissioners feel that they are beginning to be familiar with the county roads of Los Angeles and that if they have missed any "thank-you-marms" on the way they don't know it.

Today the commissioners will go over a proposed new route for a highway from Pasadena to San Fernando, on the way to Santa Barbara. This trip will be through La Cañada Valley, across the Big Tejunga wash north of Sunland, and thence along the foothills to San Fernando.

The chances are that this route will be adopted from Pasadena, by way of Devil's Gate, through La Cañada, La Crescenta and Sunland, thence over a big bridge to be built across the Big Tejunga. Keeping to the high grounds, the highway will skirt the foothills until it is within a short distance of San Fernando. Here it will join the main thoroughfare, where it branches off, one road to Santa Barbara by way of the Santa Susanna Pass, and the other north through Newhall and the Soledad Cañon to Antelope and Death Valleys.

WORLD-WIDE REPUTATION.

But this is only one item in the tremendous task which the commission has undertaken, and when it is through with its work and the roads it has planned are laid out and in working order Los Angeles county will have a world-wide reputation as the county with the best and most picturesque highways in the country.

Yesterday Engineer Arthur Loder and his assistants were busy laying out the right of way for a magnificent boulevard from Los Angeles to Wilmington. They are working just below Gardena struggling with the problems forced upon them by Nigger Slough, which may some day become an inland harbor.

This proposed great boulevard, which will be reported upon by the commissioners to the Supervisors before long, will probably be a continuation of Main street to start with, and near Gardena will curve into and merge with the extension of Figueroa street, or may again branch to the east and go around Nigger Slough in this way to the gates of the Inner Harbor City.

MOUNTAINS TO OCEAN.

Then there is another road to the sea which will be a wonder when it is finished, for it will traverse the beautiful San Gabriel Valley, pass through the rich fruit lands of Rivera and Downey, skirt the dairy district of Clearwater and branch off there, one road west to Compton and Redondo, the other south through Clearwater to Long Beach.

This highway will begin in Lamanda Park, connecting through this suburb city with Pasadena, will cut through the villa-studded foothills and, passing through East San Gabriel, go in almost a straight line to Rivera, thence through Downey to Clearwater, with horns to the blue Pacific.

Still another great highway is planned to the ocean. This one will start from the city limits of Long Beach at American avenue, 100 feet wide, and running north in a straight line to Compton, thence to Watts and then north again to Los Angeles, entering this city between the suburbs of Nadeau and Green Meadows.

One more highway will also bisect the most varied scenery of the county from Pasadena through the Devil's Gate, along La Cañada highway to Verdugo Cañon, through Glendale, Tropico, and, skirting Griffith Park, pass through Hollywood, Sherman and Beverly Hills to Santa Monica.

ACROSS COUNTRY.

Crossing these mountains-to-the-sea boulevards is planned another which will cut across from Pomona by way of Lordsburg and, following the old San Bernardino road, will pass through Puente and El Monte to Los Angeles, where connection can be made with the San Fernando road, which is the main artery of travel to the north.

Next week plans will be considered for a Covina-to-Los Angeles highway through San Gabriel Valley, crossing at right angles the one toward the ocean.

But in one way the most important work undertaken by the Highway Commission, and a work which is already surveyed and practically complete as to plans, is that for reducing the Newhall grade from 23 per cent. to about 6 per cent. on the San Fernando road, the great northern highway.

The present grade on this road between San Fernando and Newhall makes almost prohibitive trucking of farm products from the northern valley to Los Angeles. The commissioners and Engineer Loder have discovered that by turning the road in a southerly direction just about a mile and a half this side of the old adobe building, a relic of pioneer days, and following the cañon in which an old abandoned oil derrick is the principal landmark of civilization, the heavy grade can be eliminated.

SAVE HEAVY GRADE.

To do this, however, will necessitate tunneling through a hogback ridge about 400 feet, whence the road will curve northward until it again joins with the old highway this side of Newhall. It will make a specially picturesque drive through the cañon—and then it will save 17 per cent. of grade.

It is estimated that this route for the San Fernando road, including the tunnel, will cost about $50,000, but what it will mean to the two ends of Los Angeles county can hardly be measured in dollars.

One point in connection with the proposed change of route for this highway is that it will be so near the new Owens River reservoir that much, if not all, of the earth and rock removed in the construction of the road can be used at a minimum of expense for the reservoir. It will be a case of "killing two birds with one stone."

Still this is not all the commissioners plan to do in this section of the county. It is proposed to make a short cut from San Fernando, a city which may well hereafter be called the "Parting of the Ways," to Santa Barbara.

In almost a straight cast westerly from this old mission town with its olive orchards, the road will go to Chatsworth Park and thence over the Santa Susanna Pass to the Ventura county line. Here it will join with the proposed road which Ventura county will build to join the one from Los Angeles, and thus connection over a series of magnificent boulevards traversing a varied scenery hard to match in the world, will be made with Ventura and Santa Barbara.

FAMOUS HIGHWAY.

This road will be one of the famous automobile drives of the United States and it is safe to say that thousands will be attracted to Southern California by the beauties opened to view through valley and mountainside by this route from the metropolis of Southern California to its wonderful Bay City of delights.

This outline of the work of the Los Angeles Highway Commission only indicates the amount of work its members have accomplished. They have traveled 6500 miles, have put up with hardships and banquets in all parts of their district, and have had to convince every other rancher in the wilderness that it is impossible to build a macadamized boulevard 'steen miles out of the way just to accommodate him personally.

The commission is composed of Charles D. Daggett of Pasadena, chairman; George H. Bixby of Long Beach and Martin C. Marsh of Los Angeles. Ray L. Chesebro is clerk of the commission and Arthur E. Loder is the engineer-in-chief.

The commission is preparing its first report for the Supervisors, and it is upon this report, its estimates and recommendations, that the people of Los Angeles county will before long be called upon to vote "yea" or "nay" for improvements which, if carried out, will place Los Angeles county in the front rank of civilized sections and make its name a synonym for all that attracts wealth, culture and good citizenship.

LATE COMMENCEMENT.

State Normal School Announces Graduation of First Class Under the New Regulations.

Owing to the division of the school year into three terms instead of two, the State Normal School will graduate its first class at the close of the spring term, on March 13. The class has but seventeen members, but hereafter it will be of magnitude commensurate with the greatness of the school, and of the summer and winter classes. The graduation exercises will be held in the assembly hall, and will consist of music, a dramatic reading by Mrs. Dorothea Hoaglin-Hayden, and presentation of diplomas.

The members of the class are Emma L. Bigelow, Vera Howard Brooks, Cora Daniels, Edna Estelle Daniels, Roby Theresa Elwood, Beatrix Mary Fortune, Lois Haettel, Marie Alden Hopkins, Elizabeth A. Jones, Letizia Moulton Kimball, Myrtle Irene Nidiffer, Julia O'Connor, Lela Patterson, Tallahatchie Pettingill, Katherine Spiers, Olive Mabon, Emily Seymour Brugman.

AT SALVATION ARMY CITADEL.

"Buy Your Own Cherries," "Jack the Conqueror," and other readings illustrated by the stereopticon will be presented at the Salvation Army Citadel, No. 121 San Pedro street, this evening. Illustrated songs interspersed with music by the brass and string bands will also be on the programme. These popular services are free to all.

OVERWORK AFFECTS BRAIN.

Clever Accountant Placed Under Restraint in Hope That Rest Will Restore Health.

Possessed of the belief that he has unlimited credit and with a mania for buying all sorts of things for which he has no use, Guy W. Colton, an expert accountant, 25 years old, is confined in the insane ward at the County Hospital. He was taken into custody yesterday morning on a complaint sworn to by his wife.

Colton was formerly employed as a book-keeper in the auditor's department of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad Company. He bore an excellent reputation, and was considered an able man for one of his years. Three years ago he broke down from overwork. He apparently recovered, then suffered a relapse, but again picked up.

About the first of the year he developed a mania for buying everything that met his fancy. He attended the chariot races during the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, and bought the horse that was injured, paying $155.

He had in the bank a few hundred dollars, which he had saved by careful economy. The money went to meet checks which he recklessly scattered. A short time ago he bought a ranch at Covina, and gave a check in part payment. Later he purchased a house in this city.

Forced to realize that his condition was desperate, his wife applied for letters of guardianship day before yesterday. The same afternoon Colton went to the store of the Hawley-King Company, and bought a buggy, giving a check for $200 in payment though he already owned a fine vehicle. Yesterday he started up town and bought a load of fruit trees, though he had no place to plant them. His wife was at home when they arrived, and sent them back. She then swore to a complaint, charging her husband with insanity. The warrant was at once served, and Colton was taken into custody.

As far as friends could ascertain yesterday, Colton has overdrawn his account to the extent of $16... In most instances the people from whom he made purchases took the articles back, and returned the checks when the state of affairs was explained to them.

Colton's reputation has always been excellent, and his friends are rallying to his support. Every effort is being made to straighten out his affairs, and it is hoped that, with rest and proper treatment, he will recover his mental equilibrium. His wife and three-months-old child live at No. 1419 West Twenty-ninth street. The home belongs to Mrs. Colton.

JAM FOR DINNER.

Big Crowd Promised for Republican Banquet Tonight, With Samuel M. Shortridge as Speaker.

A tremendous crowd is in sight for tonight's political banquet, to be given at Levy's by the Second and Third Ward Republican Club. The limit of 500 tickets set some time ago has long since been exceeded, and the attendance of prominent party members apparently will be restricted only by the capacity of the large dining-room.

Quick action today will be required by those who have not made reservations of places at the tables.

A telegram was received yesterday from Samuel M. Shortridge of San Francisco, announcing that he will be here to deliver the principal address. Mr. Shortridge will arrive today, and will be entertained with an auto tour of the city. He will stay at the Alexandria.

Short speeches are to be made by Superior Judges B. N. Smith and W. P. James, by Attorneys John G. Mott and E. A. Meserve and by others. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks will be ...

STRANGE ROMANCE.

BITTER ENDING OF LOVE SUIT.

Girl Fights to Save Life of Rejected Suitor.

Beaten to Floor, She Sees Him Drink Death.

Idyl of Greece Closes With Scene in Morgue.

In a desperate struggle with the man she had rejected, Miss Marie R. Nedecker, of No. 112 South Hope street, strove in vain to prevent Steven Simeon from committing suicide yesterday afternoon.

Although cruelly injured from the blows of the frenzied man, the girl fought bravely to keep the bottle of carbolic acid from his lips. But at last, thrown to the floor, she saw him drink the poison and fall dying upon the bed.

The tragedy was the climax to one of the prettiest of romances. In Greece lived two friends. Both were wealthy. Both had fine farms and fine cattle. They married and their sons grew up together, and had a love for each other like that of Damon and Pythias.

Together the boys left the land of their fathers, came to America, crossed the continent and arrived in Los Angeles.

Here they met Miss Nedecker and both promptly fell in love with her. She treated both as friends and taught them to speak the English language.

Each knew of the other's love for the girl but neither cared to forfeit friendship by proposing.

They joined the Greek societies of the city and entered the Greek gymnasium.

Day by day the wooing of the girl continued until at last it reached a point where the Greeks could no longer refrain from speaking of their love. They talked the matter over and agreed to ask Miss Nedecker to decide between them.

Franco Serlin, a handsome young man, said he would propose first. He bade his chum good-by in their apartments at the Rockford Terrace, and then went to the room occupied by Miss Nedecker.

A short time later, he returned and told Simeon that he was going to Chicago. He did not say that his suit had been successful.

Simeon thought otherwise and attempted to win that which he thought his friend had lost.

Yesterday afternoon he called upon the girl, who was sewing at the time and gave him a friendly nod as he entered her room. He placed a gift of fruit before her and then made his plea. He was rejected.

Broken-hearted, the young man turned from her and walking to a dresser, opened one of the drawers and took out a bottle of carbolic acid.

"I am going to kill myself," he said.

"Put that bottle back and behave yourself," she answered. She thought that the young man was jesting.

But he was in deadly earnest. He drew near her and raised the bottle to his lips. Something in his ... and seized the bottle. Together they struggled for it, crashing about the room, colliding with the furniture and brushing the bric-a-brac from the dresser.

The girl was fighting with the frenzy of despair to save the life of the man who had been like a brother to her and who seemingly had become insane.

With a wrestling trick, learned in the gymnasium, he at last hurled her from him and pressed the bottle to his lips. As the fiery liquid burned him the girl leaped again upon him and he struck her again and again with his fist.

Then he poured the acid down his throat.

As the dying man fell, Miss Nedecker called for help. Mrs. G. R. Hodson, the landlady, ran to her assistance. Together they tried to force raw eggs between his lips. He resisted with his last strength and died with his teeth tightly clenched.

His body was removed to the Breese Brothers' morgue, where an inquest will be held today.

Miss Marie R. Nedecker, who fought desperately yesterday with the man she had rejected to prevent his committing suicide, and who lost in the struggle.

TEAR MAKER CORNERED.

Inseparable Companion of Steak Scarce, and Price Takes Balloon Route.

If you have tears prepare to shed them now. The tear-compeller has been, or is about to be, cornered.

The succulent companion of the choice tenderloin, the vegetable which plays Pythias to the porterhouse Damon, is shy in quantity, but bold and high and mighty in price. Less than a carload is in the hands of Los Angeles jobbers. Three cars are on the way, and the Keystone Produce Company, which is attempting the corner, holds those which are here, and controls those billed to arrive.

The salvation of the beefsteak must wait until Bermudas ripen in the Imperial Valley.

Of course under these conditions the price is up. The thrifty housekeeper who asks the vegetable man for 10 cents' worth of onions to put in the soup, can scarcely see the few he hands her. Fancy stock fetches $4 per 100 pounds, and if the Imperial Valley doesn't "get a move on" and come to the rescue with its Bermudas, the price will go to $4.50—a local record.

A factor which has assisted in strengthening these strong vegetables and opening the way to a corner has been the heavy sale of Oregons to the battleship fleet.

The only possible relief from this dread corner rests in Imperial Valley production and it is whispered that the recent Chamber of Commerce excursion had for its real object the gathering of a few onions; and that every man came back with a sackful.

DIRECT.

SHORTER CUT TO ARIZONA.

NEW LINE OF SANTA FE WILL BRING US CLOSER.

Leaves Main System at Bengal, San Bernardino County, and Makes Straight for Colorado River, at Parker—Ready in Few Months, With Prescott and Phoenix Closer.

Within the next few months the Santa Fé Railroad will extend its line through a large territory in Southern California which up to the present has had no transportation facilities of any kind and the growth of which has been retarded principally for that reason. This land lies in San Bernardino county, south of the Mojave Desert. The new railroad line will branch from Bengal on the main route of the system and run directly to Parker, Ariz., now the western terminus of the Prescott and Phoenix road.

To reach Parker and any of the adjacent mining centers from Los Angeles, it is necessary at present to make a roundabout trip, going first to Ash Fork, then to Wickenburg, the entire journey occupying at least two days. Over the new branch the trip from here to Parker will be possible in twelve hours. This will also greatly shorten the time between Los Angeles and Phoenix, Prescott and other Arizona points.

Work on the bridge over the Colorado River at Parker is rushing and it is expected the foundation will be ready for the superstructure by June 1, when the high waters wash through the Colorado Valley. Engineer W. A. Drake, who was in Los Angeles a few days ago, is enthusiastic over the progress made and expects to see the entire line completed within the next twelve months.

Contract for grading has been awarded to the Los Angeles firm of Grant Bros., who just a short time ago finished the track work from Phoenix to Parker.

Los Angeles will receive the greatest benefits from the new branch, since it will bring Arizona points considerably nearer and open a district which in a great measure has been unexploited owing to the lack of proper hauling facilities.

There are some rich ore-producing claims in the section to be opened up—some of the oldest in Arizona. Among them are the Harqua Hala, Old Planet, Clara, Signal, Crown Princess and Crown Queen mines, nearly all of which are producing properties.

On the California side of the river there are some excellent opportunities for the homeseeker. Much of the land is desert and can easily be irrigated, either from the Colorado River or by artesian wells. It will produce ...

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Assessor will revalue all real estate in the city this spring on his new assessment; city employés are quaking lest he reduce assessments enough to reduce materially the city's revenue; this would mean a wholesale dismissal of employés.

An appeal will be made to the Council by local merchants Monday for an increase in the fire department appropriation sufficient to build and equip two new engine-houses.

By Judge Conrey's order, made yesterday, all unpaid claims of witnesses in criminal trials in his court are resubmitted for further consideration and payment suspended. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks has been requested to submit to the court a statement of the law on the payment of witnesses.

George Crocker and James Roddick, Ocean Park drug clerks, convicted of selling liquor without a license, were granted new trials by Judge Wilbur yesterday.

The Abbot Kinney Company yesterday was granted by Judge Smith a temporary injunction prohibiting the Ocean Park Trustees from enforcing the anti-tent ordinance.

Judge Bordwell yesterday ordered a new trial of Mrs. Ruby Kinsey's $50,000 damage suit against Dr. J. T. Stewart.

AT THE CITY HALL.

HOLD TO LURE OF FAT YEAR.

ASSESSOR INVOKED NOT TO CUT CITY'S TAX ROLL.

All Real Estate Will Be Revalued, but Politicians and Place Men Hope There Will Be no Reductions—More Money in Banks Than Last Year. Millions in Buildings.

City Assessor Mallard is the most important personage just now at the City Hall. The returns which he makes for this year's assessment will decide whether there shall be fat days or lean days in the municipal service during the next twelve months. It was Mallard's assessment last year that prepared the way for the $3,000,000 budget to care for this year's current expenses.

"We expect to revalue every piece of real estate in the City before June 1," said Deputy Assessor Conrad yesterday. "There has been a shifting of values since the last assessment was made, and Mr. Mallard is preparing to go over the whole city a second time."

Councilmen are divided in their opinions as to what the returns for this year's assessment should be; the division is occasioned by the different opinions held by their constituents. Every person who works for the city or has a relative or business associate in the city's employ is in favor of keeping the assessment at least as high as last year's estimate; they do not desire to see the city run short-handed. But there are thousands of others, the ones who pay taxes on the assessment valuations, who ask that this year's rating show a marked reduction over that of last year; these say that property is selling for less than at this time a year ago, and that it is the duty of the Assessor to take cognizance of this shrinkage in values.

On his first assessment, Mr. Mallard increased the assessment roll more than $60,000,000. Department heads at the City Hall will be well satisfied if the assessment roll totals as much this year as last. The outfall sewer is finished, and if the $125,000 which went into that during the last two years can be turned to current expenses, there will be places for a couple of hundred little politicians at present unemployed.

Thirty-five deputy assessors will be in the field this week, making new estimates of value on personal property, including household effects. This is the season when the frugal housewife stores the piano away in the woodshed and deposits her diamonds under the parlor carpet.

The returns from the local banks show that more money was on deposit March 1 this year than on the same date last year; but the field deputies report that most of the big stores are carrying a much smaller stock now than a year ago. This shrinkage in stocks will be balanced, however, by the building improvements made during the last year. About $3,000,000 has gone into new buildings where the Assessor can get at it; possibly as much more has been invested, but in such a manner as to be invisible to the field deputies.

There will be a loss to the assessment roll this year in the franchise ratings; a number of companies that received a heavy franchise tax last year have moved their headquarters outside the city in order to escape a similar assessment this year. The loss in franchises will be made up, in part, by the increase in valuation in some outside tracts where new streets have been opened and property values increased thereby.

It is generally understood that there will be no changes, or only minor ones, in the valuation of property in the business district.

If last year's assessment roll will only hold for another year there will be feasting and rejoicing among the city's employés; but if valuations should be set back to where they were a year ago, there will be a hard winter ahead for some of the little place men.

Mr. Mallard declines to discuss his assessment this year even with members of the Council, who feel that their political future depends on the kind of return made by the Assessor. Just now each Councilman is ready to make affidavit that the property in his particular ward has stood still or values have gone backward, but in the other wards there has been a marked increase.

MANY BOND INQUIRIES.

FORMER RECORDS BROKEN.

For the first time in its history Los Angeles is finding a market for her bonds in Europe. During the last week City Treasurer Hance has received calls from bond brokers representing English and French investors. They asked for particulars as to the next issue of Los Angeles aqueduct securities, and intimated that they may take a part of the issue for trans-Atlantic customers.

More than half the present issue of aqueduct bonds has been sold, and most of the others are contracted for. A third issue will probably be made about May 1, possibly earlier than that. All the money received from this and the next issue will go to hire labor for the aqueduct.

FOR ARBOR DAY.

CITY HALL CLOSED.

The City Hall will be closed today, and most of the city officials will take part in Arbor Day exercises. For the clerks and the outside men who work by the month it means a holiday at full pay, but for the day laborers it means a lay-off without compensation.

Acting on the recommendation contained in a message from the Mayor the Council passed an ordinance Monday declaring today to be a holiday. Three days later the City Attorney called attention to the fact that laborers cannot draw pay for the day. An attempt was made to call a special session of the Council to pass a second ordinance granting a day's pay to the laborers, but the attorney said that such an ordinance would not be valid.

The extra men who have been employed building roads in Elysian Park were dismissed last night, as the appropriation for this work was exhausted. This turned out 250 men who have been receiving $1.50 a day as boulevard builders.

MAKES FINAL PLEA.

FOR THE FIRE FIGHTERS.

F. H. Porter came down from San Francisco yesterday to make a final plea for an increase in the fire department appropriation sufficient to permit some permanent improvements in the way of engine-houses and equipment. A year ago the Council promised to devote $200,000 to permanent improvements in the fire department; then it expected to make good by an issue of bonds. The bonds have not been voted, and the department appropriation has all been expended for operating expenses in the department.

Mr. Porter is the head of a fire inspection bureau allied with the Board of Fire Underwriters. He holds forth to local merchants the hope that the improvements he asks would be followed by a reduction in the insurance rate in the business district here. The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association will probably send a committee before the Council Monday to ask that an appropriation be made at once sufficient to build and equip at least two new engine-houses.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

LEGAL HOLD-UP OF WITNESSES.

MATTER OF FEES AND EXPENSES UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Superior Court Judge Asks District Attorney to Submit Law on Subject—Meanwhile All Payments for Services in Giving Testimony Are Stopped by His Honor.

Further payments of fees and expenses to witnesses in the Ocean Park cases have stopped until Judge Conrey can make a more extended examination of the laws bearing on the subject. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks has been requested to submit a statement concerning the points involved. The order made yesterday by the court is as follows:

"It appearing that, in the cases of the people against Dennett Childs, David Lewis, T. F. Thompson, and C. B. Daniels, claims have been presented for allowance as fees and mileage for witnesses, some of which claims have been approved and others have not yet been passed upon by the court, and a doubt having arisen as to the validity of such claims;

"It is ordered that all such claims which have not been paid, be, and they are hereby resubmitted for further consideration, and that payment thereof be suspended until further order of the court.

"It is further directed that the clerk of this court request the District Attorney to sumbit to the court a statement of the law bearing on this question."

MOTHER'S COMPLAINT.

ACCUSES FORMER HUSBAND.

Charged with contempt of court for refusing to permit his former wife, Mrs. Juanita Davies free access to their two small children, W. E. Davies appeared before Judge Wilbur yesterday.

"When I called at his house," the plaintiff told the court, "he called me vile names, on one occasion, and he made me go around to the back door to see the children. Their manner to me also makes me feel that they are being taught to regard me without affection. One evening when I called, my small boy asked me why I did not go home. I am hampered by the restriction that my former husband places on my visits to my children."

Davies denied that he had called his former wife names, and said that he had told her to go to the side door leading into the children's nursery, as his mother did not wish her to enter the parlor, where she would meet callers. He denied that he was estranging the children from her, and said that she disturbed family arrangements by refusing to let him know when she would call.

"Some attempt at mutual accommodation is necessary here," was Judge Wilbur's comment. "I suppose it is difficult, but you two must agree to that extent."

Mrs. Davies sued for divorce last December, on grounds of cruelty. He contested the suit and was awarded a decree on statutory grounds, with custody of the children.

VERDICT NOT JUSTIFIED.

DOCTOR ESCAPES DAMAGES.

Dr. J. T. Stewart of the Red Cross Hospital was granted yesterday a new trial of Mrs. Ruby Kinsey's $50,000 damage suit against him. A jury in Judge Bordwell's court recently awarded the plaintiff $5000 damages for an operation performed by the doctor. She asserted that she was injured for life.

The court decided that the evidence presented did not warrant the verdict and that Attorney Earl Rogers, Mrs. Kinsey's counsel, in addressing the jury, had gone outside of the evidence. Mr. Rogers stated that he had not questioned Dr. Bryson closely, because, should he testify against Dr. Stewart, he would be blacklisted by other physicians. This remark the court held to be improper.

TENTS SAFE FOR PRESENT.

OCEAN PARK'S HANDS TIED.

Despite the affidavit of President Jones of the Ocean Park Trustees that he believes the Venice tent-houses of the Abbott Kinney Company are unsanitary and a fire menace, Judge Smith yesterday granted an order temporarily restraining the board from proceeding with the prosecution of the forty-seven suits filed against the company.

Attorneys J. D. Pope, Jud Rush and R. J. Loucks, who appeared for the Kinney company, contended that the anti-tent ordinance is unconstitutional, because it confers arbitrary power on the city officials to grant or refuse permits for tents at their pleasure.

President Jones's affidavit alleged the belief by many at Ocean Park that immoral practices are permitted in the tent city. This was scoffed at.

Attorney Vance Anderson, who appeared for the Ocean Park authorities, contended that the anti-tent ordinance is not unreasonable, is being enforced without prejudice, and that the removal of the tent houses is necessary for the city's good.

JUDGMENT REVERSED.

LONG BEACH MEN FORTUNATE.

On the ground that George Crocker and James Roddick did not enter their pleas before they were tried, last summer, in the Long Beach Justice Court, Judge Wilbur yesterday reversed the judgment of that tribunal and set next Friday as the time for the defendants to enter pleas in the Superior Court. They are charged with selling liquor without a license. Their counsel argued that the first trial was irregular in that the jurymen took a whisky bottle into the jury room and commented on it there. This point was not ruled on by Judge Wilbur.

Attacks on the Los Angeles ordinances against bucket shops and the establishment of laundries within residence districts were made by counsel for J. W. Scott, convicted last November under the bucketship law, and by counsel for Ah Hem, convicted in January for running a laundry on Thompson street. Both cases were taken under advisement.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

DISAPPOINTED. Asserting that she was led to invest $1000 in the Johnnie townsite, Nevada, through false representations, Mrs. Mary A. Wanser yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against H. R. Cowan. She states that in December, 1904, she paid him $1000, and agreed to pay $1000 more, for a tenth interest in the townsite, a fifth interest in which Cowan told her, it is alleged, he had acquired for $37,500. She asserts that he deceived her and that when she demanded her money back he refused to return it, although he had promised to do so if she was not satisfied.

COMMISSION SUIT. Lee Hawkins, Jr., yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against the Dallas Mining Company for $3000 commission, alleged due for his services in marketing its product. He states that, by an agreement made last May, he was to have this business, but that recently the corporation has refused to fulfill the compact.

EXONERATED. Coroner Hartwell's statement to Justice Summerfield yesterday that Victor Silvas had acted in self-defense in killing Louis Flores at the Hartranft ranch, near Monte Vista, Friday, led the justice to discharge Silvas from custody.

INN MAN FINED. H. McCullough, proprietor of the Heidelberg Inn in Cahuenga Pass, whose license was recently revoked by the Supervisors, yesterday pleaded guilty in Justice Stephens's court to selling liquor without a license and paid the $100 fine imposed.

SUSTAINS DEMURRER. Judge James yesterday sustained the demurrer of the city of Redondo to R. Edwards's $10,000 damage suit because of alleged false imprisonment in the County Jail last fall for doing business without a license. He asserts he had one.

BATH-HOUSE MATTER. The demurrer of the Ocean Park Bath House and Amusement Company to L. J. H. Hastings's complaint to secure a vacation by the corporation of a portion of the ten-foot board walk along the beach, said to be covered by the defendants' buildings, was overruled by Judge Conrey yesterday.

CLUB DISSOLVES. A petition for the voluntary dissolution of the Cosmopolitan Club of Long Beach was filed by its directors in the Superior Court yesterday.

NOT ALL SUGAR. James E. Cox, Jr., by his guardian, J. E. Cox, yesterday filed in the Superior Court a $20,000 damage suit against the Los Alamitos Sugar Company. The defendant says that last September, while he was running a dump car for the concern, it ran off the track and crushed his right knee, and that he suffered other injuries because of the alleged negligence of the corporation.

WOMAN'S PLAINT. Asserting that she was promised that her original investment would be returned to her doubled in ninety days, Mrs. H. H. St. John yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against H. L. Miller & Co. to recover $447, alleged to have been paid the concern by her in October, 1906.

TROUBLE OVER ROUTES. Fred Fette must stand trial on March 18 on a charge of selling to G. Daboyian newspaper routes not his property. Judge Smith yesterday overruled his demurrer.

BOY BURGLARS. Fred Eschrich and Howard Straw, who, with Merle McReynolds burglarized the Colegrove postoffice three weeks ago, were placed on probation yesterday by Judge Wilbur. The lads admitted their offenses and promised to behave themselves. Mrs. Philo Beveridge told the court that she would look after them, and they were released with orders to report to her and Probation Officer Dodds. Merle McReynolds, credited with being the leader of the gang that entered many Hollywood homes, was committed to the Detention Home for another week. He, too, may ultimately be placed on probation.

INCORPORATION. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the Re-Enforced Paper Company; capital stock, $100,000.

BY NAME OF CROUCH. The public should not confuse the name of J. C. Crouch, the attorney who is now being investigated by the Bar Association, with either Charles C. Crouch or George W. Crouch, reputable attorneys of the city, and in no way connected with him.

AN UNUSUAL SPECTACLE IN THE POLICE COURT.

Members of Large Family, Which Maintains Common Fund, Assemble When Five Young Men Are Arraigned in Police Court on Burglary Charge.

Five cowboys, members of the Padgett family, were examined before Justice Rose yesterday on charges of burglary. Four of them were held for trial in the Superior Court under $1000 bonds each.

The Padgett family is one of the largest in Southern California, numbering about forty members. They have turned their money into a common fund, which is managed by the eldest member of the family. It will be drawn upon for the defense of the young men, who are represented by Attorney Earl Rogers.

W. Padgett, H. Padgett, R. Murray and M. Valdez were the ones held for trial. J. Parker was released.

The cowboys were riding in a Wild West show at Chutes Park at the time of their arrest. J. E. Ansel, the proprietor of the attraction, had an altercation with them, and they left his service. It is alleged that, as a "prank," they took his best saddle, blanket and pair of chaps from his barn and hid them.

Detectives found the articles and swore to a complaint of burglary. Yesterday many spectators, mostly members of the Padgett clan, were in court to cheer the defendants. A number of cowboys from county ranches rode to the Police Station to testify to their good character.

Mediums Fined.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baxter, who were convicted by a jury in the Police Court Thursday of practicing as mediums without a license, were fined yesterday by Justice Austin.

The man, who claimed to be the minister of a spiritualistic church, paid $60 and the woman $40. Witnesses testified that the defendants materialized spirits and caused them to walk about the room. It was further stated that it cost each visitor 50 cents to witness this.

Held for Forgery.

A. E. Pingree was held for trial in the Superior Court yesterday, after preliminary examination before Justice Rose.

Pingree left the city before the complaint was filed against him, and was arrested two days ago as he rode into Los Angeles on a brake-beam.

He is charged with having issued forged checks, amounting to about $500, to pay gambling debts.

BOTH WANT "LITTLE BILLY."

Mother Objects to Giving up Son to Woman Who Wishes to Adopt Her Baby.

"Billy" Scott, a fair-haired, blue-eyed baby who has seen just fourteen months of a very "tough" old world, is the subject of contention in a three-cornered fight between Humane Officer Reynolds, Marie Scott, the baby's mother, and Mrs. Caroline Selmer of State street.

Mrs. Scott was arrested two weeks ago while in the company of a gang of alleged burglars, two of whom are to be tried, while the other was sent out of the city. She pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and was fined $100, with the alternative of spending 100 days in jail. She had no money and is serving the sentence.

The baby has been cared for by Mrs. Selmer for several months. The woman has received no money for the care of the child and has grown to love the little fellow. Yesterday she petitioned Judge Wilbur in the Superior Court to allow her to adopt the boy.

Humane Officer Reynolds objected on the ground that the father should care for it. The latter cannot be found.

Mrs. Scott was released from jail yesterday long enough to permit her to see the baby. She told the officer that she did not want to give up the child and said she intended to care for it, and try and lead a better life as soon as she was released.

The question of the custody of the little one was postponed one week.

DEFENDS SELF AND CLIENT.

Attorney and Business Man Deny Connection With Oregon Land Fraud Cases Pending.

"This custom of removing defendants to another jurisdiction without being required to establish a prima facie case is un-American and contrary to the principles of criminal law," stated Attorney Will D. Gould, one of the local defendants in the Oregon land fraud case, yesterday. "If the defendants were brought to trial in any local court and the prosecution only offered its complaint as evidence, the court would dismiss the case. I am confident that the United States Supreme Court will clearly establish this principle of equity. We have already gained a material advantage from our appeal to that tribunal. It decided that defendants on extradition proceedings had a right to introduce testimony in their own behalf. That had not been the previous procedure. I expect that our contention on the other point will also be sustained."

The attorney interposed a plea in abatement, yesterday, in behalf of his client, George Stearns, another of the local business men indicted by Heney's grand jury. Although Stearns's case is pending on appeal, he was arrested a second time and compelled to give bond on the same charge. It is believed that he will be discharged on the second complaint.

The case of Attorney Gould will come up Monday before United States Commissioner Van Dyke. He asserts that he knows nothing about the Oregon land frauds except what he has read in the Portland papers. He was attorney here for the Pacific Furniture and Lumber Company, but had no knowledge of any land transactions.

Yesterday's session was devoted to the examination of Lee R. Myers, who was indicted apparently on the ground that he sold some stock for the furniture company. On the witness stand he admitted that he had sold stock, but added that he knew absolutely nothing of the inside business transactions of the company.

It is generally believed that none of the defendants will be put to the inconvenience and expense of going to Portland to be tried. The government has so far failed to show any connection of the local defendants with the supposed cases of fraud in Oregon.

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION.

Planning for the Entertainment of Notable Guests During Visit of Battleship Fleet.

At least seventy cities will send their Mayor or the president of their Chamber of Commerce to Los Angeles during the visit of the battleship fleet, and these gentlemen will be entitled to official recognition at various functions.

At the meeting of the Committee on Neighboring Towns, held in Gen. F. C. Prescott's office yesterday, it was decided to draw up a list of those who should be so honored, and present it to the executive of the General Fleet Committee.

Reports presented show a gratifying interest in the celebration here in all the outside places. Gen. Prescott was authorized to report to the executive the progress made.

The people of San Diego are preparing a royal welcome, and an elaborate entertainment for the sailors, and for the other visitors who will be attracted by the fleet's presence in their harbor.

The entire programme has not as yet been made, but the entertainment will consist, in part, of grand illuminations, magnificent fireworks upon both land and water, concerts and parades, huge public banquets to officers and men, rowing regattas, baseball games and a variety of other sports.

Of course, the battleships themselves will be the chief attraction to most of the visitors. Ample facilities will be afforded all who wish to visit and inspect the great vessels.

The ships will lie at convenient distances from shore and launches and other small craft will convey visitors to and fro.

William Slade Clark & Co., bankers and brokers of Philadelphia, announced their assignment yesterday for the benefit of the creditors. It is understood the failure is unimportant. No cause is given.

PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION TO FLEET FUND.

In order that the general public may share in the expenses of the entertainment of the enlisted men of the great battleship fleet which will arrive off the ports of Los Angeles next month, the following coupon has been prepared. Those desiring to subscribe, no matter how small an amount, can fill out the coupon and send it with their check or subscription to W. D. CITIZENS' CELEBRATION.

Everything looks auspicious for a great celebration by the citizens of Los Angeles today, when they will go out and plant a large number of trees in the most recently-adopted of all the city parks—Sycamore Grove Park.

The parade, which will form at Central Park promptly at 1 o'clock this afternoon, will be a large and spectacular affair. There will be a squad of police, a military band, twenty-four official carriages and automobiles, and thirty-eight conveyances containing representatives of that number of civic societies and clubs. This will in itself make quite an imposing display, to say nothing of the hundreds of citizens who will go in their own private conveyances, and it is also thought that several thousand persons will go afoot over the line of march, from Central Park to the Plaza, where they will take cars for Sycamore Grove. The carriages will assemble at Sixth and Olive streets, whence a good start can be made down Fifth street to Broadway, thence north to First, by First and Spring streets to the Plaza.

The occupants of the official carriages will be as follows: Mayor A. C. Harper and Mrs. Harper, Joseph Scott, Dr. E. J. Harper and Mrs. Harper, Mrs. W. Rodman and Mrs. Glass, J. M. Guinn and Mrs. Gertrude Parsons, Gen. Adna R. Chaffee and Mrs. Chaffee, Col. J. J. Steadman and Mrs. Steadman, Charles F. Lummis and Mrs. Lummis, George H. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, Prof. J. B. Millard and Mrs. Millard, Frank Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins, W. Scott Way and Mrs. Way, W. M. Humphreys and Mrs. Humphreys, J. M. Schneider and Mrs. Schneider, F. W. Blanchard and Mrs. Blanchard, J. A. Haskett and Mrs. Haskett, Owen McAleer and Mrs. McAleer, Elizabeth Benton Fremont and Elizabeth Grinnell, Walter Raymond and Dr. E. L. Conger, C. C. Bowen and Mrs. Bowen, Motley H. Flint and Mrs. Flint, the Board of Public Works and the City Council.

The following clubs and civic associations have signified their intention of taking part in the parade and planting one or more trees each in Sycamore Grove Park: Bartlett Logan Post, G.A.R.; Bartlett Logan Relief Corps; Uncle Sam Post, G.A.R.; Uncle Sam Relief Corps; Stanton Post, G.A.R.; Stanton Relief Corps; Kenesaw Post, G.A.R.; Kenesaw Relief Corps; Daughters of the Revolution, Knights and Ladies of Security, Political Equality League, Ebell Club, Wednesday Morning Club, Friday Morning Club, Highland Park Ebell Club, Los Angeles Humane Society, Municipal Art Commission, Congress of Mothers, Los Angeles Realty Board, Cosmos Club, Ruskin Art Club, Historical Society of Southern California, Sunset Club, Hundred-Year Club, Girls' Collegiate Club, Marlborough School Club, Galpin Shakespeare Club, Child-Study Circle Club, Civic Association, Robert E. Lee Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy; Los Angeles Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy; Wade Hampton Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy; La Esperanza Chapter, Native Daughters of the Golden West; Los Angeles Chapter, Native Daughters of Golden West; Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Sunshine Club, Westlake Equity Club, Los Angeles Suffrage Association.

Probably all the carriages will be decorated, as suggested by the Arbor Day Committee, and will make an unique display.

Arriving at Sycamore Grove, a platform meeting will be held, in charge of J. A. Haskett, president of the Arbor Day Association. A striking patriotic feature will be the singing of national songs by 100 students of the Polytechnic High School and the Los Angeles High School, under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude Parsons. Addresses will be delivered by the Mayor and by Joseph Scott, president of the Board of Education.

All persons wishing to go to the celebration in the electric cars can take the yellow Garvanza cars, or the Pacific Electric cars marked "Ostrich Farm," both lines going north on Main street.

SOUTH HOLLYWOOD.

WILL PLANT, BUT NOT SPOUT.

The members of the South Hollywood Improvement Association will also observe today as Arbor Day, and will plant a large number of trees on the thoroughfares in the neighborhood of Western and Santa Monica avenues. As an earnest of their desire to accomplish results of the most practical nature, they decided to have no speech-making but that they will plant at least 400 trees.

Charles O. Morgan, president of the association, will superintend the planting on Virginia and Santa Clara avenues; Mrs. S. P. Rhoades, Dr. L. P. Zahn, Mrs. M. M. Elkin, E. Sutherland and P. A. Finley will superintend the work on Monticello avenue, North Park avenue, and other streets. They will plant several varieties of acacia, California and Brazillian pepper, and Jacaranda trees.

LAUGHLESS JOKE.

POLITICS PROVES LOSING GAME.

UNPAID POLITICAL BILL BOBS UP IN COURTROOM.

Chairman of Democratic County Committee Says He'd Give Fifty Dollars to Keep Story Out of Newspapers—San Pedro One-Time Candidate for Senator Out of Pocket.

An unpaid political bill of $68, incurred by Bert Mackley, San Pedro saloon-keeper and regular Democratic candidate for State Senator in 1906, bobbed to the surface in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday, when Anthony Schwamm, chairman of the Democratic County Committee, sued for $66.75, due for cigars sold by him to Mackley. The plaintiff got judgment for his claim. If Mackley ever gets anything, it will have to come from the Democratic State Committee. However, Schwamm promised to help him collect from that body, though Mackley was not enthusiastic over the offer.

"Back in the fall of 1906, when Mr. Bell, Democratic candidate for Governor, visited San Pedro," said Mackley, "I got 'phone instructions from the Democratic headquarters in Los Angeles to attend to the entertainment of the party at San Pedro. I hired a steamer to take the guests out to the breakwater. I paid for the steamer and cocktails and other features of the entertainment, and Mr. Schwamm promised to allow my $68 bill. I have never been paid, but I have bought $98 worth of cigars from him, and, after deducting the amount of the San Pedro account, I figure that I owe him $18.75."

"I told Mackley that I would allow on his bill what I might be able to collect on assessments due, but even he still owes a $25 assessment," said Schwamm. "His money is properly due only from the Democratic State Committee. The County Committee owes nothing to any one. I can't mix my business bills with political accounts. I would give $50 rather than have this get into the newspapers."

MINES AND MINING.

WILL EXPOSE ALL FAKERS.

"The Times" Pursues Campaign of Eradication.

Los Angeles Now Has Unenviable Fraud Record.

Manhattan Camp Has Entered Producing Stage.

Realizing that the fair name of Los Angeles is imperiled and that the legitimate mining industry is compelled to suffer by the fraudulent methods of a certain class of mining promoters, The Times will pursue its campaign of eradication of this undesirable element, and, with that object in view, has brought the attention of the Federal authorities to the methods of a few men who have been exposed from time to time in these columns. The warfare will be carried into the enemy's camp, and it is believed that conditions will be radically improved when the present plans have been brought to fulfillment.

Certain lying prospectuses which have fallen into our hands have been, or will be, placed in possession of the postal inspectors, and assurance has been given that the matters will be thoroughly investigated, to the end that some of these rascals may be brought to justice as a deterrent to others in the same business. No man who is honest or is honestly endeavoring to obtain money for the development of legitimate mining property need fear this campaign of exposure, but the faker will get short shrift.

There is no more despicable class preying upon any community than these fellows who fasten themselves upon an honorable and profitable business. The laws upon the subject are very clear, and the tireless methods of Uncle Sam, when he once gets on the trail are sufficiently well known to insure the incarceration of some who are careless in their methods of promotion.

Los Angeles has today a most unenviable reputation among the large cities of the United States, statistics prepared at Washington showing that in six months of last year there were more fraud orders issued by the Postal Department than in any other city of the size. In fact, so deplorable is the present condition that this city's record for petty fraud is only surpassed by New York, Chicago and St. Louis. The force under the postal inspectors of this district has been entirely inadequate to the calls upon it, but additional help has recently been secured and the definite promise has been passed that an active campaign will now be inaugurated.

Every man in the legitimate mining business, every man who believes that the destiny of Los Angeles is bound up with the development of that business, is vitally interested in this matter and it is to be hoped that those who have knowledge of the operations of fakers will convey the information to the mining editor of this paper. The Times is in this fight to stay, and it believes that the result will be a noticeable improvement in the light in which the mining industry is now viewed by investors who have money to spare, but who have been deterred from mining by the machinations of fakers who should be in jail.

MANHATTAN PROSPEROUS.

J. Roger Brown, one of the well-known operators of Manhattan, who is now in the city, is authority for the statement that the Nevada camp is looking particularly well from a mining standpoint, and, while it has passed the first feverish stage of speculation, has entered the more prosperous and permanent era of production. According to the same authority, there are about 2000 people in the immediate district, and all lines of business are in a prosperous condition.

It will be remembered that the capital which went to develop the camp in the early stages of its life came almost entirely from San Francisco. At the height of the excitement the earthquake and fire occurred, and all avenues of finances for mining were suddenly closed. For a while thereafter the district struggled against great odds, but those most heavily interested had the necessary grit, and are now beginning to reap the reward of their faith.

At the present time there are three mills grinding out gold in the camp—the Manhattan Ore Reduction and Milling Company, operating ten stamps; the Manhattan Ore Purchasing Company, more generally known as the Lemon mill, also with ten stamps, and the Chapman-Moore Huntington mill, with fifty tons capacity. All these mills have cyaniding plants in conjunction. It has been found that the milling capacity is entirely inadequate to the camp's needs, and all three mills will be enlarged at once. Arrangements are now being perfected for the increase of the Lemon mill to thirty stamps, and the others will enlarge in like proportion. During February the Lemon plant produced $24,000 in gold, and it is believed that when the contemplated increase has been perfected the output from the camp will be between $80,000 and $100,000 a month.

Manhattan prides itself upon the fact that one bank never closed during the entire financial stringency, and never took advantage of the legal holidays proclaimed. Two banks, both branches of other concerns, were closed on orders from the head offices, but at all times there was plenty of cash on hand to pay off depositors in full.

Another feature which has brought credit to the district is the work accomplished by a public organization which reports upon all properties in the camp upon request, and has done a great deal toward eliminating the wildcatter and his works.

Mr. Brown is manager of the Independent Mining Company, operating three claims in the district. The main shaft has now reached the 225-foot level, and he is now ordering a twenty-five-horse-power gasoline hoist to facilitate deeper work. The order has been placed with a local house, and Brown has also opened an office with the idea of simplifynng the executive work. The opening of the Tonopah and Tidewater Railroad has brought the Northern Nevada camps into close touch with this city, and a great many operators find it to their advantage to establish headquarters here in preference to San Francisco.

Rush Still on.

Tom G. Murphy has just received a letter from his brother, Dan P. Murphy, the Nevada operator, who is now in Rawhide. He says that the present rush is the greatest in the history of the State and that it shows no signs of abatement at the time the letter was written a few days ago. Property is selling more rapidly than in the same stage of the Goldfield initial boom and new arrivals are coming in as fast as ever. Dan Murphy is known as a conservative mining man who has operated in all the principal camps in the State and who first opened up the Lone Star mine at Goldfield. He was one of the first men in Rhyolite and has since made that point his headquarters.

Rumored Johnnie Deal.

Rumors, which at this time lack definite confirmation, are to the effect that Manager Doubleday, who has been in the East for the past few weeks on business connected with the Johnnie mine, has about closed a deal which will place the property in excellent financial shape. Within the past week the stock, which has been dormant for some time, has shown signs of revival and has advanced in spite of a generally dull market. This seems to give some proof that there is something in the rumor though it is, as usual, impossible to obtain details of the company's plans—physical or financial.

Movements of Mining Men.

Arthur Weber, of the Atlanta and other prominent properties of Goldfield, left for the camp last night after spending several weeks with his family at the Hotel Leighton.

H. S. McCallum, president of the Hart Business League, left for the camp last night after spending several days spreading his propaganda. He remained over for one day to address the members of the Los Angeles Nevada Stock Exchange upon the advantages offered by Hart.

Mrs. J. D. Farrell, wife of E. H. Harriman's western representative, arrived in her private car yesterday from her home in Seattle. She is accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Treat of Chicago. Mr. Farrell will join the party Tuesday and will accompany them to Coronado for a few weeks' stay. Farrell was formerly western representative of James J. Hill, but resigned his position some years ago to join Harriman. Ten years ago he was heavily interested in mining in British Columbia and made an independent fortune out of the Idaho mine in the Slocan district. Trest was at one time interested in copper mines on Texada Island, near Vancouver, B. C., and was in control of the Van Anda mine.

Gov. Hughes has very little to say, which is another reason why he would make an ideal Vice-President.

The New York-to-Paris automobile racers may get as far as San Francisco before the trial of Abe Ruef begins.

It seems that no woman so far loses interest in herself as to allow herself to get fat without an effort to prevent it.

It will certainly be bad for those other baseball clubs when the White Sox go back all filled up with Los Angeles ginger.

The trouble with the man who is a high liver is that he is likely to wind up with a small liver that gets as hard as a rock.

One of the strange things yet to be explained in this world is why some men refuse to eat horse meat and willingly eat a pig.

It would not save the Democratic party to dump Bryan, but, Lord bless you, how much better it would make the old thing feel!

We must still be a race of bunglers when it is possible to burn up nearly all the children in a town when a schoolhouse takes fire.

It must be admitted that anarchists are at least consistent. Much as they respect Mr. Hearst, they refuse to be led by him into politics.

Sea air must be one of the most healthful things in the world. Otherwise there wouldn't be a sailor in Fighting Bob's fleet free of the gout.

Mr. Bryan appears to be slowly but surely doing to the Democratic party what Samson did to the Philistines with the same deadly weapon.

Although a liar may own a hole in the ground and call it a mine, that's no reason that people should fall all over themselves to buy stock in it.

If John A. Johnson were to receive the nomination, an old-fashioned Democrat could at least get into the middle of the street and let out a few yells.

Yesterday seems to have passed without any Taft delegates being elected, but we haven't been able to notice that any of the other fellows got any, either.

It should be clear to Mr. Bryan that the reason he is getting delegates is that the great mass of his party doesn't give a tinker's dam who gets them.

Announcement is made that Swinburne is about to write another poem. It is a great idea to always warn the public in advance in cases of this nature.

The snow was so deep in Minnesota yesterday that the friends of William J. Bryan had to dig tunnels through the drifts to find the remains of his boom.

The advance fashion notes indicate that women's sailor hats this summer will not be so wide but that two of them can occupy the sidewalk at the same time.

There will not be much difference in the platform of the two big parties this year. The Democrats have decided to get as near to Republican doctrines as possible.

We trust that the Democrats will nominate somebody for the Presidency who is worth beating. It will not be much honor to Mr. Taft to win over a mere hoodoo.

The breath of scandal is an awful thing, of course, but we believe we almost prefer it to the breath of a man who has been eating onions and smoking cigarettes.

Sometimes we think there is too much attention paid to the "man behind the gun." It is the poor devil who gets in front of the gun that we ought to reach out our hands to.

There are brave men still left in the world. Five or six Democrats in different parts of the country have come right out openly and have said they are against Bryan's nomination.

A scientist asserts that the soul is located under the fifth rib. He gives no reason why this should be so, but a scientist is a man who doesn't have to give a reason for anything.

There are a great many snakes in the region about Magdalena Bay, but the sailor men of the fleet will doubtless land there properly fortified with plenty of snake-bite cure.

The attention of people who assert that the courts are no longer just is called to the fact that a New York court sent a bank clerk to the insane asylum because he claimed that his salary was too large.

It is a little difficult to understand why women should make such strenuous efforts to emancipate themselves from man and that man doesn't even make a bluff at emancipating himself from woman.

We expect to hear very little more about the movement to exterminate anarchy from this country. All the anarchists need do is to lie low and keep quiet. We will forget about them in a week.

What with trying her grafters in court and endeavoring to keep the Knox boom from sagging in the middle, we are convinced that Pennsylvania is having about the hardest time of any State in the Union.

We are not afraid to predict that if John A. Johnson has the nerve to accept the invitation of [illegible] of his home State to go into the NAUSEATING, NAUSEATING!

The latest revelations concerning chicanery by the graft prosecution in San Francisco, in the course of frantic attempts to gratify personal grudges and carry out political schemes by railroading innocent men into the penitentiary, are the worst yet. They allege unspeakable and incredible viciousness and degradation on the part of officers of a court of law, sworn to promote justice between man and man. Abe Ruef, in his affidavit, unequivocally and in the most circumstantial manner declares that Heney, Langdon and Burns tried to purchase from him false and perjured testimony against Pat Calhoun, Gov. Gillett and other prominent men—that this proposed subornation of perjury was sought by Heney, Burns and Langdon, the officers of the law who made the immunity contract with Ruef, lied like Trojans about it for months, and then shamelessly admitted it.

The nastiness of this San Francisco mess makes one hold his hand to his nose and turn away from the revolting spectacle. But the whole truth must come out, and as The Times has repeatedly said, the whole truth will come out—and then there will be apologies coming from libelous partisans and yellow-dog newspapers. However, at this point The Times does not hesitate to say that, much as it distrusts and despises Heney—who made a disgusting immunity contract with Ruef, denied it day after day in the most fervid and emphatic of lying statements in press and on platform, and then unblushingly published it—The Times would not even convict this self-convicted and self-discredited Heney of any charge made by Abe Ruef, upon the unsupported testimony of Ruef himself, uncanny virtuoso in the worst arts of the devil that he is!

WHY TAFT SHOULD BE PRESIDENT.

The question, "Why Taft should be President," is answered in his public utterances as hereinafter quoted and in the endowments and qualifications hereinafter stated.

Speaking to L. K. Torbet, one of the Illinois Taft delegation, he said: "Torbet, I have kept out and will continue to keep out of every State which has a favorite son. I want my friends to heed that warning. I do not desire to go into Pennsylvania, New York or Illinois. Naturally, I should be pleased to have delegates for me for second choice."

Speaking at Buffalo on February 22: "We are, however, making our navy more and more respectable each year, and I am very hopeful that Congress will take steps which will make our army a proper nucleus for the rapid enlargement of a force for national defense commensurate with the population of our country and with the extent of our jurisdiction."

Speaking at Cleveland on January 29: "Theodore Roosevelt has been able to accomplish more in preservation of the peace of the world than any President that ever administered or any monarch that ever ruled. And that influence is the result of the policy of expansion adopted under William McKinley."

Speaking at Cooper Union, New York, on January 10: "Labor needs capital to secure the best production, while capital needs labor in producing anything. The share of each laborer in the joint product is affected not exactly, but in a general way, by the amount of capital to carry on the work there is to do, and the more work there is to do the more laborers are needed. The greater the need for laborers, the better their pay per man. Manifestly, it is in the direct interest of the laborer that capital shall increase faster than the number of those who work. Everything, therefore, which legitimately tends to increase the accumulation of wealth and its use for production will give each laborer a larger share of the joint result of capital and labor. It will be observed that the laborer derives little or no benefit at all from wealth which is not needed for production. Nothing is so likely to make wealth idle as insecurity of invested capital and property. It follows, as a necessary conclusion, that to destroy the guaranties of property is a direct blow at the interest of the workingman. What I am anxious to emphasize is that there is a wide economic and business field in which the interest of the wealthiest capitalist and the humblest laborer are exactly the same."

Speaking on board the steamship Minnesota of his official visit to the Vatican regarding the Philippine government purchase of the friars' lands in the Philippines: "I cannot doubt, from what I saw of him, that Leo XIII was the greatest Pope in many years. His statesmanship was undoubtedly of the highest type; he was a Latin poet of great purity and force, an Italian nobleman of fine education, and a man who controlled. Almost to the minute of his death he was the Pope in fact, the Pope in control, a Pope who carried out the policies of the church as he thought they ought to be carried out."

On the same occasion: "Every Roman Catholic who desires the greatest possible good for his community must admit the value of the presence of Protestants in the Philippines to foster and maintain that spirit of healthy competition which is as useful in religious enterprises as in the business and commercial life of a country."

"Government ownership would put power in the hands of one man or set of men that would make you tremble for the safety of the republic."

When urged, in October, 1902, by President Roosevelt to return from his worrying work in the Philippines for a seat for life on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, the highest judicial body in the world, Mr. Taft replied: "Great honor deeply appreciated, but must decline. Situation here most critical from economic standpoint. Change proposed would create much disappointment and lack of confidence among people. Nothing would satisfy individual tastes more than acceptance." Urged again by the President a month later, Mr. Taft replies: "Recognize soldier's duty to obey orders. Before orders irrevocable by action, however, I presume on our personal friendship, even in the face of letter, to make one more appeal, in which I lay aside wholly my strong personal disinclination to leave work of intense interest half done." This appeal, based solely on a strong sense of duty to the Filipinos, was successful, and Mr. Taft remained as civil Governor till the proper time came for him to return and enter the Cabinet as Secretary of War, with the home interests of the Philippines then, and still, in his personal charge.

With his determination that the will of the people shall have free expression; with his sound views of the relation of labor to capital and of capital to labor; with his expressed appreciation of the expansion of our national influence; with his impartial view of the claims and rights of both Catholics and Protestants in the Philippines; with his firm opinion that government ownership of railroads, etc., would be most unwise; with his clear realization of property rights; with his freely admitted qualifications by natural ability, training and experience, for the office; with his strong sense of duty at all times and in all positions; with his penetrating, judicial conception of the right or wrong of public questions; with his record of success in every place he has held as servant of the people; with his unflinching courage and his self-sacrificing patriotism; with his known abilities as a great lawyer, a just judge, an astute diplomat, and a strong, wise and tactful executive; with his absolutely unflinching rectitude on every point of public duty and willingness to bear responsibility; with his capacity to work hand in hand with his fellows; with his great, kind heart and noble manhood, and because he is an American of Americans, no man before the people of the United States is [illegible] than is William

"EVERY MAN TO HIS TRADE" NO LONGER.

THE FULL STOMACH.

"It once happened," said Menenius Agrippa, "that all the other members of a man mutinied against the stomach, which they accused as the only idle, uncontributing part in the whole body, while the rest were put to hardships and the expense of much labor to supply and minister to its appetites."

Just the same it is when the stomach is satisfied that the man is satisfied, not only with himself, but with the whole world. And that's why, moreover, that a lot of things that might happen will not, and also why many other things that ought not to happen, may. Strategy, spoils, revolutions, family quarrels, cynics, poets and other things and states of mind are all attributable to the stomach when it is empty and grinds against the membrane of its walls for want of what has frequently and eloquently been referred to as "a square meal."

The full stomach, however, is the safeguard of thrones and institutions. We are all Chinese in our natures. Give a Chinaman a couple of acres of ground and a hoe and he doesn't care a pinch of snuff whether it is Tsi An's chuckle-headed boy or Homer Lea who is Emperor of China. The man who puts on his slippers of an evening and lights his pipe by the fireside after a good supper is a hard man to coax out to a socialist meeting, or to any other kind of a meeting for that matter, unless he is a man who is naturally fond of minding other people's business instead of his own.

Following up this fascinating line of argument, we can't, therefore, as a logical conclusion, see that William J. Bryan has a ghost of a chance this year. Things are pretty well as they are. There are a lot of freight trains running every day, factory whistles are blowing regularly every morning, the banks are stuffed with money, and the song of the hammer and saw is heard in the land. It doesn't look good for W. J. B.

HEARST STRONG BOX IN DANGER.

By a process of exclusion the notorious Independence League gets down to one possible nominee for the Presidency. Who would that be but the imperious, if not peerless, Hearst? This looks like a new raid on the strong box where the Hearst millions lie.

Eight years ago money was poured out like water from both spigot and bung, in a fond, foolish and futile attempt of William Randolph Hearst to break into the Presidency under the guise of the only pure friend of the over "dear peepul." The money went week by week from early June to about September, when the purse strings were drawn taut as the mainstay in a squall, and so there was an end of that. Then came the attempt upon the mayoralty in New York City, and still later that on the Governor's office in Albany. All fond, foolish and futile ambitions, doing little except deplete the treasury. The big mines and ranches make money at a great pace, and no doubt the strong box is bulging again. In the nick of time comes a national campaign and the league is hungry.

THE PROFESSOR'S SAFETY VALVE.

Professors are lucky people. When bursting with a new idea they always find a safety valve handy in the shape of a newspaper which spreads the brilliant production of their brain over an unoffending mass of white paper. It in the cold, gray dawn of the morning after, and in cold, black type, the idea does not appear so rosy-hued as it did under the influence of the night before, all the professor has to do is to state that he was incorrectly reported. The world does not believe him, but he "saves his face."

A year or two ago a learned gentleman introduced us to his get-dead-quick scheme, but when he found that it did not take as readily as vaccination he hastened to belabor the newspaper men. And now trots along on the same old track Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture. He is the gentleman who objects to the use of microscopical quantities of sulphur in the preservation of California fruit, but he is getting rid of vast quantities of sulphurous language now because a reporter quoted him as saying that "the man who never takes a drink is a molly-coddle." The doctor is indulging in a tongue storm.

We are told by that most veracious source of news, the Associated Press, which prides itself on never exaggerating, that the expounder of agricultural chemistry and the source of many pamphlets makes a "vigorous denial." He certainly does; in fact, he protests too much. We are glad, however, to welcome Dr. Wiley back to the path of righteousness after having been tempted of the devil. It looks as if the doctor was, for a brief moment, taken into a high place and there saw visions and dreamed dreams which, when he returned to earth, he could not officially countenance.

Not for a moment would we doubt his assertion that the reports of the statements he is alleged to have made are "wholly unwarranted by the facts."

the safety valve furnished by a distinguished member of a distinguished profession. Yet, in the characters of guide and friend, we would in all kindness urge Dr. Wiley to keep a curb on his tongue, for talk cometh before a fall, and on some other occasion we may not be in the mood to lift the learned gentleman up and hoist him to safety over the stile he himself raised as an impediment to his own advancement. Dr. Wiley insists that he is "in the ordinary, a prohibitionist." He seems to have had an out-of-the-ordinary, an extraordinary, session at which he forgot to prohibit his tongue from foolish speaking. An unruly member between the teeth is as bad a customer as a perpetual drouth in the throat. If Dr. Wiley will bear this in mind we will inter his mollycoddle talk along with the Osler theory.

GUARANTEEING DEPOSITS.

One of the half-baked politicians in San Francisco wants the deposits in banks guaranteed by the State, after the Oklahoma, Populist, new-light fashion.

If the State does this, then it puts a premium on dishonesty and on incompetency. By such a law the bank with $200,000 capital and 25 per cent. of its deposits in available cash (the other 75 per cent. loaned out on inadequate securities) is just as good as a bank with $10,000,000 capital and 50 per cent. of its deposits in available cash, the other half loaned on good security to the most conservative and prosperous merchants in a city. It is direct Populism, the notion that the poor, slow botch of a workman shall get the same pay for his poor services that the best-skilled receive.

If you guarantee the debts of the bank, why not do so for its credits, too? If you guarantee money loaned to a bank, why not the accounts of the grocer? So you begin with a half-conceived notion, and the first thing you know you are on the high road to straight-out socialism. An insurance of deposits might well be devised, but a State guarantee is a dangerous experiment.

Congressman Hill, in a recent speech in the House of Representatives on this subject, is quoted as follows:

"Seventy-five to ninety per cent. of the commercial deposits of the country are the results of discounts of commercial paper, accommodation paper and collateral paper entered upon the books of the banks to the credit of the men who present the notes. These men have simply exchanged their credit for the bank's credit. That is all there is of the transactions. They are business transactions for which full consideration has mutually been given. Now then, who would say that the government should step in and guarantee one party to the transaction and not the other? Why protect the book credit given to the customer and leave the note credit of the bank unprotected? If the notes are all paid, there would be no trouble about paying the deposits." He conceived of conditions where a government guarantee of such deposits after the notes were discounted would be practically equivalent to a government indorsement of the notes before they were discounted, and he declared that a government guarantee of bank deposits in this country would open an era of the wildest speculation that was ever seen. "Why enter upon such an experiment when any depositor can insure his own deposits in existing insurance companies as he insures his life and property and may insure his ledger accounts in his other business transactions?"

POSTOFFICE SAVINGS BANKS AND SAVINGS.

Advocating the establishment of postal savings banks, one person points to France, where these institutions exist, as having the most forehanded people in the world, and argues that this is a case of cause and effect.

The logic is not clear. Post hoc and propter hoc are very different things, but often confused in some people's minds.

The French are the most provident of people and therefore the most forehanded. They would practice strict economy if there were no banks of any kind. Many of them do their banking in a stocking, and there is always money in that bank. It is inbred in the people to be saving.

We do not say that the postal banks do not encourage the habit, nor argue that they might not be established here. But the man who thinks their presence will make our people as provident as the French is not reasoning clearly.

Manufacturing and Lumber Company, which employs 200 men, has been a leader in the "open shop" fight.

Work is picking up in these mills and nearly all are taking on workmen who rarely thrown out of employment. Several large contracts are in sight and there is a prospect that, within a short time, all competent men will have work.

Cravenette Coats $10

From yesterday's sale of high-grade cravenette coats for women, there are left a few which will be on sale again today at the one price of ten dollars. Every one worth more.

Combination Undermuslins

Among particular women—and every woman is particular when it comes to the question of undergarments—the combination suit is gaining in favor every day.

You may buy these garments in two or three-piece combinations—corset cover and drawers, or corset cover, skirt and drawers—all attached to one band, avoiding clumsy fullness and uncertain drawstrings about the waist.

Then each garment is trimmed alike, and made of material of the same quality, which is a decided point in their favor.

Women traveling appreciate them because of the little bulk they occupy.

We sell the products of five different houses, and no store hereabouts begins to show the different varieties and styles that we do. Your inspection is invited; we shall be very glad to answer all inquiries regarding these latest evolutions of lingerie.

Silk Remnants Half

Whenever this store advertises a sale of remnant lengths of silk, there is eager and spirited response, for every woman knows what high grade silks we invariably carry in stock; and knows, too, that every piece offered is fresh and new and stylish.

Half price today for remnants of pongees, satins, Japanese silks, taffetas, louisines, punjabs, crapes, some black and some white; in plain colors, checks and stripes.

No length less than a yard and a half; some as long as ten yards; a good assortment, for early comers.

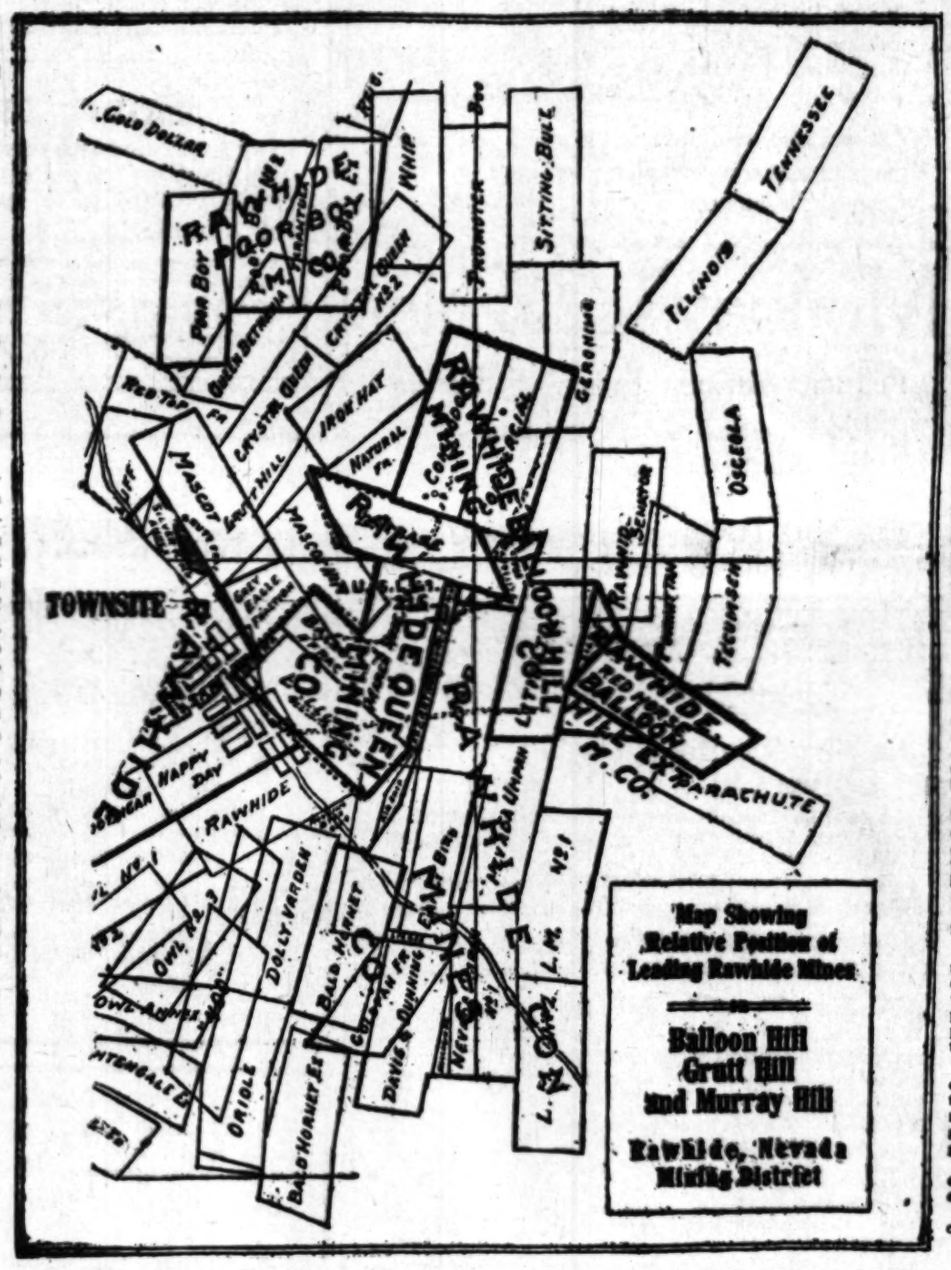
Property Owned by the Rawhide Balloon Hill Mining Company

Litigator Lode Mining Claim
Litigator Fraction Lode Claim
Commercial Lode Mining Claim
Commodore Lode Mining Claim

A compact group of 65 acres. Adjoins ground of Rawhide Queen Mining Company and Rawhide Consolidated Mines Company. Shares of both selling above par. Six feet of $300 ore opened up in Queen Mine adjoining. Workings of Kearns Lease and Murray Lease, the two bonanza producers of the camp, within 900 feet of Litigator Claim of this group. A vein of ore is opened on the Litigator Claim that is pronounced by engineers the truest fissure in the entire camp, bar none. Property now under active development. Assays from $17 to $60 readily obtained from company's workings in shallow shaft. Vein 6 to 10 feet wide. Ground believed to be as choice as any in the district. Is strictly "inside" territory. Occupies the same relative position to the Queen and Consolidated properties as do the Florence and Combination to the Mohawk of Goldfield. Under the mine management of J. G. Flynn, who opened up the bonanza Mohawk vein for the MOHAWK MINING COMPANY of Goldfield, that has produced millions, and later became manager of the Combination mine and mill of Goldfield, the steadiest producer and dividend-payer of the district. An early sensational production may be looked for.



Report of Mine Manag and Consulting Engineer

To the President and Directors of the Balloon Hill Mining Co.:

In pursuance of your request, I hereby submit a report of the Balloon Hill mining property.

CLAIMS—The property consists of three full claims and tion, namely, the Litigator, Commodore, Commercial and Litig tion, the total acreage being 72 acres.

LOCATION—The property is located on the northeast sl loon Hill, in the Rawhide Mining District. It adjoins the ho solidated Mines Company on the south, the Balloon and Ballo and the March Rose on the west, the Crystal group on the nort Rawhide Reward on the east.

WORK DONE—A shaft is being sunk on the Litigator C is now down to a depth of about 20 feet, and I have been doing ing work and trenching on the surface of the Commodore and mercial preparatory to sinking a working shaft to develop that On the Balloon, March Rose and Balloon Fraction there are working and of these 18 there are 10 that are in ore of a These are on veins that are running into the property of the Mining Company. On the Bird claim of the Rawhide Co joining your property on the north, there are 16 leases, in famous Murray lease. This lease is within 600 feet of the stunk on the Litigator claim, and is in ore clear across the ning $300 to the ton. The Kearns lease on the Balloon claim down 80 feet and they are now crosscutting the ledge and of ore of a very high grade, and have not yet reached above stated the shaft on the Litigator claim is down 20 feet, says taken from time to time run from $14 to $60, taken clear vein.

GEOLOGY—The country is porphyry and rhyolite, with terms of veins crosscutting the formation. The vein material andesite and dacite. The vein so far opened on your Kearns vein, striking in an easterly and westerly direction, across the Balloon claim, the March Rose, the D. and B. claims a distance of 2000 feet. Parallel to this is the Bird can be traced for nearly the same distance and goes across of the Litigator claim, and striking in a northerly and is the main contact vein, which is a contact between the rhyolite, and traverses lengthwise of the March Rose, line of the Balloon, crosses the side lines of the Balloon on through the Commodore claim. This vein is opened by on the Balloon and March Rose claims. Parallel to this feet from it is the Pike vein. This strikes lengthwise Rose and Missouri Fraction, crosses north through the and Commercial claim, and is opened up by 6 leases on Missouri Fraction, and is one of the most prominent in the district.

VALUES—As above stated, in the shaft of the Litigator assays run from $14 to $60, and very rich pieces of over the surface. Pannings taken from the outcrop of which traverses the Commercial and Litigator Fraction, pannings in free gold, and I am expecting to have satisfactory pecting done in a few days to locate an ore-shoot in this tact vein has been unexplored, but is very likely looking.

RECOMMENDATIONS—Since I have been in camp, I ceived many applications for leases on your property, and the survey into blocks of 300 feet each, and leasing alternate method will insure you a thorough and complete prospecting ground, and at the same time you will have the major part ground developed and intact at the expiration of the lease.

I would further advise a continuance of the shaft on the claim and the installation as soon as possible of a power hoist equipment necessary to economical mining.

In conclusion, I consider your property one of the best camp, and the surface showing is very encouraging.

Respectfully submitted,
J. G. FLYNN.

ERIOUSLY TALK ARROYO PARK.

AN FOR A GREAT BEAUTY SPOT THERE.

Pasadena Project Receives Attention from the Park Commission of That City—Elks Pay Impressive Honor to Memory of a Member Suddenly Stricken by Death.

[Staff of The Times, No. 36 S. Raymond Ave.]

PASADENA, March 7.—Plans were taken up seriously last night to develop one of the finest parks in the world along the Arroyo Seco. Now that the city definitely contemplates the purchase of the water-bearing lands belonging to the three water companies, the municipality will own the nucleus of this park system, which will stretch from the snow line to the perpetual verdure of the Busch gardens. Adolphus Busch is willing to make a gift to the city of his splendid gardens in the arroyo. Therefore the Park Commission has begun to sit up and take notice. At the meeting last night were present R. Schiffman, the chairman, Mayor Thomas Earley, Dr. J. H. McBride, Lon V. Chapin, E. H. Lockwood, F. G. Quickshank and H. R. Hertel. The commission expects to induce property owners from the south line of the water-bearing lands and within the city limits to make gifts to the city of the lands needed. The whole area can then be improved with driveways, resting nooks and everything necessary for a park miles long and walled in by one of the most beautiful cañons in the world. Oranges will bloom at its southern extremity, and it might be possible to cultivate the edelweiss on the northern slopes.

WANT PURE MILK.

Some talk has been heard to the effect that the city might be induced to abandon its tuberculin tests of dairy cows and modify its present stringent regulations of the domestic milk industry. Fearing that this might be effected, the local medical association at its last meeting adopted strong resolutions in favor of the tuberculin test and the continued supervision of dairies by Inspector C. F. Huddleston and Veterinary C. W. Barrett. It is claimed by the medicos that this inspection annually saves numerous lives and is one of the best safeguards of the community against tuberculosis. Inspector Huddleston yesterday warned several dairymen that no further laxity would be permitted in the conduct of their places. He says that unless several of them are improved, arrests will follow.

PROMINENT ELK DIES.

While his brethren were making merry at a smoker last night, word was brought to Elks' Hall that J. Edwin Neis was suddenly stricken and was at the point of death. The announcement was made by former Mayor Mark Weight. With one accord the Elks arose and sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and then, without motion or suggestion, filed from the room, leaving all the merriment of the evening, which had just reached its height. Yesterday, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, word went through the city that Mr. Neis had died. He was one of the most beloved men of this community, 54 years old, born in Naperville, Ill. He leaves a father, mother and brother, who live at No. 301 North Raymond avenue.

NOTED ATTORNEY ARRIVES.

Quartered at the Hotel Maryland is L. H. Clapp, chief attorney for the Weyerhauser interests. His arrival makes a trio of interesting people whose present home is this hotel. J. W. Lusk, banker for Mr. Weyerhauser, and president of the German-American National Bank of St. Paul, Virgil P. Cline, his brother-in-law, of Cleveland, and Mr. Clapp are notable. There is much gossip concerning the appearance of these three men, and a coterie of a dozen or more bankers at the Maryland. It has been intimated in certain quarters that these men are discussing campaigns for the coming summer, but most of them are old sojourners at the Maryland, and the others have been induced to come there because their brethren gave such glowing accounts of this climate. Mr. Kline is at present luring the tuna to his bait, but will be back at the hotel within a few days.

PROVIDE FOR PUPILS.

At the meeting of the Board of Education yesterday, the members took notice of the recent horror in the school near Cleveland, O., where nearly 200 children were burned or crushed to death. The directors issued a statement showing why the voters next Friday should give the schools the $150,000 so urgently asked. They point to the fact that many of the grammar schools are already overcrowded, and that the High School is simply packed. This bond election is for the purpose of enlarging the grammar school space. The board shows that the attendance at the schools is increasing about 300 pupils per year, and that the best way to avoid all possibility of a recurrence of the terrible disaster is to vote those bonds now and give the board means to safeguard the interests of the pupils.

GIVES BRIDGE PARTY.

Miss Marjorie Ward, daughter of Montgomery Ward of Chicago, gave a delightful bridge party last night at the Hotel Green. Twelve tables were set for the players. The prizes were numerous and elegant. The guests were invited almost entirely from the sojourners at the hotel.

AFTERNOON MUSICALE.

One of the largest and most delightful musicales of the winter was that given yesterday afternoon at Scripps' Hall, Altadena, by Mrs. William A. Scripps and Mrs. Garrett Newkirk. Two hundred invitations were issued, and the music-room, drawing-room and library were provided with chairs to seat the guests. Golden acacia was used in decoration, and the color scheme was accentuated by a generous display of jonquils arranged everywhere in baskets and vases. The first number on the programme was a violin solo, by Miss Madeline Winthrop Barnes, who was followed by Mrs. Ellis, who, accompanied by Mrs. Revel English at the piano, gave several solos, which were encored. Miss Margaret Stewart contributed readings in lighter vein, and Mrs. Kellogg gave a closing number on the chamber organ in the music hall. An elaborate collation was served in the dining-room later, where the decorations were yellow daffodils and yellow table accessories. Among the unbonneted women assisting were Mmes. Robert J. Burdette, Norman Bridge, George W. Stimson, A. Moss Merwin, Newhall Hayden, H. K. Macomber, F. R. Kellogg, H. B. Stehman, J. J. Mansar, I. C. Goodridge, Misses Pierce, Stehman, Stimson and Cameron.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. H. H. Goodrich of South Pasadena entertained yesterday afternoon with a five-hundred party, complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Isaac Ross of Cohoes, N. Y. Ten tables were arranged for the games. Mrs. Goodrich was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Early entertained yesterday with an elaborate luncheon given at their home on South Marengo avenue, for twenty-four out-of-town guests. Before the luncheon, Mrs. William Douglas Turner gave a reading. The guests were seated at small tables, which were ornamented with jonquils and violets, and the centertable, which was adorned in the same manner, was presided over by Misses Kate Smith, Alice Early, Ruth Hancock and Mrs. Lucy Call.

Mrs. W. J. Williams gave a dance last evening at her home on Madeline Drive in honor of her niece, Miss Sallie Dexter, who is to leave soon for her home in New York. The ballroom was decorated with acacia and ferns, and a collation was served in an interval in the dancing. Those participating were Misses Woodward, Alice and June Chapin, Browning, Salmon, Seargent, Gould, Fleicher, Mr. and Mrs. Ned L. Chapin, Messrs. Patterson, Barnum, Weicht, Wood, Lynch, White, Briggs, Parson, Deering, Dr. McNiel and Dr. Keller.

STORM TAKES PILES.

Raft Bound from San Diego to Long Beach Goes to Pieces in the Heavy Seas.

LONG BEACH, March 6.—Floating on the ocean or dashed upon the beach between this city and San Diego are sixty-eight 60-foot piling valued at $1000, consigned to the Mercereau Construction Company, and intended for repairs on the pier. The steamer McKinley, Capt. L. B. Rhodimer, left San Diego Wednesday with a raft of seventy-six 60-foot piles, and one 90 feet long, intended for the Craig ship plant. The steamer arrived here with just eight. Capt. Rhodimer and his crew were all but exhausted when they arrived, and say it was one of the hardest trips ever made. Soon after leaving San Diego a heavy wind came up, roughening the sea, and the chains holding the raft began to break. The men reeved them, but they broke again, and the use of ropes proved of no value. Late Wednesday night twenty-four broke away in a bunch at La Jolla, and again off Las Flores and Oceanside there were further breaks. Two of the crew fell overboard, and were rescued with difficulty. Through the night the battle with the sea continued, and yesterday but a fragment of the raft was left. These the McKinley safely moored off the pier last night and early this morning a launch in charge of Gib McGarvin started down the coast looking for the missing timbers. McGarvin thinks all will be recovered.

SEASHORE BRIEFS.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, President Hatch announced the following additional eighteen directors, who, with the seven previously appointed, will constitute the Working Committee of the organization: G. A. Mohrenstecher, F. M. Cates, A. C. Malone, C. G. Greene, George C. Flint, R. H. Young, J. J. Morgan, N. H. Nielson, Jean G. Drake, S. A. Schilling, C. L. Day, F. C. Roberts, E. C. Denio, W. H. Wallace, W. J. Morrison, Dr. B. W. Scheurer, J. W. Hand and E. F. Davis. Jotham Bixby was elected an honorary director in recognition of his donation of permanent quarters for the chamber. The annual banquet will be held at Hotel Virginia on the night of April 2.

A big red touring car, occupied by two ladies and the chauffeur, raced down Pine avenue this morning, causing a general scattering of vehicles and pedestrians. The auto turned east on Ocean avenue on one wheel. Patrolman Borden secured the number of the machine and found it belonged to Ed Meyers, the Goldfield millionaire, and later arrested the chauffeur, B. C. Madden, who was fined $20 for violation of the speed ordinance.

R. E. Fisher today sold his residence on Park Circle and Loma Vista Drive to L. D. Parker for $10,000. The property is 100x180 feet. The new owner will move the present house to the rear and erect a modern home at a cost of $20,000.

School Superintendent Graham has ordered that hereafter the school fire drills shall take place weekly. He also ordered an inspection of all buildings and the removal of all articles of an inflammable nature. President Craig of the Board of Public Works and Fire Chief Shrewsbury this morning visited all the public school buildings and found there was need of several changes in the hanging of the doors. Superintendent Graham promised to have the matter given immediate attention.

A heavy shower of rain last night and this morning added .20 inch to the season's total, which is now 9.49 inches.

The Whittier College Glee Club gave a concert in the Auditorium here tonight. The hall was well filled, and every number encored. One of the features of the entertainment was the piano solo work of Bartley Wade. Mr. Wade's execution and technique is excellent, and his efforts won for him the approval of his audience. The concert was one of the most successful given here in some time.

Body of Man Missing from Avalon Is Recovered Under Great Difficulties.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AVALON (Catalina Island) March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch by United States Wireless Telegraph Company.] The body of the missing L. L. Watson was removed today from the precipitous ledge where it was found yesterday. H. Stoughton and the Farnsworth brothers accomplished the task by using 1800 feet of rope. Exceeding difficulties had to be overcome in making the descent from the edge of the cliff to where the corpse lay.

Word has been received here that Watson's brother will arrive in Los Angeles today.

SUICIDE IDENTIFIED.

Man Who Took His Life in San Pedro Proves to Have Been a Santa Fe Employee.

SAN PEDRO, March 6.—Some time last night W. E. Shauck committed suicide in the Plaza, near the Carnegie library by firing a bullet into his head through the right temple. The body was discovered about 7 o'clock this morning by Henry Carese, after having lain all night in the rain. A shot was heard by persons living near the park shortly before 10 o'clock last night. A 32-caliber Iver Johnson revolver, with one chamber discharged, was found near the body.

M. C. Onerdonk of Los Angeles reported to the police that he had found the body of a man floating in the ocean near the Pacific Electric Railway's pier, and that he had identified the body as that of W. E. Shauck, who had been employed by the Santa Fé. He had been staying at the Avon lodging-house, near the Santa Fé depot, in Los Angeles.

An inquest was held this afternoon, and a verdict of death by suicide rendered.

QUICKLY GET OUT.

In order to prevent a similar horror to that which occurred at Collinwood, O., in case of fire, all the schools of this city are having regular fire drills. Today the Sixteenth-street school, containing 250 pupils in a two-story building, was emptied in forty-five seconds, the Fifth-street school, with the same number, in thirty seconds, and the Barton Hill school, with 100 girls and boys, in fifty seconds. The large two-story High School building, with 160 students, was emptied in 110 seconds. The drills will be held regularly under orders issued by the Board of Education.

Capt. Durkee, master of the British ship, Howard D. Troop, has announced his intention to renounce allegiance to King Edward and become a subject of Uncle Sam.

OCEAN PARK.

OCEAN PARK, March 6.—For the purpose of having an accurate check against organization and false registration, a complete unofficial census of the voting population of this city is now being taken. It is to give the home address of every man who will be legally entitled to vote at the April election, as it will be a directory of the city up to the thirtieth day before the election. The census is being taken in the interest of the purification of politics and to guard against a repetition of the disincorporation election, following which there were more than two dozen indictments on charges of illegal registration.

In the past few weeks there have been numerous cases of whooping cough among children along the beach. Attendance at the public schools was reduced not a little, but the epidemic has practically run its course, and there have been no new cases reported for several days. The malady was of light form, and, aside from temporary inconvenience, no injurious results attended the affliction.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, March 6.—A "blind pig" of the Japanese variety was captured by the police last night. The offender was S. Takahata, who conducts the Japanese tea garden at the corner of Pier avenue and Trolley-way. With the accused were taken a half-dozen bottles of American beer which he is charged with having had in stock and which he was selling to those who were athirst. Takahata had neglected to procure a license from the city for selling liquor and will be tried Monday before Police Judge Carrillo. Although this is the third report of this class that has been suppressed here during recent weeks it is the first arrest of the kind among the Japanese colony.

The defeat of the $50,000 school bond issue yesterday leaves South Santa Monica's 500 children of school age without school facilities. The announced purpose of the Board of Education is to call another election without delay. The people will be asked this time to vote a bond issue of $30,000 to build a brick house of ten or a dozen rooms on the site of the Washington building. It is the general belief that there would be little or no opposition to a bond issue of this size for the purpose named.

VENICE.

VENICE, March 6.—For the first time in the history of this beach a concerted action has been had relative to the observance of Arbor Day. The exercises will open at 10 o'clock and will be participated in by the Venice Chamber of Commerce, Santa Monica Board of Trade, Civic League, Country Club, Crescent Bay Club, Eastern Star, Elks, Knights of Pythias, Knights of Columbus, Life Saving Corps, Eagles, Odd Fellows, Red Men, Pick and Shovel Club, Sunshine Society and the Villa Sunday-school.

Abbot Kinney will act as master of ceremonies and a large number of trees, shrubs and flowers will be planted in the canal section of Venice.

WHITTIER WELCOMES.

Extends Greeting to County Convention of the Christian Endeavorers.

WHITTIER, March 6.—This city is in the hands of the Christian Endeavorers, hundreds of these young people having gathered here for their annual county convention. The first session was held this afternoon, at Friends Church, and was largely attended by local church workers as well as by visitors. President Grey M. Skidmore of the County Union presided; Dr. Alexander McGregor of Plymouth Congregational Church delivered an address of welcome and Leonard Merrill responded for the visitors. Giles Kellogg spoke on "Floating C. E.," and Rev. J. Cronenberger spoke on "The Church and Our Young People." A pleasant feature of the opening day's services was a banquet at which all the delegates from the county were guests.

The sessions will continue this evening and tomorrow, closing with a consecration service on Saturday evening. The local Endeavorers have been as busy as a swarm of bees in preparing for the gathering, which will be the biggest convention they have ever handled. They have found places of entertainment for all the delegates, have made very complete arrangements for their comfort, and have overseen the decoration of the city with palms and bunting. Many auto rides are also planned for the entertainment of the visitors, many of whom have never before visited this city.

FORTY-NINE BARRED OUT.

Hot Contest for Control of Directors of the Sierra Madre Public Library.

SIERRA MADRE, March 6.—The election of a new board of directors of the Public Library, called for Wednesday night, has been postponed until April 3. The meeting held on Wednesday night was an animated one. The Women's Club, which is opposed to the present management, had a bunch of proxies and many new members, but the new members had not paid their fee for membership early enough, and forty-nine were barred from voting. The question of a juvenile department was the main topic discussed. Opinion is much divided on this, and the present management have been upheld by the more conservative and literary element.

FOOTHILL CITY NOTES.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt rally, booked for Thursday night, did not take place. The Lincoln-Roosevelt Club assembled in the Town Hall and held an informal meeting until long after banded without the looked-for gathering.

What might have proved a serious accident occurred at the terminous of the Pacific Electric Railway's property, when a belated passenger in crossing the bridge, which consists of four heavy planks without any guard rail, made a misstep and fell into the gully, a distance of five or six feet. Owing to the gully containing a lot of tree branches and other rubbish, no injuries were sustained. The City Trustees have called attention to this, but no measures have been taken for the safety of the public, and either the city or the railroad may some day have a damage suit to contest.

It is reported that Marshal Caley will not make the race for reelection, and the friends of F. C. Lehmer are urging him to announce his candidacy for this place. It carries with it the office of pound master, tax collector, assistant custodian of the records, and numerous other titles, but is far from being a sinecure.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Hawxhurst are putting the finishing touches on an act with which they intend to cover the vaudeville circuit.

Jack Stevenson, manager of the Waldo Ward orange groves, has been appointed a deputy city marshal.

Statement About Another Trolley Line to Los Angeles at Glendale Meeting.

GLENDALE, March 6.—There was a meeting held last night in the City Hall, called in order that the committee having the matter in charge might explain the long delay in the building of the new electric line from Los Angeles. Some of the taxpayers, impatient at the delay, wished to withdraw their share of the bonus money. It was stated that the road will be commenced, in all probability, upon the return of H. E. Huntington from the East.

POMONA.

POMONA, March 6.—City Attorney Joos has completed work upon the new health and milk ordinances, which will be presented to the City Trustees for passage next Tuesday. Both ordinances are stringent and protective, the one regulating the dealing in and sale of milk being patterned largely after the ordinance now in operation in Pasadena. The health ordinace has been drawn up with the coöperation of local physicians to meet local conditions.

The city teams are now at work grading and surfacing East Holt avenue from the reservoir to the San Bernardino county line, putting the thoroughfare in the same well-graded condition as San Antonio and Cucamonga avenues.

Happy Speeches at Banquet of Southern California Association of Michigan College.

The annual banquet of the Southern California Association of Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich., was held last evening in the Federation Café. Dr. Charles Lee King, president, acted as toastmaster.

Hon. L. M. Holt, one of the first members to come to Southern California, discoursed on the early settlers in this section of the State. Mrs. J. F. Withrow took the part of the late-comers, and said it was better to have arrived late than not to have arrived at all.

The view of the tourist was fully explained by Mrs. Celia A. Squier of Rockford, Ill., and Dalas Boudeman of Kalamazoo, Mich., both visitors here for the first time.

Other speakers were Prof. Jay B. Mills, Judge M. A. Luce of San Diego, S. L. Lent, Dr. A. W. Adkinson, president of the M. E. conference of this city, and Dr. L. N. Rowell. About sixty people attended.

POLICE GUARD FUNERAL.

But no Demonstration Is Made Against Janitor Who Lost Three Children In Fire.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND (O.) March 6.—Funeral processions today began to wend their way toward the cemeteries, bearing the battered and charred bodies of some of the 167 children who perished in Wednesday morning's fire, in the Lakeview school, Collinwood. From 9 o'clock in the morning until dark there was no cessation in the funeral corteges. Those who had no dead to mourn as a personal loss stood by in the streets with bared heads as the grim procession passed.

One of the saddest funerals was that of the three children of Janitor Hirter, held jointly with the services for three other little ones. Mutterings against the janitor could be heard about the village as grief-crazed parents sought an object upon which to wreak vengeance, forgetting, as they did, that Hirter himself was walking with bowed head and broken heart behind the bodies of three of his beloved. A detail of police was placed about the Hirter home when the hour for the funeral came. Fully 500 persons had gathered, but when the coffins were carried to the doorway the crowd spread and opened the way for them without protest or expression of

BIG IRRIGATION PROJECT ON.

Plan to Reclaim Gila River Reservation Lands.

To Be Supplied With Water from Many Wells.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) March 4.—W. H. Code, chief engineer for the Indian Service, has been here for several days, coming from Los Angeles to confer with Engineer-in-Charge L. C. Hill over the irrigation of a tract of 10,000 acres on the Gila River Reservation. This tract is to be supplied with water by means of fifteen wells, the power for pumping to be from the Roosevelt dam, on Salt River, or from other power works projected by the Reclamation Service.

To this water supply will be added that secured by a large canal, heading at an available dam site on the Gila above Sacaton, designed to irrigate the Indian lands during the winters, when the Gila rarely fails to carry water. Between the canal and the wells the Pimas and Maricopas will absolutely be assured of an ample water supply and are expected to become even wealthy from the product of their lands. Both tribes are skillful farmers, usually limiting themselves, however, to the production of wheat, corn and pumpkins, although a few fields of alfalfa have been seeded.

Curiously enough, a small faction on the reservation is opposed to the idea of securing water by pumping, alleging that the pumped water is destructive to vegetation. This is declared nonsense by Reclamation Service officials. The well water is of excellent quality, possibly even better than that found in the wells around Phoenix.

North of the reservation, and southeast of Mesa, a large number of land locations have been made in what is known as Queen Creek Wash, where good crops of grain have been harvested the past season, on what has been called desert land, with no watering save that of the scant rainfall and of the overflow of Queen Creek, flooding the grain fields in satisfactory manner. The settlers have formed a small irrigation district organization and are investigating the cost of damming Queen Creek Cañon at a point fifteen miles above their fields, where the stream passes out of the Superstition Mountains. Bedrock is on the surface, and by a comparatively cheap dam water can be backed into a reservoir eight miles in length, giving assurance for the irrigation of fifty quarter sections of land that will not be reached by the water stored in Tonto Basin.

PROGRESS AT ROOSEVELT.

Little impeded by floods, work has been progressing well during February on the great dam at Roosevelt. The upper face, except in the channel left for the passage of water, has been brought to forty feet height above datum, and the down-stream face to twenty-five feet of elevation. The use of the service tunnel for carrying the river flow has been cut out for awhile, as the Llewellyn Iron Works of Los Angeles is installing gates, a task that will take a couple of months. When the gates are in, the tunnel will be used while the lower part of the dam is worked upon. From that time on, the existence of the town of Roosevelt will be in danger, as ten feet added depth to the water above the dam will mean the backing of water up among the houses, a contingency likely to happen whenever the tunnel is unable to carry the waters of the stream.

April 7 will be held the annual meeting of the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association, for the election of administrative officers and of members of the board of governors and of the council. There appears to be no opposition to the re-election of B. A. Fowler as president.

GRANT'S CHANCES.

Jesse R. Grant of San Diego is gunning after the Democratic Presidential nomination. As a beginning, he would like to be honored with the vote of the Arizona delegates. In a letter addressed to a friend, he states: "I should like very much to have the Arizona delegation to Denver propose my name as nominee for the Presidency. I have written to several old friends in Arizona on this same subject, and write to you to find out if it would be convenient and agreeable to aid. If Mr. Bryan does not get the nomination in the first few ballots, my chance to secure the nomination will be about as good as that of any one." Mr. Grant for years preferred to be known as a resident of Arizona, having his headquarters at Nogales, from which point he operated mines in Northern Sonora. He has many warm friends in the Territory, and it is not at all unlikely that he may develop strength in opposition to Bryan.

TERRITORIAL BRIEFS.

Chairman J. P. Dillon of the Democratic Territorial Committee today telephoned from Prescott that he had decided to call his Executive Committee together in Phoenix March 28. The committee will fix the date and place for the Democratic Territorial Convention that is to select delegates to Denver, and will make apportionment of the delegates among the counties.

After March 13, the saloons of Phoenix must be closed between midnight and 5 a.m., according to an ordinance passed last night by the City Council.

A couple of weeks ago, on the desert northwest of Phoenix, were found human bones, supposed to be those of Pedro Etchegaray, a sheep herder, missing for several years. A brother, Joseph Etchegaray, has just left for his home in Los Angeles, after a week spent here in investigation. He has concluded that the bones are not those of his brother.

Arizona has $134,982 in her treasury, having gained $100,000 a year in the past two years. Never in her history has the Territory been so prosperous as now, from the viewpoint of the Territorial Treasurer.

The Woman's Club has elected as its president Mrs. J. H. Kibbey, wife of Gov. Kibbey.

Carl Leonardt of Los Angeles has finished his work upon the Noble block, and his representatives state that a lien for about $30,000, unpaid balance, would be filed at once. They estimate that $165,000 has been spent upon the structure, and that $112,000 more must be raised to complete it according to original plans. It is probable that the orginal plans will be materially modified.

Members of the Phoenix Country Club, headed by Joseph Wheelock, have given clever performances of "The Man From Mexico" to crowded houses in Phoenix and Mesa.

April 1 in Phoenix will be issued a new Arizona magazine, entitled "The Call of the Desert."

New Springfield rifles of the latest pattern have been received for the rearming of the National Guard of Arizona.

Miss Florence Stewart of this city and James A. Robison of Los Angeles were married here this week.

Rev. A. R. MacLain, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Phoenix, has been transferred to Grant's Pass, Or., and will be succeeded by Rev. James A. Geissenger, now in charge of the Methodist Church in El Paso, Tex.

C. C. Hirsig of Los Angeles died this week in Phoenix. Interment will be in Los Angeles.

TUCSON GETS IT.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) March 4.—Tucson will get the Territorial convention which will choose the Arizona delegates to the Republican National Convention. This much was decided upon at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican Territorial Committee, held in this city. The date of the convention will be April 13. Especially in the Democratic papers had been published lurid prophesies of trouble at the committee meeting, between the Taft and anti-Taft factions. Nothing of the sort materialized. The anti-Instructionists see comfort in the selection of Tucson as a meeting point, for it is claimed that this city is against instructions, while Phoenix is conceded to be strongly for the President and for a continuance of his policies. Yet there would appear to have been a Taft majority on the Executive Committee, despite the vote on the convention city, and this considering the fact also that the committeeman from Maricopa county voted against his home town of Phoenix. But this majority was not used to force any pro-Taft resolutions, as had been predicted. The question of instructions will go to the [illegible]. In Arizona it is against Taft. Gentlemen:—I want to tell you how much I suffered and how completely I am cured. I had a very bad cold which settled on my lungs, and I coughed incessantly without rest for two months. I tried all kinds of cough remedies but they did not relieve me. Finally I got a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and after taking the first dose I coughed but little; by the time I had taken the second bottle I was entirely cured. Since then I have not had a cough or cold. I am 59 years old and never used any remedy equal to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It gives quick and permanent relief in grip as well as coughs and colds. It makes weak lungs strong. Mrs. M. A. Metcalfe, Paducah, Ky.

LAW QUESTION THAT AFFECTS WINE MAKERS.

Orange County Man Released from Jail on Habeas Corpus Proceedings Instituted With the Supreme Court. No Time to Be Wasted in Securing Funds for New Railroad.

SANTA ANA, March 6.—Joseph Young of Orange, who has been in the County Jail serving out a sixty-day sentence for selling wine and brandy at his winery, was released yesterday evening on an order from the clerk of the Supreme Court of California, pending a hearing on habeas corpus proceedings, instituted in the court yesterday by Young's attorney, C. W. Pendleton of Los Angeles. Pendleton will endeavor to get the Supreme Court to pass on the validity of the Orange county prohibition ordinance. His contention will be, if he can get it before the court, that the ordinance is unreasonable in that it prohibits the manufacturer of wine and brandy from selling his product. This will be perhaps the most important test ever put upon the ordinance, and if it stands fire winery men will have lost the one point on which they have claimed a right to sell liquor.

FOR NEW RAILROAD.

There will be no time wasted about securing the funds with which to build the proposed road from Tustin to Santa Ana and on to Huntington Beach, a distance of eleven miles. On Wednesday evening the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association were authorized to appoint committees to work with N. A. Ulm in soliciting subscriptions to stock. Today those committees were appointed, and they will commence work at once raising the $100,000 or $110,000 necessary to build and put in operation the road. On the committees are; Chamber of Commerce, A. J. Visel, D. H. Thomas, G. W. Minter, W. F. Lutz, G. J. Mosbaugh, O. M. Robbins, C. F. Heil, W. L. Tubbs, W. M. Scott M. A. Menges, C. S. Forgy and Dr. H. S. Gordon; Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, N. A. Ulm, G. A. Edgar, F. P. Nickey, H. C. Dawes, J. D. Parsons, J. A. Turner, C. S. Crookshank and A. C. Bowers.

DIVORCE SUIT TRANSFERRED.

The trial of the suit for separate maintenance brought by Mrs. Jennie M. Clopton against Col. Hogatt Clopton has been transferred from Los Angeles county to Orange county. Col. Clopton is now a resident of Huntington Beach. The wife asks for $250 a month alimony and wants the court to award her $5000 for attorney fees. Col. Clopton was married here to Mrs. Jennie Seate two years ago, the colonel being 74 years of age and his bride 43. About a year ago Mrs. Clopton sued for divorce in Los Angeles, but dismissed the case on the day it was set for trial.

FULLERTON.

FULLERTON, March 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a mass meeting of voters tonight, the following candidates were nominated on the People's ticket: Walter Scobit, for City Clerk; W. R. Collis, for City Treasurer; William Lindhurst, for Marshal, and William Crowther, W. W. Coulter, August Hiltscher and J. H. Clever, for Trustees. A platform favoring a low tax rate, opposing heavy bond issues, favoring permanent improvements on highways, and advertising for bids for purchase of supplies and materials, and favoring fire protection, was adopted.

Ventura County Rancher Sues for a Divorce from Wife Who Denies Desertion.

VENTURA, March 6.—A divorce case is on in a Ventura county first family. Lee Judd Sturgis has brought suit for divorce from Alma Marie Clark Sturgis, his young and beautiful wife, whom he married in Los Angeles in 1904. The allegation is that on the 22d day of August, 1906, the wife packed her trunk and wilfully deserted her husband's home, the big Sturgis ranch on the Santa Ana, and that she has since continued to live apart from him, and has refused to return to him, although there has been no cause for such refusal. There was a baby girl, Lonna Calvin Sturgis, born to the couple a year ago, and now with the mother at Princeton, Ind., but of the child in the case the father makes no mention whatever, in his complaint.

In her affidavit answering her husband's complaint, Mrs. Sturgis denies that she deserted her husband a year ago, or any time, and that she refuses to live with him. She says she is without means of support, and money with which to fight the action against her and asks that she be allowed $500 for counsel fees, that a further $100 be allowed her for taking depositions, that $75 per month pending action be allowed her for the support of herself and baby, that her husband is worth $10,000 and easily able to pay these sums.

Lee Sturgis is a son of T. W. Sturgis, a large land owner and a very wealthy man of this county, and it is thought the present suit for divorce by the son will be far-reaching in its effects before it is settled.

NEAR TO DEATH.

Santa Barbara County Assemblyman Stricken With Pneumonia. Stormy Trip.

SANTA BARBARA, March 6.—Assemblyman E. M. Pyle of this city is reported dying at his home on Arlington Heights. He caught a severe cold, after attending church last Sunday, and Sunday night his case was diagnosed as grip, which almost immediately developed into pneumonia. He became unconscious and since Sunday night has remained in that condition. Last night there was consultation of physicians at the patient's home, between Drs. Stoddard and Barry, and it was agreed that there was little hope for the Assemblyman's life.

Assemblyman Pyle is an avowed candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket to succeed Senator Greenwell in the State Senate. He is in his sixty-first year, married and has a family of grown children.

STORMY TRIP.

Capt. Vasquez, on his trip over from the San Miguel Island, arriving here yesterday, reported that the voyage was so tremendously rough that he and his crew nearly lost their lives. The power schooner, Gussie M., on which the trip was made, carried a cargo of seventeen live seals, and it made quite a heavy lead for the little craft on the run from the islands. He said that in one of the caves entered in the search for seals, he found more than twenty in one herd, and that when they splashed into the water and made for the entrance of the cave, they upset his boat and gave him and his men a cold bath. Their lights were extinguished, and in the darkness of the cave they were in serious peril.

RIVERSIDE.

RIVERSIDE, May 7.—Orange shipments from Riverside for the past week amount to 173 cars, bringing the total for the season up to 1371 cars. This is about 150 cars less than last year's shipments to the corresponding date. For the season, the lemon shipments amount to 132 carloads. The orange crop is proving somewhat lighter than earlier estimates made it, though the quality is excellent.

R. J. Bush, who struck Dr. E. B. Howe over the head with a cuspidor last December at his barber shop on Eighth street, was found guilty of simple assault. The trial was held before Judge Densmore and a jury, and sentence will be pronounced next Monday.

ELSINORE.

ELSINORE, March 6.—There was a meeting of the Elsinore Board of Trade last night, when the constitution and bylaws were adopted, and a permanent chairman, J. A. Hoag, and permanent secretary, U. W. Jacobs, were elected. Meetings will be held the second Thursdays.

Harmony Rebekah Lodge last evening installed the following officers. Mary Aebi, Noble Grand; Belle Parker, Vice-Grand; Lorena E. Willsey, Secretary; Guy W. Willsey, Treasurer.

NOT AFRAID TO WORK.

LADY RUSSELL A POULTERER.

NEW TURN IN LIFE OF THE FORMER ACTRESS.

Being Compelled to Live at Home Because of Her Mother's Health She Becomes a Poultry Breeder and Relates Some of Her Interesting Experiences.

[London News:] Few women have of recent years been more discussed than Mabel, Countess Russell.

By a curious irony of fate she bears the title which was held for half a century by the remarkable woman who first as the wife and then as the widow of the statesman known to the British people as "Lord John Russell," held a position almost unique in society. Her home, Pembroke Lodge, Richmond Park, London, was visited by most of the distinguished men and women of the Victorian era.

The present bearer of the name—it will be remembered that the Countess's right to call herself a peeress was established by law—has had a career the curious and eventful phases of which have been met with unvarying cheerfulness which is so notable in her disposition.

Twice she contracted marriages which turned out unfortunately, and harassing experiences before the courts were necessarily accompanied by diminished pecuniary resources. But the hard facts of life having to be faced, Lady Russell tried the stage and the music-hall; and now that her ambitions in this direction have been handicapped by the continued illness of her mother, Lady Scott, who, as all the world is aware, backed her in her legal fights with wondrous courage and determination. Lady Russell is anxious to succeed in another walk of life, one which may with reason be said to provide a favorable opening for the gentlewoman accustomed to country life—that of poultry farming.

Down at her riverside house, Bray Lawn, Bray, the next house on the river to that once occupied by Mrs. Brown-Potter, Lady Russell has over 200 hens and chickens, already famous for their laying qualities.

"In a small way," said Lady Russell, "I have proved that the hen run can be made to pay, but space here is limited. I can no longer extend my fowl houses, and I should like to meet two or three people with a little money to invest, so that we could form a syndicate and take a larger and more suitable country place, say somewhere in the Trunbridge Wells neighborhood, so that we should be between London on the one hand, and Brighton, Folkestone, and Eastbourne on the other. I understand that new-laid eggs are particularly scarce in fashionable seaside places on the southern coast.

"If the scheme succeeded, and I myself, knowing that I understand the rearing of chickens and the whole of the practical side of poultry farming, have no doubt of the matter, then we could consider the question of opening a shop in the West End."

Lady Russell has fine brown eyes, pretty light brown hair, and much charm of manner. She is of medium height and very slim, almost fragile. But at the same time she is athletic-looking, as befits one who can most skillfully handle a pair of sculls or a punt pole. Even before her marriage to Earl Russell, Miss Mabel Scott was well known on the river, for Lady Scott and her daughters have always been fond of boating, and outdoor sports generally.

The other day, when the Thames rose so high that much of the ground attached to Bray Lawn was flooded, Lady Russell donned water boots and herself rescued some of her feathered pets which were in danger of drowning.

In addition to her hens and chickens Lady Russell has a fine collection of fantail pigeons, while she still preserves her fondness for dogs. One of her toy bull-terriers has been with her over ten years.

"Most of my stock," said Lady Russell, "consists of Buff and White Orpingtons. I have come to the conclusion—and I have been seriously interested in the poultry yard for quite ten years—that the Buff Orpingtons are the best, most reliable, and most prolific layers. I keep a few Silkies, but they lay smaller eggs, which are mostly used for cooking purposes."

Here is an average day in the life of Lady Russell as poultry farmer:

7 a.m.—Rise, and give the hens their morning meal. This is always a hot meal. The coops and runs are cleared.

11 a.m.—Eggs collected.

1:30 p.m.—A second meal, potatoes and corn one day, rice and corn the other, with the addition of bits of bread, raw cabbage, etc.

2 p.m.—Eggs collected.

5 p.m.—Final collection of eggs for the day.

"Continuous care of my birds and my dogs has convinced me that man has much to learn from the lower animals," continued Lady Russell. "Hens can be peculiar in their natures and possess individual dispositions much as can human beings, and I might add that, as far as my experience goes, the male bird seems to show more character.

"I have known one rooster who had to be fed alone since if given his meal with hens he would, with great gallantry, pick out choice morsels and set them down before his favorites of the weaker sex, who thoughtlessly failed to follow up the maxim of 'feeding the brute,' and almost allowed him to die of starvation.

"Totally different, however, was another cock bird, now the oldest and the head of my collection. When young he was so fierce and ill-conditioned that he would tease and pick the toes of the other chickens, and even endeavor to slay them. He had eventually to be put in a cage by himself. Some one dubbed him 'Dougal'—a notorious case was much in the public mind at the time. The name stuck, and 'Dougal' he has remained to this day.

"I rather regretted leaving the stage," added Lady Russell later, "and even now I continue to receive offers of engagements from the managers; but I feel that my mother demands all the care and attention I can give her.

"You must not think that I took to the stage as a sort of refuge for the destitute, or because I thought that neither talent nor experience were necessary. I have always been fond of acting, and I look upon the stage as one of the most legitimate and agreeable spheres of work for a woman. I like the life and the work. Everybody was so kind and encouraging. You hear so much of the petty jealousies of actors and actresses behind the scenes that you would be surprised if I told you how well I was treated. Why, on the very first night I appeared, as soon as the curtain was rung down on the last act, all my fellow-artistes gathered around me and gave me three ringing cheers. I felt after that as if I could be equal to anything."

"Weakness"

Weakness is usually but a symptom of congestion or inflammation of the prostate gland. Prematureness and loss of power, etc., incident to this abnormal condition cannot be cured by internal medicine or wearing electric belts. Removal of the abnormal conditions immediately results in complete restoration of functional activity of the organs involved. We are the only specialists on the Coast curing weakness with absolute certainty.

Varicocele

No case of varicocele ever was or ever can be cured without an operation, notwithstanding the bombastic statements of would-be specialists to the contrary. For the last ten years we have had a standing offer of one thousand dollars to be awarded to any specialist who would cure a case of Varicocele without operation. Our operation is painless and devoid of all danger, and we only require our patients to lay off work for one week. By permission we can refer any one interested to any number of prominent business men, whom we have cured. Before paying out your hard-earned money to any doctor or specialist, interview a few of their cured patients. We defy any one to produce a single case treated by us that is not completely and permanently cured and thoroughly satisfied.

Stricture

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved method, which never fails to bring about a cure. Electricity or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

Specific Blood Poison

Our treatment for this loathsome disease is mild, thoroughly effective and curative, eradicating every particle of virus, and precisely similar to that employed by the most celebrated specialists of Hot Springs, Ark. Beware of harsh treatment, administered by inexperienced specialists.

WEAK ME

HEED MY WARNING

DR. TAYLOR

In my very extensive practice I have learned a few truths that are undeniably of interest to EVERY MAN. First of all I find that the VERY SERIOUS and so-called "incurable cases" are due usually to NEGLECT and DELAY. Again, I know that many men suffer for YEARS and practically RUIN THEIR HEALTH FOREVER trying to dose themselves with some patent nostrum that never could cure. And, further, it is evident that many men will run to what they call "cheap" treatment. NO TREATMENT AT ALL is what "cheap" treatment means in nine cases out of ten. The last state of the man is worse than the first. Just before you go any further in this announcement stop and ask yourself as to whether YOU are following in the foolish footsteps of the man who NEGLECTS himself? Are you trying to cure yourself with nostrums? Are you looking for treatment that WILL NOT CURE? If you are, it is certain that you will regret it. It is NEVER TOO LATE to get in the right path, but at the same time remember that you CANNOT GET THERE TOO SOON. The best help in the world is none too good for you; you cannot get it too quickly. I offer it to you at lowest fees possible.

BEAR TRADERS WORK IN VAIN.

FAIL TO DISLODGE ANY EFFECTIVE LIQUIDATION.

Occasional Operations of Habitual Trading Element Continue to Furnish All the Activity and Strength on the Stock Exchange—Two Receiverships Cause Weakness.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—The desultory operations of the habitual trading element continued to make up the strong market today, and these operations originated almost exclusively within the four walls of the stock exchange.

Efforts of the bear element to discover weak points earlier in the week having failed to dislodge any effective liquidation, the professionals having been more inclined to take the long side. As the floating supply of stocks is scanty, the buying by the traders is effective in advancing prices and prices are held so long as they hold the stocks they have bought. The Harriman Pacifics were conspicuous features when prices were advancing, without regard to the poor showing made by the January report of net earnings of both companies. Heavy declines in gross earnings had no effect in either case in cutting down of operating cost, which showed a small increase to be added to the gross decrease for effect on the net earnings. The appointment of a receiver for the Western Maryland, a subsidiary Gould line, following the receivership for a Texas line, caused inevitable depression in other stocks in that group and even more in some of the bonds. The incident was of little general influence, however, although discussion of the prospects of some minor railroad properties with a splendid margin of earnings continued unfavorable. St. Paul was helped by the confident views attributed to its president over the prospects of the company's Pacific Coast extensions.

The estimates of the week's currency movement indicated a gain of something like $5,000,000 on balance from the interior since the last bank statements. The renewal of the inflow to central banking reserves must be accepted as a reflection of unrevived dullness in interior trade. The week's exports of wheat have fallen off 1,250,000 bushels and of corn a million bushels, compared with last week.

An almost total stagnation of the stock market caused but little change in the price level. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,454,000. United States 2s, registered, declined ¼ per cent, on call.

London Copper Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

LONDON, March 6.—The copper metal market opened weak. Spots were held at £6 10s 6d, a decrease of 12s 6d. Futures were at £57, a decline of 12s 6d. The close was steady and unchanged on sales of 200 tons of spots and 1350 tons of futures.

Liverpool Cotton Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

LIVERPOOL, March 6.—The cotton market opened barely steady, from one to two points lower. Sales were due to have opened about unchanged to two points lower. The close was quiet, and unchanged to 2½ points lower. Spot cotton was still in good demand, although six points down. Middling uplands was at 6.04. Imports announced to 5000 bales, all American cotton. The market was steady generally, except for weakness in the near months, due to the tenders recently stopped. There is free liquidation in some months also.

New York Metal Market.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The London tin market was reactionary again today, with spot closing over £1 lower, at £133 10s, and futures at £130 15s. The local market was easy in sympathy with quotations ranging from 29.25@29.60. Copper was 12s 6d lower in the London market, with spot quoted at £56 10s, and futures at £57. Locally, the market was dull. There was some talk that large producers are at odds over the selling price, and meanwhile the market is more or less uncertain. Lake is quoted at 12.37½@12.50; electrolytic, 12.25@12.37½, and casting at 12.12½@12.25. Lead was unchanged at £13 12s in London. The local market was dull and unchanged at 4.60@4.75. Spelter was unchanged at £20 17s 6d in the London market, and at 4.65@4.75 locally. The London iron market was unchanged to a shade higher with standard foundry quoted at 49s 3d, and Cleveland warrants at 50s 9d. Locally, no change was reported.

New York General Market.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Wheat—Receipts, 80,600 bushels; steady; No. 2 red, 1.03½, elevator; No. 2 red, 1.02½, f.o.b. afloat; No. 1 Northern Duluth, 1.15¾, f.o.b. afloat; No. 1 hard winter, 1.15¾, f.o.b. afloat. In a general way wheat was steady to firm all day with bears timid owing to export sales, accumulations by bulls at Chicago and talk over higher northwest receipts owing to heavy snow. July had a late afternoon rally. Hops, steady; wool, quiet.

STATE OF TRADE.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 6.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Distributable trade shows growth from week to week as the shipping season approaches, and the tone of trade as a whole is more optimistic, but despite the large number of buyers in evidence at leading markets the character of the business done does not vary from that hitherto. Conservative buying, largely for immediate, is the rule, and uncertainty as to prices in many lines acts as a check to fullest activity.

"Collections are still widely complained of, and in this direction reports are no better than are the advices as to volume of business doing. Retail trade does not quicken greatly, although large centers show special efforts put forth to stimulate, in the rush, of winter goods at concessions of new spring season fabrics.

"Business failures for the week ending March 5, number 297, against 254 last week."

Dun's Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, March 6.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow:

"Unfavorable symptoms are more numerous in the commercial outlook, especially in respect to the growth of confidence. Jobbers note more pressure to replenish depleted stocks of staple merchandise, orders in many cases being for delivery next fall. The advancing season has also contributed to the better feelings by accelerating the distribution of shipping goods and stimulating interest in the building trades. Industrial plants are more active, pig iron productions rising to the best weekly average in three months.

"Credits are still closely scanned and mercantile collections are by no means satisfactory, yet payments are more prompt and the volume of business is distinctly heavier.

"There is a question of permanence of the steady improvement in the steel and iron industry that would be lacking were recovery more sensational."

STRONG PULL FOR HOSPITAL.

Methodists Make Determined Move for It.

Colored Presbyterians to Dedicate Church.

Farewell to Missionary to South Africa.

The movement for a Methodist hospital, where people of moderate means or no means whatever may receive treatment, is taking on new activity, with some prospects of success. The Women's Home Missionary Society owns a splendid site for the building on Grand View avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and they are now starting out to create a fund of $25,000 or more, for the erection of the hospital. The movement is in the hands of a strong committee, with Chaplain Nave at its head, and the work will be vigorously pushed. They seek membership at $10 each and life memberships at $100 each, and urge churches, Sunday-schools and societies to take the work on their hearts and make the philanthropic institution a certainty without delay. On next Tuesday night Dr. Robert McIntyre will deliver a lecture in Simpson Auditorium for the benefit of the fund. His subject will be, "A Model Home." The movement is indorsed by the Southern California conference, and leading Methodists in the city and surrounding towns have been enlisted in it, and have representation of the committee.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

COLORED PRESBYTERIANS.

What is believed to be the only colored Presbyterian church on this coast will be dedicated tomorrow at 3 o'clock at West Thirty-seventh street and Denker avenue, reached by the West Jefferson car line. It is the Westminster Presbyterian Church, which has been promoted by Rev. E. P. Baker, a white minister, under the direction of the Church Extension Committee. The sermon tomorrow afternoon will be by Dr. Hugh K. Walker of Immanuel Presbyterian Church; greetings from other churches will be by J. D. Gordon of Tabernacle Baptist Church; Rev. A. B. Prichard will speak for the committee, Rev. G. R. Bryant of Wesley Chapel, Rev. R. W. Cleland of Long Beach and others will take part in the service. The church was organized in 1904, services being held in a hall on Central avenue, and the present building was erected last June. It promises to become a strong church.

Prof. Cook of Occidental College, formerly of Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ark., will preach at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

BACK TO AFRICA.

FAREWELL TO MISSIONARY.

A farewell service in honor of Miss Minnie Eaton will be held in the First United Brethren Church, Pico and Hope streets, on Sunday evening. Miss Eaton has spent thirteen years in Africa and has been with her friends in Los Angeles for some months, recuperating her shattered health, and next week will start on her return to her work in the mission field. She will deliver an address at the farewell service, and there will be a programme of special music. She is a sister of Mrs. Mary Dumphy of this city.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS.

IN VACANT PULPIT.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Hunter of Spokane, Wash., will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow, both morning and evening, made vacant by the resignation of F. De Witt Talmage. He is said to be an eloquent preacher and a popular pastor. He is accompanied by Mrs. Hunter, who was formerly Miss Kate Smith, a teacher in the Norwood school.

"The Hidden Hand," will be the topic of the sermon by Rev. Frank Carnell in the First Friends Church, tomorrow morning.

Rev. Robert J. Burdette will preach about "Rich Debtors," in Temple Auditorium on Sunday morning, and in the evening on "The Decoy and the Hunter." Among the music at the latter service will be "The Angelus," by the choir, during which Kingsley will play the chimes on the great organ.

Capt. Charles Stanley, who "writes the songs he sings, and sings the songs he writes," will be the attraction at the hall of the Volunteers of America tonight. He is a converted commedian.

Dr. J. Q. A. Henry will tomorrow complete his first six months as pastor of the First Baptist Church, during which time he has received 186 members. In the evening he will commence a sensational series of sermons on "The Scarlet Sins of Society."

William Murphy will hold his gospel temperance meeting as usual on Sunday evening in Blanchard Hall. The soloists will be Mrs. Wayland Trask and Francis Murphy, Jr. In the afternoon he will hold a meeting in Chutes Park.

A two weeks' Catholic mission will begin in St. Vibiana's Cathedral on Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. Thomas C. McKeogh and Rev. Thomas A. O'Malley, both of Kansas City, who have been holding missions throughout the State. Services will be held daily at 5 and 9 o'clock, a.m., and at 3 and 7:15 p.m.

St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Central avenue and Thirty-fourth street, will be dedicated by Bishop Conaty at 10 o'clock, a.m. March 22. Rev. J. P. Fisher of Santa Clara will officiate, at the vespers in the evening. Father P. J. O'Reilly is rector in charge.

The Evangelical Prayer Union will hold an all-day meeting in Central Presbyterian Church on next Friday, leaders being provided for the different hours of the day from among the leading ministers of the city. The union is entirely undenominational, and all churches are represented in it.

Rev. Levi D. Barr will preach in Haven Methodist Church on Sunday night, his subject being "A Divine Photograph of a Christian." Mr. Barr is a strong and eloquent preacher.

"How to Become Strong" will be the subject of the address by Miss Elsie Whiting, associate secretary, at the vesper service in the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association, tomorrow at 4 o'clock.

Rabbi Isidore Myers will preach to the Sinai Jewish Congregation in B'nai B'rith Hall this morning at 11 o'clock. The services will begin at 9:30 a.m. The children of the school connected with the congregation will hold a memorial service on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, in memory of the children burned in the school near Cleveland, O.

The Jewish Women's Foreign Relief Association will hold a meeting in Temple B'nai B'rith on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The president, Mrs. Bertha Hirsch Baruch, will deliver an address, the other officers will make reports, and an election will be held.

Rev. L. A. Gould will deliver a stereopticon lecture on China in the First Baptist Church at 6:15 o'clock Sunday evening. On Monday evening he will begin a series of eight lectures in the same church.

The Grand-avenue Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene will be organized tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the new building erected at Malcolmson street and Grand avenue. The building will be dedicated on Sunday, March 15.

The Baraca Boys, Judge Wilbur's class in the First Congregational Sunday-school, celebrated the close of a membership contest with a banquet last night. The contest was between the orange and the blue; the blue won and the others gave the banquet as a penalty for their failure to win. About 90 were in attendance. Judge Wilbur made an address and a number of members of the class were called out for speeches.

"Yes," assented Katherine Graniger, "but we all have to begin some time or another, and as, apparently, there was no one to object, I began at four." She spoke quite cheerfully. Then she smiled. "Miss Beamish has often told me that I was a very difficult child. They could not get me to eat anything. She declares that very often she had to sit up half the night and nurse me, because I would not go to sleep in a bed." The smile rippled into laughter. "I have often tried to imagine Miss Beamish nursing me. If you had known her you would realize how funny it sounds."

"Funny!" said Agnes Brenton to herself.

She busied herself attending to the material comfort of her guest for a minute or two. Then she said:

"Of course, I will advise you, Miss Graniger, and I shall be only too glad to help you if I can. Just tell me what you think you could do. What would you like to do?" Mrs. Brenton asked, going straight to the point, in her practical way.

The girl paused and pondered a moment; then she said: "It is difficult, for I don't quite know what I can do. I have no accomplishments. I adore music, but I was never taught a note. Music was an extra, and I was a charity girl. I can read and write, and do a little arithmetic; I can sew, and I can dig! I am really quite a good gardener," she said. "Whatever I do, I want, if possible, to be somewhere where there is a garden, or at any rate, where I can see grass and some trees. The oppression of bricks and mortar is a great sufferance to me! Mrs. Baynhurst's house is built in by other houses; the rooms are so dreary. There is no air, and the windows are never open, and I never got out. I used to drive with her occasionally, but I never walked."

Agnes Brenton fretted her brows into a slight frown.

"Do you like children?" she asked, after a little pause.

The thin, sallow face lit up.

"Children? Yes, I love children. I was a pupil teacher two years before I left school. There were some quite tiny tots with Miss Beamish. She had a large Indian connection, and also children from all parts of the world. When I left there were two dear little souls there from Barbados. I cried at leaving them," she sighed, "and I don't often cry," she added, after a little pause.

Mrs. Brenton went on eating her breakfast, and Katherine Graniger relapsed into silence for a moment. Then, with a rush of color to her cheeks, she said:

"But please don't let me bother you in any way, Mrs. Brenton. You have been already much too good. I dare say Mr. Haverford will arrange something for me."

Agnes Brenton was about to answer this with some kindly words when they were startled by a sharp rap with a stick on the door, and t' the door was opened and Camilla presented herself.

She was in her riding habit, and looked slim and boyish and radiant, and extraordinarily pretty and young.

"Oh, you lazy Agnes," she said, "not finished breakfast yet! Look at the time—nearly ten minutes past ten, and I have been out since half-past eight." She bent to kiss Mrs. Brenton, and then gave Katherine a smile and a little nod, as Agnes Brenton hurriedly introduced them.

"Give me something to eat, for the Lord's sake! I am positively famished," she declared. She threw off her riding gloves and tossed them, with her stick and her hat, on to the couch.

"Didn't you have anything before you went out?" asked Mrs. Brenton.

"Good heavens, no!"

Camilla stood in front of the looking-glass and ruffled her hair becomingly.

"Sammy sent word at 8 o'clock that he was coming at half-past eight. He made Dennis wake me up. There was no time for anything except a bath, and how I tumbled into these things I don't know."

She sat down opposite to Miss Graniger, and began to eat with real enjoyment.

"I am rather glad you are breakfasting late; it is a bit of luck for me. You have no idea how lovely it was in the park, Agnes," she said. "There was not a scrap of fog. Thank goodness for that! Those two dear chickens of mine will be able to get out today. And, oh! Agnes, another blow! Nurse came to me this morning, just as I was going out, with a doleful story about her father, or her mother, or somebody being dreadfully ill, and asking me if she might go and nurse the sick person. Isn't it too tiresome? She had only been with me a few months, but really she seemed quite a likely person. Those poor children! They do get such chopping and changing. Oh, by the way!" said Camilla, "I think I had better send the horse away; I can go home in a hansom. May I ring the bell?"

She half-rose from the table, but Katherine Graniger was quicker.

"May I take your message?" she asked. She spoke shyly. This young and very pretty woman was a new experience to her. She felt a little out of the atmosphere, and imagining swiftly that Mrs. Brenton and Mrs. Lancing might have something to say to one another, she seized the chance of leaving them together.

"Oh, thank you. It is ever so kind of you. Just please say to the groom that Mrs. Lancing will not ride any more today. Poor little soul," said Camilla, sympathetically, as the door closed, "how miserably thin she is; she looks as if she had not had enough to eat, and you are in your proper quarter, Agnes, playing the part of the good Samaritan. Well, now you must help me, my dear, because nurse is in earnest. I quite expect to find that she is gone when I get back. Why on earth do servants have parents and relations? I believe they exist on purpose to have the most mysterious diseases at the most inconvenient moments. Did you ever know a cook whose mother had not a bad leg, whatever that may be? Oh, how I hate housekeeping. I feel half inclined to live in a hotel."

"You ought to take the children into the country," said Mrs. Brenton, in her quiet way.

Camilla ate a very good breakfast, and then looked up at her friend with a quizzical expression.

"Well, Agnes," she said, and paused.

Mrs. Brenton just smiled.

"Well, Camilla?"

Mrs. Lancing laughed as she spread some butter on some toast.

"When you look straight down your nose in that fashion it means the wind is in a bad quarter for somebody, and I fancy that somebody is me just now."

Agnes Brenton laughed, but only slightly, and, getting up, moved to the fireplace.

"My dear child," she said, "I wish you would not do these sort of things."

"What sort of things?" asked Camilla.

Mrs. Brenton took up the poker and stirred the fire vigorously.

"You know quite well what I mean," she answered, a little impatiently, "and I confess I don't understand you, Camilla. I thought you really disliked Sammy Broxbourne. You used to be always running him down, I remember."

"Oh, it's Sammy you object to, is it?" said Camilla. "My dear, dear soul, I do assure you there wasn't a creature about this morning. That is why I enjoyed the ride. We flew through the park as if we had been a couple of birds."

"You have such a heap of people that you can go about with," said Mrs. Brenton, half-impatiently; "why choose the one man who is likely to do you harm?"

"Oh, come, that is all rubbish, Agnes," Mrs. Lancing said, a little impatiently in her turn. "Sammy is not a hero, but I don't suppose he is worse than any other man; and then we are connected, you know, and that goes a long way."

"The Broxbournes are third or fourth cousins of old Col. Lancing, but that is no kind of relationship. However, I suppose you know your own business best, and I have no earthly right to interfere as long as you are happy, my dear child. Happiness is the one great thing, after all."

Camilla finished the toast, and then got up.

She sighed a quick, impatient sigh.

"If I sit here I shall eat all there is on the table, and I have driven that girl away," she said; "she looks rather nice, Agnes. What is she going to do?"

"I was just talking things over with her, though I suppose really this is a matter for Mr. Haverford to settle. But she interests me, and I feel so sorry for her. She will not go back to his mother, that is very sure. I think she will try and get a place as nursery governess, or something of that sort. She seems devoted to children."

"Perhaps she would do for me," said Camilla, in her impulsive way.

Mrs. Brenton only smiled.

"We must go into matters a little bit more," she said, "before we can come to any conclusion."

"Well, you are going to bring her to lunch, aren't you?"
